Dr. PJ Banks-Anderson, Pastor and Senior Minister of St. Stephen's Community Church, United Church of Christ in Lansing, offered the following invocation:

“Eternal God and Faithful Friend – incline Your ear to this house and make Your presence known in such a way that each representative will recognize You in their individual lives and in the life of this house session.

You have called these noble legislatures to the awesome tasks of discovering, deliberating, and deciding on the best practices to insure inclusive justice, economic growth, and constitutional quests for life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for all the citizens of the state of Michigan.

Bless those who have in their hearts a passion for social justice; those who cannot be content as long as some have too little and some have too much; those who work industriously on behalf of Michiganders to generate jobs for the unemployed, shelter for the homeless, especially our homeless veterans, training for the generationally cursed, and the best education for those in search of knowledge, wisdom, and understanding.

We pray for our Governor, Federal houses of congress, legislatures, the mayors of all Michigan cities, and all elected officials. May their fears and hurts be soothed by the plethora of opportunities to learn and practice the secret of the internal development of the soul. Grant our legislatures the strength to do their work from the inside out; seeing with a third eye the lives of the left out, the poor, the lonely, and the least; hearing with a third ear, the heart of the hopeless, helpless, hungry, and the marginalized.

Dear God, You have called these men and women to a powerful place in political history. Surely, Your call upon their lives is contradicting, meaning: both daunting and divine; disappointing and doubtless; thankless and rewarding; meaningless and worthwhile.

Before closing this collective and individual time of being in conversation with You, dear God, I want to thank You for this day, Your breath that we breathe, Your sun that provides light for the journey, Your rain that gives the earth water to drink, Your fields that provide produce and other goods for nourishment, and the willing hands, great minds, prophetic work, and political insight of the men and women in policymaking who make Michigan a great place to live.

For the opportunity to present to You this spoken prayer and, for all of the unspoken burdens and blessings in creation, ‘thank You for hearing and responding.’ In the name of Creator-God, Amen.”

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

SB 1040 continues the attack on our public school teachers. I ask a simple question to my colleagues in response to this attack, ‘What did your own teachers ever do to you to warrant this attack?’ I know my own teachers put their heart, soul and love into educating me and so many others. Thank you Mrs. Rion, Mrs. Eshenroder, Mz. Klein, Ms. Barton, Mr. Hurley, Ms. Johnson, Mr. Work, Mr. Flood, Mrs. Caruso, Mrs. Packard, Mr. McClain, Mr. Daniels, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Sample, Mr. Prusak and so many other great Michigan teachers.

I also object to immediate effect.”

Rep. Zorn, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

To ensure the future of MSPERS, I recognize the need to reform and reduce costs the retirement program to make it solvent for future generations of teachers.

If we don’t reform the system, it may not be there for those who retire decades from now, much like Social Security if it isn’t reformed.

In spite of my will to reform MSPERS and ensure its solvency, I voted no on Senate Bill 1040 because I believe those who are already retired should be held harmless. Someone who was promised a certain rate of benefits when they accepted a job should retain those benefits if they are already vested in the system. I also have concerns about the start-up costs associated with transitioning to a new system, and the potential funding from the School Aid fund should there be an economical turnaround.

I do support the potential savings of $15B, but feel it could have been accomplished differently.”

Rep. Cavanagh, having reserved the right to explain his nay vote, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

House Bill 5059 - I voted NO because the original bill contained adequate penalties for violation and the Senate increased those penalties to make a violation a felony punishable to up to three years in prison. This is excessive. The felony provision in the bill is overly harsh and unreasonable. The proposed felony could result in a marginal increase in incarceration costs and the costs of community supervision. The revenue from the penal fine would be used to benefit the public libraries leaving state and local governments already unfunded criminal justice system to deal with these added costs should someone be convicted of this offense.”

Explanation of "No" Votes

Rep. Durhal, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 1085, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on Senate Bill 1085 because the bill is an attempt to get around a federal court ruling that struck down the Legislature's last attempt to ban project labor agreements (PLAs) in state construction projects. The Court found the legislation to be preempted by federal law. Specifically, PLAs are protected and sanctioned by the National Labor Relations Agreement (NLRA). This bill attempts to ban PLAs and will suffer the same fate as the last attempt. Further, PLAs do not prohibit competitive bidding and do not prohibit non-unionized companies from bidding on construction projects. There have been PLA projects with both union and non-union workers. PLAs are voluntary and are only used when the public or private owner determines that using a PLA is in its best interest for particular projects. Both private companies and public entities use PLAs. PLAs help work out difficult terms before a contract is entered into, including wage and safety specifications, benefits, and no-strike or no-lockout clauses. This helps projects get done within the required amount of time with known labor costs and little interruption. Furthermore, I did not support the gaveling on of Immediate Effect to SB 1085 without a roll call vote."

Rep. Switalski, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of House Bill No. 5711, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 5711, because this legislation represents a continued attack on women's health and is an intrusion on the doctor-patient relationship. It will not only endanger women by restricting access to a legal procedure, but it will punish physicians and will result in fewer OB/GYN doctors entering our state to provide health care services to women. This legislation creates many barriers in an effort to essentially ban legal abortions and requires physicians to adhere to a government imposed process during confidential doctor-patient discussions. Without unrestricted access to comprehensive women's health services that takes into consideration the medical judgment of the physician, women will be less likely to seek services during pregnancy. Already, the sixth and seventh leading causes of death for women in the United States ages 20 to 24 years and between 15 and 34 years old, respectively, are 'pregnancy complications'; this legislation would work against improving the prevention of pregnancy-related deaths. A 2010 report by the Michigan

Department of Community Health identified that 21 of Michigan's 83 counties were without at least one OB/GYN provider. This House Bill imposes capricious fines, civil litigation, and criminal sentences for physicians providing pregnancy-related services, which will deter OB/GYNs from choosing to work in our state and even further restrict access to quality women's health care. Further, the legislation uses terminology that is not widely accepted within the medical field and that is especially vague, creating confusion for physicians and then holding them liable for any violations. Adding to adverse effect on the potential for job creation, the bill contains several onerous and unnecessary regulations for health centers to meet in addition to the ones already in place to provide safe medical procedures, which could lead to the closing of clinics and the loss of jobs. Finally, I voted against this bill, because it targets one segment of the medical field and is the nation's most sweeping and unprecedented attack on women's reproductive health, and it was not thoroughly vetted as it was rushed through the legislative process. I also did not support gaveling on Immediate Effect to HB5711 without a roll call vote."

Reps. Lindberg, Hammel, Byrum, Slavens, Barnett, Hovey-Wright and Irwin, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of House Bill No. 5711, made the following statement:
