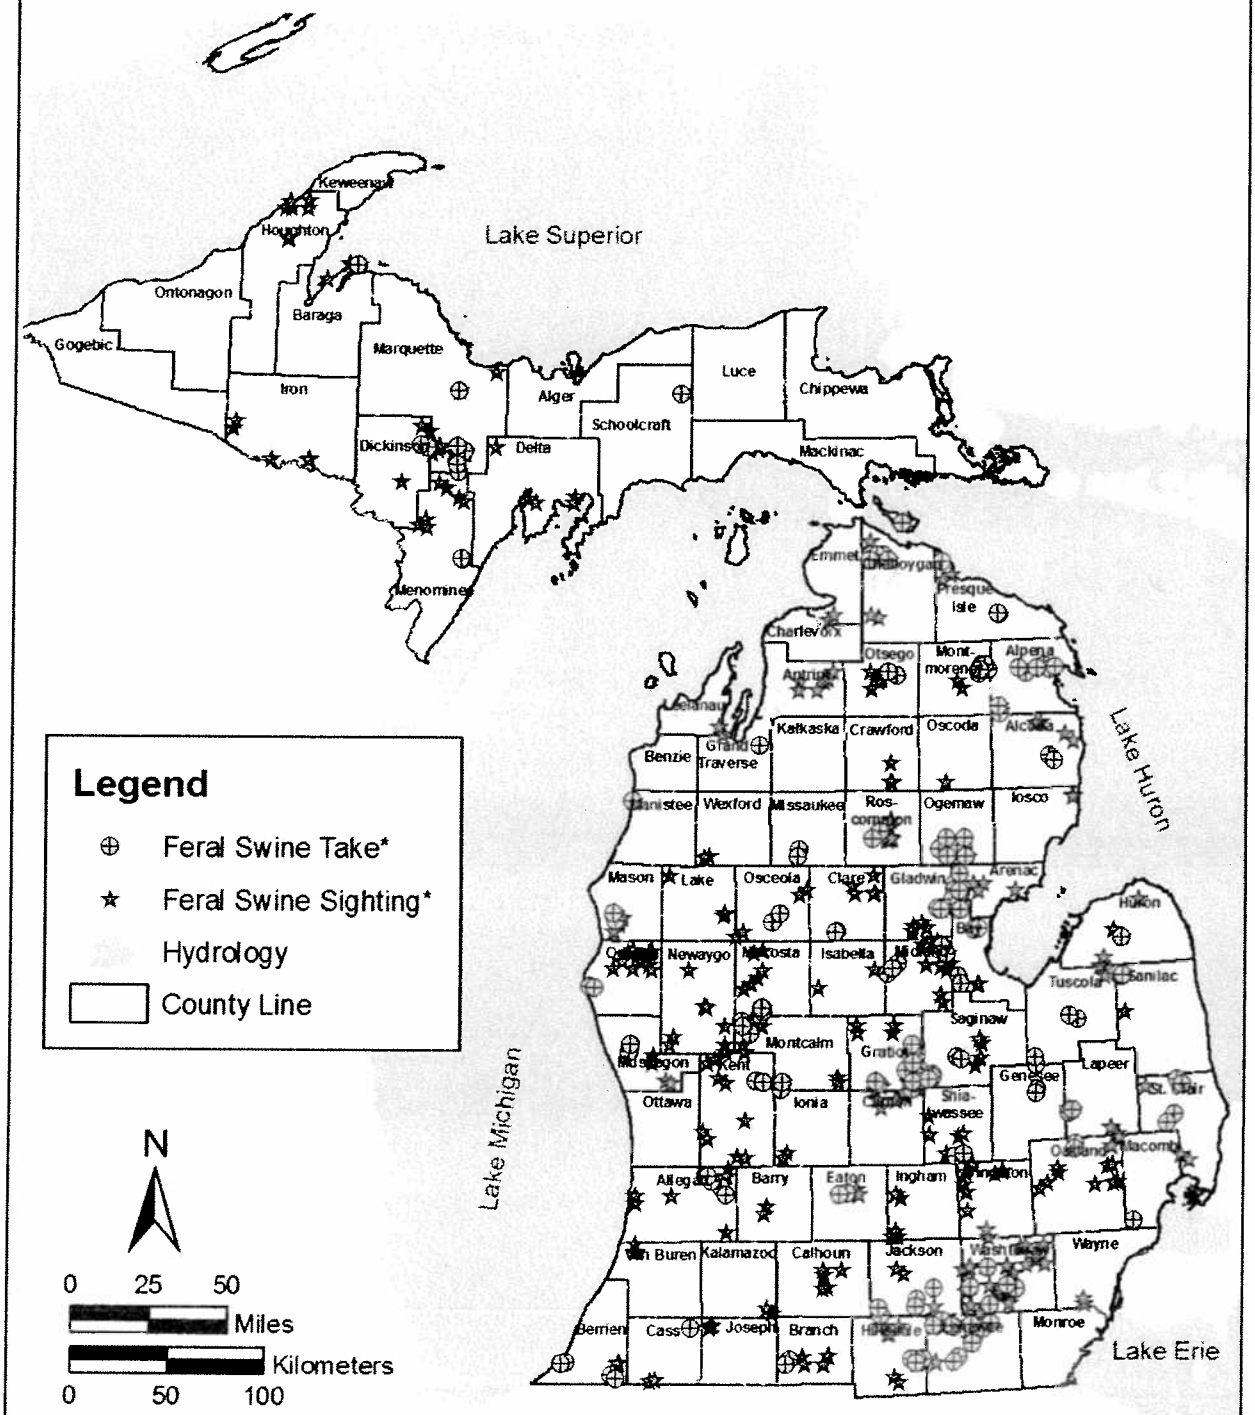
Michigan Feral Swine Sightings and Take

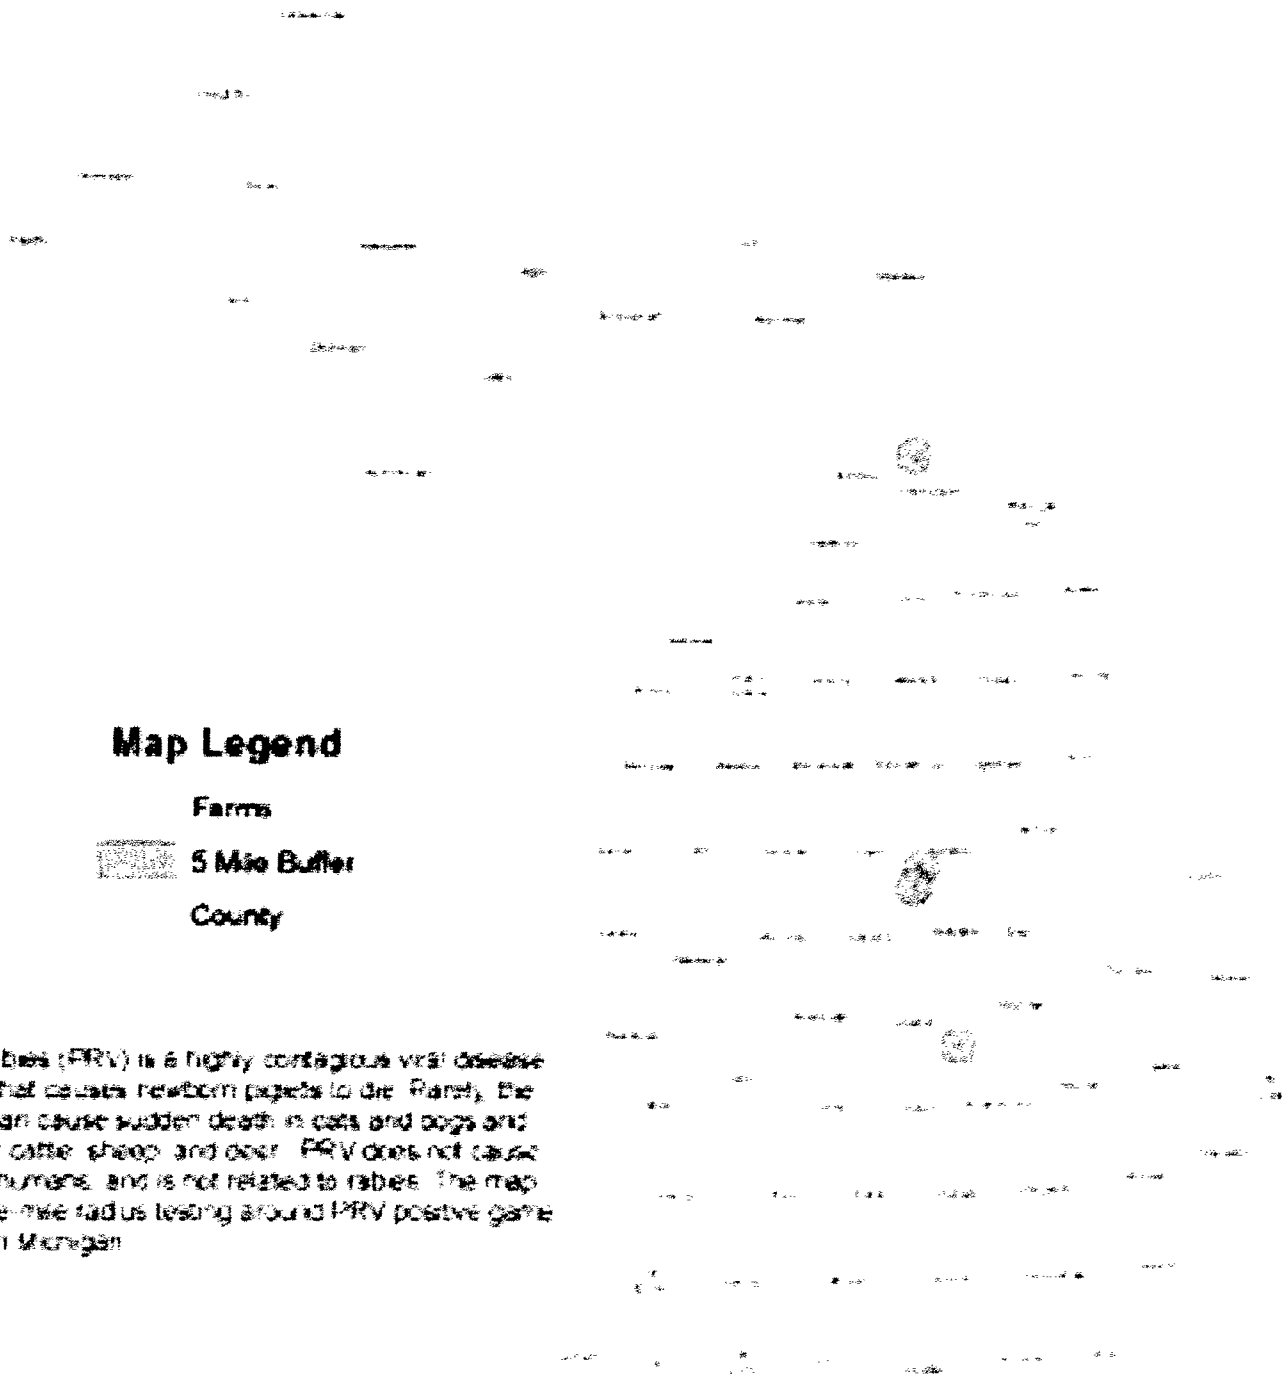


*Not all sightings and take locations are shown due to incomplete information

Rev. April 11, 2011

Pseudorabies Virus (PRV)

Current Surveillance Testing of "Transitional"
(Russian and Eurasian hybrid) Swine
May 21, 2008



Map Legend

Farms

5 Mile Buffer

County

Pseudorabies (PRV) is a highly contagious viral disease of swine that causes newborn piglets to die. Rarely, the disease can cause sudden death in cats and dogs and can affect cattle, sheep, and deer. PRV does not cause illness in humans, and is not related to rabies. The map shows five-mile radius testing around PRV positive game ranches in Michigan.

Michigan Department of Agriculture