Rep. Chuck Moss, from the 40th District, offered the following invocation:

“Letter Addressed to the Governors of all the States, June 14, 1783:
George Washington -

I now make it my earnest prayer that God would have you, and the State over which you preside, in His holy protection; that He would incline the hearts of the citizens to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another, for their fellow-citizens of the United States at large, and particularly for brethren who have served in the field; and finally that He would most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility, and pacific temper of mind, which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion, and without a humble imitation of whose example in these things, we can never hope to be a happy nation.

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Reps. Switalski, Slavens, Townsend, Darany, Lindberg, Byrum, Womack, Barnett, Hovey-Wright, Kandreas, Santana, Segal, Howze, Brown, Bauer, Constan, Durhal, Goike, Knollenberg, Liss and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 222.

A resolution to declare April 2012 as Sexual Assault Awareness and Prevention Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Rape and sexual assault impacts women, children, and men of all racial, cultural, and economic backgrounds; and
Whereas, The American Medical Association has stated that a “woman is raped every 46 seconds in the United States” and that sexual assault is a “silent epidemic”; and

Whereas, Women, children, and men are all victims of sexual assault and it is estimated that one in three women, one in four girls, one in six boys, and one in 11 men will be victims at least once in their lifetimes; and

Whereas, It is estimated by the Bureau of Justice Statistics that over 65 percent of rapes are never reported to police; and

Whereas, Only 36 percent of sexual assault victims pursue prosecution by reporting their attacks to law enforcement agencies; and

Whereas, Sixty-seven percent of all victims of sexual assault reported to law enforcement agencies were under 18 years of age and 34 percent of all victims were under 12 years of age; and

Whereas, In addition to the immediate physical and emotional costs, sexual assault may also have associated severe and long-lasting consequences of post-traumatic stress disorder, substance abuse, major depression, homelessness, eating disorders, and suicide; and

Whereas, The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has identified sexual assault as a significant, costly, and preventable health issue; and

Whereas, Women, children, and men in our state have the right to be safe from sexual violence in their homes, at school, at work, and on the streets; and

Whereas, Seven in ten victims knew the offender prior to the act and were often identified as friends or acquaintances; and

Whereas, It is crucially important to hold perpetrators responsible for sexual attacks, and to prevent sexual violence at every opportunity; and

Whereas, It is important to recognize the strength, courage, and challenges of the victims and survivors of sexual assault and their families and friends as they struggle to cope with the reality of sexual assault; and

Whereas, It is critical to draw statewide and national attention to this very important issue so that citizens are educated and in a better position to prevent sexual assault; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 2012 as Sexual Assault Awareness and Prevention Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Hovey-Wright, Geiss, Barnett, Nathan, Tlaib, Cavanagh, Rutledge, Howze, Bauer, Smiley, Slavens, Talabi, Stanley, Lindberg, Byrum, Bledsoe, Irwin, Lipton, Segal, Santana, Dillon, Townsend, Greimel, Switalski, Meadows, Hammel, Brown, McCann, Kandreas, Hobbs, Ananich, Durhal, Liss, Jackson, Haugh, Stallworth, Oakes, Stapleton and Womack offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 223.

A resolution to express support for access to preventive health care services, including contraception, for all women and to strongly support insurance coverage of contraception without co-pays and cost-sharing.

