Rev. Douglas A. Bradshaw, Chaplain of the Lansing Fire Department and Senior Pastor of Williamston Free Methodist Church in Williamston, offered the following invocation:

“Let us pray:

In this assembly today God, I pray that you would grant wisdom and courage to each one. Wisdom to lead, and courage to serve. I pray for the citizens of this great state that we would uphold and honor the principles this state was founded on. I pray that those elected and those they serve would come together in unity. That each of us would do our part to serve each other. I pray for those in our state that keep us safe and respond to our calls for help. Protect them and be with them. I ask God that you would be close to the family of Officer Grant Whitaker and all of the families that are grieving the loss of loved one at this time. God help our nation and be with all of those elected to lead it. There is much that is out of our control God, but each of us can make a difference. Help us to overcome the evil of this world by renewing our commitment to doing good whenever and wherever we can. And at this time of year God I ask that you would bless the families of all gathered here with the peace and joy that this season represents. May the hope and love of this season rest on us all.

Amen.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Cotter to the Chair.

Rep. Stamas moved that Rep. Olumba be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker laid before the House

House Resolution No. 445.

A resolution to urge the Office of the United States Trade Representative to ensure that no World Trade Organization rules are being violated in regards to government funding of McInnis Cement and the Port-Daniel-Gascons cement plant in Québec, Canada.

(The resolution was introduced and postponed temporarily on December 11, see House Journal No. 83, p. 2204.)

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Potvin, Hooker, Brown, Denby, Johnson, McBroom, Rogers, Lori, Lamonte, Brunner, Bumstead, Hooker, Hovey-Wright and Howrylak offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 456.

A resolution to encourage the Michigan Department of Education to allow local school districts the option to hold fundraisers, such as bake sales, during school hours that involve food that may not meet the new federal school nutrition standards.

Whereas, The federal government has imposed new Smart Snacks in School standards requiring schools to offer healthier snack foods to students. The standards apply to all foods and beverages sold to students during the school day, including food in vending machines, school stores, snack carts, and à la carte food lines; and

Whereas, Food sold through in-school fundraising is also regulated. Because only foods that meet the smart snack standards can be sold in-school, reliable bake sales and other fund raisers will be eliminated. Many food-based fundraisers are time-honored traditions used year after year to raise funds for school activities, annual class trips, and charitable causes; and

Whereas, The United States Department of Agriculture allows each state to determine if a set number of in-school, food fundraisers will be exempt from the Smart Snacks standards. Twenty-one states allow exemptions for in-school fundraising with the number allowed ranging from one to thirty. States that allow exemptions are giving local school districts greater control over their fundraising activities and ability to determine what fundraising is appropriate in any given school; and

Whereas, Unfortunately, the Michigan Department of Education has declined to allow exemptions in Michigan. The refusal to allow exemptions takes away the opportunity for our locally elected school boards and local school administrators to determine which in-school food fundraisers are appropriate for their communities to fund class activities and trips; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we encourage the Michigan Department of Education to allow local school districts the option to hold fundraisers, such as bake sales, during school hours that involve food that may not meet the new federal school nutrition standards; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the state Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Education.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

Whereas, It is with respect for his hard work and dedication that we express our gratitude to our colleague Sean McCann for his efforts as a lawmaker working on behalf of the people of his Kalamazoo community and our entire state. The energy and insight he has brought to his responsibilities have contributed a valuable perspective to the legislative process; and

Whereas, Sean McCann, who earned his degree in political science at Western Michigan University, has distinguished himself in civic affairs and community involvement in his hometown, including as executive director of the Vine Neighborhood Association, director of financial development with the Greater Kalamazoo Area American Red Cross, and as a member of the Kalamazoo Rotary, Kalamazoo Irish-American Club, and Kalamazoo NAACP. Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Stamas moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Slavens:

“Thank you Mr. Speaker for allowing me to address this body. What an honor it has been to work with so many of you.

