Rev. Richard L. Trembl, Pastor of SS. Peter & Paul Catholic Church in North Branch, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Heavenly Father, we thank You for all the blessings You have bestowed upon us and upon our great state of Michigan. We acknowledge You as our Creator and the source of everything. You are Father of the human family.

We lift up the members of this Assembly and all elected leaders and public servants that they may discharge the duties of their respective office with honesty and ability. We ask for Your guidance~ and wisdom as we work for the common good of All. Heal us from our differences and unity us with a common purpose to service the people in Michigan.

Amen.”

Rep. Farrington moved that Rep. Shaughnessy be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Slavens, Barnett, Bauer, Brown, Darany, Knollenberg, Lindberg, Liss, MacMaster, Wayne Schmidt, Segal, Talabi and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 335.

A resolution to declare November 2012 as Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, In 2012, an estimated 43,920 people will be diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in the United States and 37,390 will die from the disease; and

Whereas, Pancreatic cancer is one of the deadliest cancers and is the fourth leading cause of cancer death in the United States; and

Whereas, Pancreatic cancer has the lowest survival rate for all cancers. Seventy-four percent of patients die within the first year of diagnosis and 94% die within five years; and

Whereas, Risk factors for developing pancreatic cancer include family history, age, chronic or hereditary pancreatitis, smoking, obesity and diabetes; and

Whereas, The average life expectancy for someone diagnosed with pancreatic cancer is just five to seven months; and

Whereas, When symptoms of pancreatic cancer present themselves, it is usually too late for an optimistic prognosis; and

Whereas, Of all the racial/ethnic groups in the United States, African Americans have the highest incidence rate of pancreatic cancer. These cases were between 34 percent and 70 percent higher than those of other groups in Michigan in 2012; and

Whereas, There is no cure for pancreatic cancer and there have been no significant improvements in survival rates in the last 40 years; and

Whereas, The federal government invests significantly less money in pancreatic cancer research than it does in any of the other leading cancer killers. Pancreatic cancer research constitutes only approximately 2 percent of the National Cancer Institute’s federal research funding, a figure far too low given the severity of the disease, its mortality rate, and how little is known about how to arrest it; and

Whereas, The Pancreatic Cancer Action Network is the first and only national patient advocacy organization that serves the pancreatic cancer community in Michigan and nationwide by focusing its efforts on public policy, research funding, patient services, and public awareness and education related to developing effective treatments and a cure for pancreatic cancer; and

Whereas, The Pancreatic Cancer Action Network and its affiliates in Michigan support those patients currently battling pancreatic cancer, as well as to those who have lost their lives to the disease, and are committed to nothing less than a cure; and

Whereas, The good health and well-being of the residents of Michigan are enhanced as a direct result of increased awareness about pancreatic cancer and research into early detection, causes, and effective treatments; now, therefore, be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 2012 as Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.
The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Stamas moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Howze:

“Colleagues, Good Afternoon!

As I prepared for this day, I must admit that for the past several weeks and really several months, I have grown very emotional about leaving the Legislature, although my leaving is by choice.

With that being said, it has been an honor and privilege to serve in the 96th Legislature of the State of Michigan and represent the citizens of the 2nd House District, which is located in the City of Detroit on the northeast side. Though both of my parents are deceased now and are not physically here to see me take this next step, I stand here as a model of strength. And to my colleagues who had to travel this same road as you have lost parents during this legislative term and perhaps before, know too that you can stand strong as well. Take comfort in knowing that our parents saw us make these accomplishments before we actually made them. It is because of the teachings of my parents and the positive affirmations that they spoke into my life at an early age that I have the courage to stand tall, hold my head high, and move to the next level. For this, I thank them.

In addition, shortly after being elected to this office in 2010, I realized what an awesome responsibility we have as policymakers. People across this state and in our respective districts live at the effect of the decisions that we make. This is not something I take lightly and neither should you.