Whereas, On March 23, 2010, President Obama signed the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, H.R. 3590 (the Act) into law and Section 2713 of the Act requires new health insurance plans to cover women's preventive health care services without co-pays or cost-sharing. Congress's intent to require health insurance plans to cover preventive services was to encourage and invest in basic health care services to improve health outcomes for all Americans; and

Whereas, The Institute of Medicine (IOM), an independent, nonpartisan medical body, conducted a scientific review and recommended that contraception be considered a preventive service for women under the Affordable Care Act as family planning services improve health care outcomes and wellness for women and families. Access to family planning is directly linked to declines in maternal and infant mortality rates, which is one of Governor Snyder's stated public health priorities. Contraception enables women to better prevent unintended pregnancy and plan for pregnancy when they do want to have a child. When women plan their pregnancies, they are more likely to seek prenatal care, improving their own health and the health of their children. Ninety-nine percent of sexually active women and ninety-eight percent of sexually active catholic women will have used birth control at some point in their lives. In addition to the primary purpose of allowing women to plan and prepare for pregnancy, other health benefits of contraception include reduced risk of endometrial and ovarian cancers, ectopic pregnancy, iron deficiency anemia related to heavy menstruation, osteoporosis, ovarian cysts, and pelvic inflammatory disease. Thus, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) accepted the recommendation of the IOM, and will therefore require U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA)-approved contraceptive methods to be covered by all new health plans without co-pays or cost-sharing; and

Whereas, Copayments and other cost-sharing are barriers to accessing affordable contraception with consequences reflected in sobering statistics concerning unintended pregnancy. Half of all pregnancies in the United States each year are unintended; sixty-nine percent of pregnancies among African-American women are unintended; fifty-four percent of pregnancies among Latina women are unintended; and forty percent of pregnancies among Caucasian women are unintended. The U.S. has one of the highest rates of unintended pregnancy among the world's most developed nations and consistently lags behind other developed nations in maternal and infant mortality rankings. In recent rankings, the U.S. ranked forty-second in the world for maternal mortality and thirtieth in the world for infant mortality rates. The cost of the prescription is a major factor in consistent use of prescription birth control. Co-pays for birth control pills typically range between $15 and $80 per month, and for other methods, such as IUDs, co-pays and other out-of-pocket expenses can reach into the hundreds of dollars. Research shows that thirty-four percent of American women have struggled with the cost of prescription birth control at some point in their lives, and as a result, have used birth control inconsistently. The numbers are even more dramatic among younger women (ages 18-34) with fifty-five percent mentioning a time when cost made it difficult to use birth control consistently; and

Whereas, Access to health care services, including contraception, is consistent with current policy, including existing federal and state refusal laws. Currently, twenty-eight states require health insurance plans that cover prescription drugs to cover contraception. Excluding birth control from coverage has long been considered discrimination against women. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has determined that the failure to provide coverage for prescription contraception in health plans that otherwise cover prescription drugs and devices constitutes sex discrimination. Women, regardless of where they work, should have access to health insurance that covers preventive health care, including contraception. Allowing employers to refuse to cover essential health services, such as contraception, would undermine the basic notion of health insurance and take away important protections that were created by the Affordable Care Act. Furthermore, voters by a margin of seventy-one percent to twenty-four percent believe that health insurance plans should cover birth control as preventive care for women; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we express support for access to preventive health care services, including contraception, for all women and to strongly support insurance coverage of contraception without co-pays and cost-sharing; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

Reps. Kowall, Bauer, Denby, LaFontaine, Shaughnessy, Gilbert, Muxlow, Ouimet, Johnson, Hooker, Haines, Price, Knollenberg, Tyler, Lyons, Jenkins, Hughes, Slavens, Lipton, Olumba, Lindberg, Tlaib, Hovey-Wright, Jackson, Brown, Hammel, LeBlanc, Byrum, Howze, Rutledge, Stallworth, Talabi, Durhal, Switalski, Bledsoe, Kandrevas, Stapleton, Barnett, Liss, Meadows, Oakes, Constan, Darany, Goike, Horn, Poleski and Segal offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 224.

