Dr. Lonnie W. Brown, Pastor of Kingdom of Heaven Ministries in Flint, offered the following invocation:

“Our Father God, we thank You for the service provided by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House and all Government Officials. As we have been summoned here by the citizens of this great State to address their concerns, solve their problems and speak to their hope. We ask for Your grace to fulfill their expectations!

In spite of our various backgrounds cultural and geographical, we have been called here by You to work together. We have been called to create a strength of unity that cannot be resisted by our specific individual differences. Help us today with grace to rise above these so called separations, to embrace a Spirit of unity that will bring to the forefront the purpose inscribed in each one of us by Your design.

Your Design creates an atmosphere that is healthy, holistic, and supportive to all citizens regardless of their past problems or specific preferences. We thank You for this privilege today. While our state has been inundated with so many challenges there is one that looms large over the horizon – the water crisis in Flint.

There seems to be a growing worldwide public outcry and deep concern for the safety and security of the citizens of Flint, Michigan. It is our prayer today that this crisis is resolved by all of us in this hall, with the idea that the people outside this hall need our total cooperation. I pray grace today that we not only address this problem with a solution, but that we have grace to address any other problem that may reach this floor. Thank You for the grace to represent You, as we serve all of the citizens of this great state of Michigan, executing legislative justice and equity. In Jesus name, Amen.”