I submit to you that we shall not be defined by the number of years we spend at the Capitol, but rather by the quality of legislation we propose, the positions we take, the relationships we develop, and the issues we resolve for the constituents we serve. Six consecutive years in the House and eight years in the Senate is not promised to any one of us. That seat that you sit in — it’s not yours; it belongs to the people of the state of Michigan and the constituents who elected you from your District. You must not take it or them for granted.

Personally, I have adopted a philosophy that says I must effect change where I am while I have the opportunity. Therefore, in this one term that summarizes my tenure in the state Legislature, I am most proud to have accomplished the following:

- To have the governor sign into law, Public Act 208 of 2012 - legislation that I sponsored that regulates the use of credit scoring in determining insurance premiums. I want to thank Rep. Paul Opsommer who I worked with in a bi-partisan fashion to win overwhelming support of this legislation on both sides of the aisle. Notwithstanding this significant feat, insurance rates in the city of Detroit continue to be excessively high for residents and businesses alike compared to rates in neighboring communities. There is much more work to do. I implore members of this body to take on this issue in the next legislative session as it is of great significance to the citizens of the city of Detroit and our ability to retain existing residents and businesses as well as limit our ability to attract new residents and businesses.
- As a collaborator in the legislature, I am proud to note that I hosted an in-district-meeting to discuss the transportation infrastructure in Detroit, with a focus on Detroit’s Coleman A. Young International Airport (City Airport). In attendance at this meeting were Republican Transportation Committee Chair and Vice Chair Reps. Paul Opsommer and Wayne Schmidt. The meeting was also attended by U.S. Congressmen Reps. John Conyers and Gary Peters.
- I am proud to have delivered my first floor speech on February 23, 2011 in opposition to the Emergency Manager Law that 2.3 million people across the state of Michigan said NO to dictatorship and YES to Democracy when Public Act 4 was repealed on November 6, 2012. Haste makes waste.

Now that PA-4 has been repealed, the questions become, ‘What do we do now? How do we address the dire financial condition of the local governments and school districts across this state?’ The answer is that this body going forward MUST pass legislation that addresses passing sound insurance reform, restoring revenue sharing to local municipalities, creating jobs for the chronically unemployed and provide communities with economic development projects to restore a shrinking tax base in many of the struggling communities.

I stand here and speak passionately about this issue because of the grave impact that the legislation has had on the city of Detroit in particular, and other communities that have fallen on hard financial times. For the city of Detroit, it is easy to criticize the existing leadership and look down upon the city.

To members of the Detroit Delegation, my parting words to you are as follows: Continue to stand strong on issues that matter to the city of Detroit and the citizens that we represent. Be strong, but don’t be rigid. Be flexible without bending over backwards. And to the citizens at home, who may be watching this from home, continue to stand tall and stand firm. I am reminded therefore of this quote from the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. that I will paraphrase; a man cannot ride your back unless it is bent over.

My experiences at the Capitol in many ways have been shaped by the relationships that I have developed with folks inside this Chamber. Therefore, I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge some of the most thoughtful and intelligent lawmakers with whom I have had the privilege and pleasure of serving next to. I will share some brief stories with you that you may find humorous about my interactions with these individuals.