A resolution to declare March 2012 as Women's History Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan women of every race, class, and ethnic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of Michigan in countless recorded and unrecorded ways; and

Whereas, Michigan women have played and continue to play a critical economic, cultural, and social role in every sphere of the life of Michigan by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working inside and outside of the home; and

Whereas, Accomplished women in Michigan such as Cora Reynolds Anderson, Lorraine Beebe, Cora Mae Brown, Anna Clemenc, Mary Stallings Coleman, Betty Ford, Martha Griffiths, Marie-Therese Guyon-Cadillac, Erma Henderson, Mildred Jeffrey, Rosa Parks, Elly Peterson, Dorothy Comstock Riley, Anna Howard Shaw, Lucinda Stone, and Sojourner Truth deserve more recognition; and

Whereas, Michigan women have played a unique role throughout the history of Michigan by providing the majority of the volunteer labor force of Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan women were particularly important in the establishment of early charitable, philanthropic, and cultural institutions in Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan women of every race, class, and ethnic background served as early leaders in the forefront of every major progressive social change movement; and

Whereas, Michigan women have been leaders, not only in securing their own rights of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor movement, the civil rights movement, the peace movement, and other movements which created a more fair and just society for all; and

Whereas, The population of Michigan is fifty-one percent women, the percentage of women legislators in the Michigan House of Representatives is twenty-five percent, the percentage of women legislators in the Michigan Senate is eleven percent; and

Whereas, Despite these contributions, the role of Michigan women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued, in the literature, teaching and study of Michigan history; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare March 2012 as Women's History Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Tlaib, Hovey-Wright, Slavens, Constan, Switalski, Brown, Jackson, Santana, Barnett, Smiley, Brunner, Roy Schmidt, Stanley, Kandrevas, McCann, Talabi, Durhal, Darany, Goike, Knollenberg, Liss and Segal offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 225.

A resolution to declare April 27, 2012, as Viral Hepatitis Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Liver cancer and liver disease related to hepatitis B and hepatitis C are among the leading killers in Michigan; and

Whereas, Hepatitis C is the most prevalent blood borne disease in the United States; and

Whereas, Early detection of hepatitis B or hepatitis C infection promotes effective management or treatment of these infections, preventing disability, loss of productivity and income, and allows persons to live full, satisfying, and productive lives; and

Whereas, Undetected and untreated hepatitis B or hepatitis C infection can lead to disability or death; and

Whereas, The majority of Michigan residents with chronic hepatitis B or C infection do not know they are infected and are therefore at high risk of severe liver disease, liver cancer, or liver failure; and

Whereas, Untreated hepatitis B and hepatitis C are leading causes of liver failure requiring a liver transplant; and

Whereas, There is a vaccine for the prevention of hepatitis B, the first proven low-cost vaccination against any form of cancer made available to Americans; and

Whereas, Hepatitis awareness education campaigns and accessible screening for hepatitis B and hepatitis C along with appropriate treatment can reduce the damage from hepatitis B and hepatitis C viral infection to individuals and to our community; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 27, 2012, as Viral Hepatitis Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Price, Barnett, Bauer, Brown, Constan, Darany, Durhal, Goike, Horn, Knollenberg, Liss, Poleski, Segal, Slavens and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 226.

A resolution to declare April 2012 as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Since 1983, April has been designated National Child Abuse Prevention Month and has served to increase public awareness of the need to ensure the safety and welfare of children; and

Whereas, Crossing all racial, economic and geographic boundaries and including physical, sexual and emotional abuse and physical neglect, the repercussions are long-lasting, not only for the victims and their families but also for communities and society as a whole; and

Whereas, Nationally, in 2009, an estimated 2.9 million children received a protective services investigation at an expense of at least $103.8 billion annually, costing the average American family $942 each year; and

Whereas, In Michigan during that same period, there were 71,780 complaints of suspected child abuse and neglect, with a parent as the perpetrator in approximately 79 percent of the cases; and

Whereas, A focus on promoting the Protective Factors, including building parent resiliency, providing social supports and educating about child development will help build and strengthen positive relationships between parents/caregivers and the children in their care; and

Whereas, The Power of One, an initiative led by the Michigan Children's Trust Fund that asserts that one community, one person, one dollar or one action can help protect Michigan's children from abuse and neglect; and

Whereas, We recognize that no one person can do everything, but that everyone can do something, and together we can create change for the better; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 2012 as Child Abuse Prevention Month in Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of this legislative body encourage all Michiganders to work to build safe communities, promote strong families and raise healthy children by supporting those who are striving to end the tragic abuse and neglect of children and allow them to realize their full potential.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Rep. Hughes offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 227.

