Senator Thomas A. Casperson of the 38th District offered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father, we come before You humbly and ask that You would forgive us for our shortcomings and praise You for who You are. Your word talks about how we are one in You. Lord, You tell us that when one hurts, we all hurt, and when one is unsuccessful, it hurts the whole body.

Lord, I pray today that You would unite us, bringing us together in Your name. Lord, help us to govern and make decisions based on Your will, Your guidance, and Your love. We come together today asking You to be with us, and help us through every task that we have. Lord, may the decisions we make today be pleasing in Your sight.

We ask all of these things in Your precious name. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Resolutions

Senator Kowall moved that consideration of the following resolutions be postponed for today:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 3

Senate Resolution No. 76

Senate Resolution No. 75

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8

The motion prevailed.

Senators Green, Hildenbrand, MacGregor, Kowall, Schmidt, Jones, Schuitmaker, Booher, Zorn, Shirkey, Colbeck, Horn, Proos, Pavlov, Nofs, Hansen, Robertson, Marleau, Brandenburg, Knollenberg and Knezek offered the following resolution:
Senate Resolution No. 109.

A resolution to urge the United States Congress to enact legislation for the purpose of enhancing hunting, fishing, recreational shooting, and other outdoor recreational opportunities, as well as strengthen conservation efforts nationwide.

Whereas, To this day, conservation is funded primarily by sportsmen and women. This American System of Conservation Funding is a user pays-public benefits approach that includes excise taxes on hunting, fishing, and boating equipment. This strategy is widely recognized as the most successful model of fish and wildlife management funding in the world; and

Whereas, Through the pursuit of their outdoor passions, sportsmen and women support hundreds of thousands of jobs and contribute billions to our economy annually through salaries, wages, and product purchases; and

Whereas, The United States Congress has worked on several pieces of legislation over the years to boost a number of key conservation priorities that are supported by millions in the outdoor recreational community; and

Whereas, Currently pending legislation in both the U.S. House and Senate would create or renew several important programs that are vital to the continued conservation of our natural resources, the health of America's local economies, and the enhancement and protection of our time-honored outdoor pastimes. Known as the Sportsmen's Heritage and Recreational Enhancement (SHARE) Act (H.R. 2406) and the Bipartisan Sportsmen's Act (S. 405), these bills contain a broad array of bipartisan measures, including the Recreational Fishing and Hunting Opportunities Act; the Hunting, Fishing, and Recreational Shooting Protection Act; the Target Practice and Marksmanship Training Support Act; and the Recreational Lands Self-Defense Act; and

Whereas, A complementary piece of pro-sportsmen legislation also exists in the U.S. House, called the Sportsmen's Conservation and Outdoor Recreation Enhancement (SCORE) Act (H.R. 3173). It shares several similar titles with the SHARE Act and Bipartisan Sportsmen's Act. Provisions in the SCORE Act include: the National Fish Habitat Initiative Sense of Congress, the Federal Lands Transaction Facilitation Act reauthorization, the North American Wetlands Conservation Act reauthorization, the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation reauthorization, the Neotropical Migratory Bird Conservation Act reauthorization, the Partners for Fish and Wildlife Program Act reauthorization, and the Making Public Lands Public authorization; and

Whereas, By renewing or creating these programs, these bills will enhance opportunities for hunters, anglers, recreational shooters, and other outdoor recreation enthusiasts, improve access to public lands, and help boost the outdoor recreation economy. Conserving our fish and wildlife resources and their habitats and ensuring that future generations have access to public lands and continued recreational opportunities are of great importance and are bipartisan issues; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we urge the United States Congress to enact legislation for the purpose of enhancing hunting, fishing, recreational shooting, and other outdoor recreational opportunities, as well as strengthen conservation efforts nationwide; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Casperson and Rocca were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Statements

Senator Hood asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Hood's statement is as follows:

I rise today with a sad heart to recognize two individuals. The first being Sir Michael Berry. Sir Michael Berry was a constituent of mine who was a very good and dear friend. He passed at the age of 95, and he was one of the first people of Lebanese and Muslim descent to be a lawyer here in the state of Michigan. He grew up in Highland Park and graduated from Fordson High School in Dearborn. If you remember, the Berry Building at the Wayne County Metro Airport was named after him. He served many years on the Wayne County Road Commission and did a lot of great things. He was a personal and good friend of mine. He was a true and great friend. When I began to represent the city of Dearborn, he took me up under his wing and taught me a lot about how things were done in the community. I wanted to stand here today and tell him thank you and for everyone to think about his family in our prayers.

Secondly, yesterday about 7:30 a.m. in the city of Waterford, there was a young man by the name of Ryan Whiston, who was the son of our new state school superintendent Brian Whiston, killed in an automobile accident. Ryan was 32 years old. I know a lot of you probably know Brian from his days of being a lobbyist here, and he loved being a lobbyist here. He went down to Dearborn to become superintendent of Dearborn, and then he came back a couple of months ago to be state superintendent. My heart is heavy for Brian right now in losing one of his children.

As we debate all the things we debate here today, let's just be mindful of what's really important because we don't know what tomorrow is going to bring, and we don't know when our loved ones leave the house whether they are going to return or not. I know Brian and his wife are feeling that right now. Just be cognizant of the things that are going on in our lives. Love our loved ones and love each other. When you go home tonight, please keep the Berry family and the Whiston family in your prayers, and watch over them because none of us want to be in that position. You can't imagine what the family is going through and don't ever want to imagine it. None of us want to imagine it.

Keep these families in our hearts as we leave here today. We have had a lot of things going on here today, but let's remember what life is really all about. It's about us taking care of people, and that's what each and every one of us is here to do. Even though we might not see eye to eye on whatever the issue may be, I know in our hearts our goal is to take care of the citizens of the state of Michigan. Let's keep that in mind as we drive home to see our loved ones. Please go home and hug your loved ones, and tell them you love them. Once again, please keep the Berry family and the Whiston family in our thoughts and prayers.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of Ryan Whiston, the son of the state school superintendent, and Dearborn lawyer Michael Berry.