- Rep. Thomas Stallworth - My seat mate who is too smooth for words. Tommy and I refer to each other as big brother and sis. And he truly acts like a big brother. I actually grew up with four brothers, and I'm the baby of the family, in case you had not figured that out already. Well, Tommy will see food on my desk; he would not ask to have some, he would just take it and start eating it. And before I would know it, I would look for the left overs only to find that he had eaten those too;
  - Rep. Lesia Liss - My seat mate who always seemed to find herself in trouble with the Party. We have shared many deep conversations about our purpose in life and what brought us here to the Legislature. Although your spirits may have been broken at times during this process, I am here to tell you that the Father says, 'Daughter, your faith hath made you whole.' So go on and continue to do great things, as I know you will. I thank you for being a true and committed friend;
  - To Rep. Rudy Hobbs - I owe you a sandwich;
  - To Rep. David Rutledge - The proud recipient of Rudy's sandwich, thanks to me, that I mistakenly gave a way;
  - To Rep. Doug Geiss aka Doug E. Fresh. He is the only lawmaker I know that would introduce the 'Pythagorean Theorem' in the discussion of a committee hearing — need I say more;
  - To Rep. Jim Ananich, who has much Game because he is a Grown (pause) Man;
  - To Rep. Woodrow Stanley who has served as one of my mentors here at the Capitol. I appreciate you for your friendship, your guidance, the many laughs and long talks. Our good friend Tito appreciates it as well;
  - To Rep. David Nathan - When I entered this legislative process, we had a number of opportunities to come together and discuss our shared leadership role. It has been a pleasure to serve with you as co-Chairs of the Detroit House Caucus. Through it all, I know your heart and wish you the best. God bless you!
  - To Rep. Maureen Stapleton: Forgive me for accidentally for deflating your sleep number bed when we used to share a room at the Radisson Hotel at the Capitol;
  - To Rep. Alberta Tinsley-Talabi: Thanks for having my back as one of the Eastside Girls!
  - To Speaker Pro Tem John Walsh: Thank you for your friendship and for reaching out to me early on in the legislative session to let me and others know how you hold me in high regard. I also want to say how sorry I am that you lost population in your District to the city of Detroit earlier this year. Woo hoo!
  - To Rep. Joe Haveman, the Clark Kent of the Capitol, who turned into Darth Vader this week due to his deep, yet sore, raspy voice;
  - To Rep. Margaret O'Brien, a worthy sparring partner on Insurance and Education committee. It has been great serving with you.
  - To Vice Chair Andrew Kandrevas: I have two words....HOT....SAUCE. He puts that— stuff —on everything!
  - To Vice Chair Lisa Brown: You are true fighter on Education. Thank you for your leadership and for really digging into the bills and asking the tough questions. I must admit, however, that even the members on our side of the aisle would like for you to speed it up already. We may have questions too!
- Last, but not least, I want to acknowledge my colleagues in the CPA Caucus in the Legislature: Reps. Earl Poleski, Tom McMillan, and Paul Clemente. It was indeed an honor to serve with you and go where few CPA's have gone before.
- As I close, I want to continue down the path of Rep. Dave Agema, who when he spoke yesterday shared a word of scripture from the Bible found in 2 Chronicles 7:14, and I quote, 'If my people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.'
- I think this scripture is very appropriate given the times that we are currently leaving in for the city of Detroit, the state of Michigan, and for the nation as a whole. It suggests that we look to a higher power for guidance and know that He knows our concerns.
- Therefore, I want to talk about the subject of LOVE.
- My scripture quote is coming from John 3:16 which reads, 'For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son...'
- In Sunday school, my pastor taught me what the meaning of love is. He said, 'Love is seeing the need of another and fulfilling that need no matter the sacrifice to oneself.'
- Therefore, when I made the choice to depart from the Legislature, and some would say prematurely; it was a sacrifice that I was willing to make as a demonstration of my love for the city, my love for this body, and my love for the citizens of the city of Detroit.
- As I pursue another level of service, I ask that you continue to lift me up in prayer and thoughts. God Bless You, God Keep You and I thank you."

Rep. Hughes:

"Mr. Speaker and Colleagues,

I have some thank yous to give, a challenge, and a final quote.

I want to thank God, my hometown, the support of my family, my husband, Rick, our daughters, Morgan and Taylor and my parents for this opportunity to serve! It has been a pleasure and an honor!

Thank you to my staff, Mike Headley, Janelle Thiesen and James Biehl!

I will miss everyone of you, and especially our oldest member, my seatmate, the Honorable Judson S. Gilbert, a.k.a. Grandpa Gilbert, our youngest, my roommate, the Honorable Andrea LaFontaine, adopted granddaughter of Grandpa Gilbert, Senator Emmons and former Senator Laura Toy!

The challenge, and one of my passions, our Michigan Veterans.

Michigan Veterans are suffering from 29.4% unemployment. Two and one half times the national average.

We can do better!

Michigan Veterans are missing out on $1.4 Billion annually in V.A. benefits. Michigan is 53rd in receiving benefits but, 11th in service to our country!