A resolution to memorialize Congress to reject the President's budget proposal to eliminate the search-and-rescue U.S. Coast Guard helicopter unit in Muskegon County and to restructure the Traverse City Air Station.

Whereas, Lake Michigan is the second largest of the Great Lakes; it is 307 miles in length and 118 miles in width. Over 950,000 recreational vessels are registered in Michigan and an estimated 182,000 recreational boaters, from multiple states, operate on Lake Michigan sometime during the year. In addition, the 410-foot S.S. Badger and Lake Express car ferries each make multiple trips across the lake between May and September, transporting hundreds of passengers each voyage; and

Whereas, The U.S. Coast Guard Air Facility in Muskegon County, at Lake Michigan, provides important mid-lake accessibility to respond to water emergencies. The next closest stations able to respond to West Michigan are Chicago, 115 miles south, or Traverse City, 113 miles north. Closing the Muskegon County air facility would significantly decrease the Coast Guard's search-and-rescue capabilities, leaving boaters on Lake Michigan at far greater risk in the event of an emergency; and

Whereas, The proposed reduction in the number of helicopters in the Traverse City air station would further limit the Coast Guard's search-and-rescue capabilities. Reducing or eliminating any current Coast Guard emergency response facilities on Lake Michigan will compromise its capacity to respond quickly to an emergency in the mid-lake area of Lake Michigan; and

Whereas, The Muskegon County Coast Guard helicopter unit and the Traverse City air station also respond to homeland security situations. Located just 250 miles from Sault Ste. Marie, Canada, the helicopter units provide additional support necessary to protect national borders; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize Congress to reject the President's budget proposal to eliminate the search-and-rescue U.S. Coast Guard helicopter unit in Muskegon County and to restructure the Traverse City Air Station; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs and Homeland Security.

Reps. Stamas and Segal offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 52.

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That when the House adjourns on Thursday, March 29, 2012, it stands adjourned until Tuesday, April 17, 2012, at 1:30 p.m.; and that when the Senate adjourns on Thursday, March 29, 2012, it stands adjourned until Tuesday, April 17, 2012, at 10:00 a.m.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

The concurrent resolution was adopted.

Rep. Segal moved that Rep. Kandrevas be excused temporarily from today's session.
The motion prevailed.

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to provide for the incorporation of nonprofit health care corporations; to provide their rights, powers, and immunities; to prescribe the powers and duties of certain state officers relative to the exercise of those rights, powers, and immunities; to prescribe certain conditions for the transaction of business by those corporations in this state; to define the relationship of health care providers to nonprofit health care corporations and to specify their rights, powers, and immunities with respect thereto; to provide for a Michigan caring program; to provide for the regulation and supervision of nonprofit health care corporations by the commissioner of insurance; to prescribe powers and duties of certain other state officers with respect to the regulation and supervision of nonprofit health care corporations; to provide for the imposition of a regulatory fee; to regulate the merger or consolidation of certain corporations; to prescribe an expeditious and effective procedure for the maintenance and conduct of certain administrative appeals relative to provider class plans; to provide for certain administrative hearings relative to rates for health care benefits; to provide for certain causes of action; to prescribe penalties and to provide civil fines for violations of this act; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts,”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Poleski, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Autism is a very difficult and expensive condition for a family to contend with. I am convinced that early recognition of the condition, and early treatment and training, serves the family and the autistic child well. In the long term, I am convinced that this early, intensive work makes the autistic child more likely to be a fully functional citizen.

The prevalence of autism in children has spiked in recent years. The cost to treat and train an autistic child is high - often more than a family can afford on its own. The cost to society of an autistic person, in lost productivity and higher incidental costs, is also substantial.

How best to deal with Autism?

I think it is in the interests of society and of our State to understand the causes of Autism, why its prevalence has increased so rapidly, and to assist with appropriate treatment and training of children as soon as the condition is recognized.

Senate bills 414 and 415 compel certain insurers to provide coverage for Autism. I disagree that insurers should be so compelled. This puts the cost of autism treatment disproportionately upon those individuals, businesses and insurers who are so compelled. Since there are many insurers and businesses who cannot be covered by SBs 414 and 415, inconsistent treatment of autism will result.

A proposed solution to the cost burden of SBs 414 and 415 is to establish a reimbursement process under SB 981. This is laudable so far as it goes, but I have a number of questions:

- Would appropriations be made to fund the reimbursement process?
- What is the anticipated cost of reimbursement?
- What happens when money runs out and those who may have acted in reliance upon it are not reimbursed?
- If the condition keeps increasing as it has, may we not expect the costs to rise as rapidly?
- Is there a match or other ‘buy-in’ requirement of those who receive services?

I suggest that, if the State is prepared to spend money on autism, we may wish to spend it in the following ways:

- To fund more robust research on why it has grown as rapidly it has;
- To reimburse a portion of the cost of early treatment through Health Reimbursement Accounts or other more efficient processes.

Neither of these suggestions requires the compulsory insurance coverages of SBs 414 and 415.

While I applaud the hard work of the sponsors and sympathize with the families that must deal with autism, I respectfully decline to vote for the compulsory insurance coverage contemplated by these bills.”

Rep. Shirkey, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
 “Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This series of bills, 414, 415, and 981 represent mandates that have indeterminable taxpayer liabilities, mandate private companies take certain actions, and definitely create winners and losers. We MUST muster the courage to have open, honest, and transparent debates on Michigan’s policies for mental health broadly. We cannot begin down the road of legislating solutions for special conditions as there will certainly be more requests than there will be courage to say no. There are other proven options to address access and affordability and not require a mandate.”

Rep. McBroom, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
 “Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Colleagues, finding a way forward on this issue has been difficult. Some are calling for us to vote to support autism. As if a vote against this legislation were a vote against helping kids and families afflicted with it. Some are saying we have to put politics aside as we vote by voting yes. As if a vote against this could be driven by nothing but politics. These either/or assertions are not just wrong but fail to consider that there are very legitimate policy disputes that have either not been heard or have not received fair consideration of both the failure to serve many individuals and the long term ramifications to the costs of future insurance issues to all the people of Michigan.

Mental health issues have plagued Michigan since the early nineties. These people, young and old alike, need consideration. We are playing a dangerous game of picking only one malady to address and setting a dangerous precedent that WILL be politicized when the next malady rises to the level of having enough clamor to be addressed. At that point how will we do any less than we have done here? And how will we afford it then? As much as each issue has worthiness, without a comprehensive solution for all we create an untenable situation for all our future efforts.

In closing, I ask that each of us recognize that those who are voting yes have just as much opportunity to be either politically, emotionally, or sincerely motivated as those of us who are voting no. I am voting no out of a sincere concern for our state’s residents, both those with or without autism or any other mental or body health issue, and how this legislation will ultimately make the situation worse for our future. Thank you.”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Poleski, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Autism is a very difficult and expensive condition for a family to contend with. I am convinced that early recognition of the condition, and early treatment and training, serves the family and the autistic child well. In the long term, I am convinced that this early, intensive work makes the autistic child more likely to be a fully functional citizen.

The prevalence of autism in children has spiked in recent years. The cost to treat and train an autistic child is high - often more than a family can afford on its own. The cost to society of an autistic person, in lost productivity and higher incidental costs, is also substantial.