I have seen that you, my colleagues, are pretty creative. You can do better and I know you will!

Some say we are not special but each of us is very special because we want to and have made a difference!

The Quote:

President Teddy Roosevelt. He gave this speech as part of his 'Citizenship in a Republic' speech in Sorbonne, Paris, April 23, 1910.

It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, and comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.

Thank you colleagues for your friendship, your professionalism, your service and your daring to make a difference!"

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to provide for and to supplement statutes that provide for the provisions and enforcement of support, health care, and parenting time orders with respect to divorce, separate maintenance, paternity, child custody and support, and spousal support; to prescribe and authorize certain provisions of those orders; to prescribe the powers and duties of the circuit court and friend of the court; to prescribe certain duties of certain employers and other sources of income; to provide for penalties and remedies; and to repeal acts and parts of acts.”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Slavens, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on Senate Bill 1001, because it would cause undue hardship on noncustodial parents, who are working and paying towards the financial support of their children. A number of amendments were offered by my colleagues to improve this bill to allow for hardship waivers and to truly limit the maximum amount an employer can charge a child support payer with multiple orders in place. These amendments were defeated.

During difficult economic times, this bill would add more fees for working noncustodial parents, who are paying their child support obligations. Overall, in 2011, Michigan ranked the worst in our region when it comes to the number of people with low wage jobs. Specifically, a 2006 study done by the Urban Institute revealed that 29 percent of the child support obligors reported no wages or unemployment insurance for six quarters. Another 25 percent reported wages between $1 and $10,000. In contrast, only 15 percent of Michigan’s obligors reported wages over $40,000 a year. This data show the necessity a waiver to ensure that these parents do not face undue hardships while meeting their financial obligations to support their children.

Additionally, this bill would unfairly penalize noncustodial parents with children in multiple households, because it would allow for an employer to charge the maximum fee for each order. Over the course of a year, a person with two separate orders would pay nearly $100 in this new fee alone not including the numerous fees already charged by the Friend of the Court.

While I recognize the need to address the employer costs associated with withholding income for child support—an unknown cost—the bill as passed did not do enough to protect the many noncustodial parents, who are working and contributing to their children’s financial support.”

Rep. Segal moved that Rep. Meadows be excused temporarily from today's session.
The motion prevailed.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 36.

A concurrent resolution to express support for an amendment to the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act that will allow insurance companies to consider Health Savings Account contributions toward the payment of benefits and premiums in the medical loss ratio calculation.

Whereas, The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) was enacted in 2010 by the federal government to address multiple issues regarding health care delivery in the United States. The PPACA requires certain health insurers to provide rebates to their customers for each year that the insurers do not meet a set financial target called a medical loss ratio (MLR). The MLR is a measure of the share of health care premium dollars spent on medical benefits compared to company expenses such as overhead or profits. The PPACA provides that insurance companies meet a minimum MLR of 80-85 percent, meaning that 80 to 85 percent of their revenues must be used for payment of claims, or they must rebate the excess to the consumer; and

Whereas, Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) were created by Congress in 2003 to provide consumers with more flexibility and responsibility over their health care spending. Consumers can buy high-deductible health plans (HDHPs) with a low monthly premium amount while saving pretax contributions in an HSA. The funds in the HSA are then used to pay the insurance deductible and other health care-related expenses. Over 13 million consumers purchase health insurance through the use of HDHPs and HSAs; and

Whereas, An unintended consequence of the current MLR regulations imposed under the PPACA will make it financially unsustainable for insurance companies to offer HDHPs. As a result, HSAs will no longer be beneficial for consumers. In exchange for a higher deductible, HDHPs have lower premiums than traditional health plans. The HSA helps the consumer pay for the higher deductible. However, the PPACA's MLR calculation does not take into account the use of HSAs to pay deductibles. As a result, it will be difficult for insurers offering HDHPs to meet the minimum MLR; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we express support for an amendment to the PPACA that will allow insurance companies to consider HSA contributions toward the payment of benefits and premiums in the MLR calculation; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Office of the Michigan Attorney General, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.