How best to deal with Autism?

I think it is in the interests of society and of our State to understand the causes of Autism, why its prevalence has increased so rapidly, and to assist with appropriate treatment and training of children as soon as the condition is recognized.

Senate bills 414 and 415 compel certain insurers to provide coverage for Autism. I disagree that insurers should be so compelled. This puts the cost of autism treatment disproportionately upon those individuals, businesses and insurers who are so compelled. Since there are many insurers and businesses who cannot be covered by SBs 414 and 415, inconsistent treatment of autism will result.

A proposed solution to the cost burden of SBs 414 and 415 is to establish a reimbursement process under SB 981. This is laudable so far as it goes, but I have a number of questions:

- Would appropriations be made to fund the reimbursement process?
- What is the anticipated cost of reimbursement?
- What happens when money runs out and those who may have acted in reliance upon it are not reimbursed?
- If the condition keeps increasing as it has, may we not expect the costs to rise as rapidly?
- Is there a match or other 'buy-in' requirement of those who receive services?

I suggest that, if the State is prepared to spend money on autism, we may wish to spend it in the following ways:

- To fund more robust research on why it has grown as rapidly it has;
- To reimburse a portion of the cost of early treatment through Health Reimbursement Accounts or other more efficient processes.

Neither of these suggestions requires the compulsory insurance coverages of SBs 414 and 415.

While I applaud the hard work of the sponsors and sympathize with the families that must deal with autism, I respectfully decline to vote for the compulsory insurance coverage contemplated by these bills."

Rep. Shirkey, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This series of bills, 414, 415, and 981 represent mandates that have indeterminable taxpayer liabilities, mandate private companies take certain actions, and definitely create winners and losers. We MUST muster the courage to have open, honest, and transparent debates on Michigan's policies for mental health broadly. We cannot begin down the road of legislating solutions for special conditions as there will certainly be more requests than there will be courage to say no. There are other proven options to address access and affordability and not require a mandate."

Rep. McBroom, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Colleagues, finding a way forward on this issue has been difficult. Some are calling for us to vote to support autism. As if a vote against this legislation were a vote against helping kids and families afflicted with it. Some are saying we have to put politics aside as we vote by voting yes. As if a vote against this could be driven by nothing but politics. These either/or assertions are not just wrong but fail to consider that there are very legitimate policy disputes that have either not been heard or have not received fair consideration of both the failure to serve many individuals and the long term ramifications to the costs of future insurance issues to all the people of Michigan.

Mental health issues have plagued Michigan since the early nineties. These people, young and old alike, need consideration. We are playing a dangerous game of picking only one malady to address and setting a dangerous precedent that WILL be politicized when the next malady rises to the level of having enough clamor to be addressed. At that point how will we do any less than we have done here? And how will we afford it then? As much as each issue has worthiness, without a comprehensive solution for all we create an untenable situation for all our future efforts.

In closing, I ask that each of us recognize that those who are voting yes have just as much opportunity to be either politically, emotionally, or sincerely motivated as those of us who are voting no. I am voting no out of a sincere concern for our state's residents, both those with or without autism or any other mental or body health issue, and how this legislation will ultimately make the situation worse for our future. Thank you."

Explanation of "No" Votes

Rep. Irwin, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of House Bill No. 5033, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I opposed 5033 because taking food assistance away from Michigan residents will save our state no money and because implementing an asset test is ineffective and administratively costly. Although this bill will revoke food assistance from Michigan families and will pull money out of our local food economy, it will save Michigan taxpayers exactly zero dollars because food assistance is 100% federally funded. In fact, this bill will cost Michigan precious dollars because implementing an asset test is an expensive process and because the administrative costs of the program are split between Michigan and the federal government. Furthermore, an asset test is difficult to administer because of the limitations of self-reporting and the ease of hiding assets from the state."

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of