It has been an honor and a privilege to serve in the Michigan House of Representatives these past six years. Every time I walk into the Capitol I am in such awe. I am so fortunate to work in this beautiful building, to be part of Michigan's government, and have a first hand view of democracy in action- the good, the bad and the ugly. A lot of good a little bad and a smidge of ugly.

First and foremost, I want to thank the people of the 21st district who have given me the remarkable opportunity to represent them in this Chamber. It has been an honor to serve them these past six years and I hope I have lived up to their expectations. Thank you.

I would also like to thank the thousands of state employees who make this state function. In a term limited era, Legislators come and go, but our dedicated, competent and hardworking state workers are there to provide services to the people of Michigan day in and day out, year after year. Thank you.

And, we all owe our gratitude to the staff who make our job in the Legislature so much easier. Clerks Randall and Brown and your staff, the policy and communication staff of both caucuses who do their jobs so well, Tim Bowlin and everyone in the business office, the facilities staff who so lovingly and competently preserve and maintain this beautiful Capitol building, the IT staff, Chief Sergeant Dickson and all the sergeants, and the incredible people who staff the tour desk and make history come alive for the thousands of visitors of all ages who come through this building. Thank you.

And my incredible staff- better known as 'Team Slavens' I do have the best team.

Katie Whitman who has been with me all three terms. I have been so fortunate to have Katie and I could not thank her enough for her incredible work ethic, her support and her commitment to the people of the 21st district. Weston Lindberg who has been with me for a little over three years, has been a great addition to our team. Former staff Moreno Taylor, Rachel Rademacher, Jonovan Luckey, Jordan Raubolt, Kaiti Aprill, and Jessica Lumbreras. I thank you all for making me look so good.

And lastly my family. My husband and best friend Mark who has been my rock and encouraged me every step of the way, my daughters Damey and Molly, my son Patrick and my grandson Evan. I look forward to spending a lot more time with them.

I was told six years goes by fast... and it certainly does, but family life does as well. In the past six years I have had four graduations, a grandson who is now seven. The loss of my father. I appreciate my mother who is truly a saint and my siblings for helping care for my father especially his last two years of life with Alzheimer's. The loss of my mother-in-law. She was in hospice last lame duck session and I was able to sit with her late at night after session. As an educator and a librarian she wanted to know everything that was happening and then would give me her thoughts- In fact, I did convey a few words she had for the governor in a floor speech. She truly was a gem, and I want to thank all of you for being so supportive during that time.

I have seen a lot of good happen, in the six years I have been here.

Autism coverage

The smoking ban

Elder Abuse legislation

Silver Alert

Improvements with Adoption and with Foster Care. I want to thank Chairman Kurtz. He has been on Families, Children and Seniors Committee all three terms with me and we've seen so many improvements with that.

Medicaid Expansion

Detroit Grand Bargain

Finding kin folk for foster children - I do hope we pass the Foster Parent and Foster Child bill of rights soon. Those are so important and I think it will help our foster care system.

The bad-

I have also seen legislation move way too quickly with the cost of unintended consequences.

Right-to-work

Per pupil funding cut

Lifting the cap on charter and cyber schools (they get the same per pupil funding)

The Abortion rider

The ugly-

Locking the Capitol down during right-to-work- this is the people's house

Stacking the gallery with staff so there were few seats for the people

Switching your party with one minute to file for office

-And so that is the good the bad and the ugly-

I have no regrets in votes I have taken. I fought hard to get rid of the life time health care benefits- especially in a term limit era. My nay vote for speaker- thank you Doug Geiss for standing with me, I do wish our caucus would have stood strong alongside us.

Although we make mistakes, the strength of this body should always rely on strong integrity and ethical standards.

I will leave with a thought 'If you don't stand for something you stand for nothing.'

May God bless you and your families and the Great State of Michigan.

Thank you.

Rep. Tlaib:

"This journey has changed me forever my friends.

It was the real people who testified in committee who I would not have been exposed to but for serving here.

It was people like the retired teacher who brought me to tears in committee when he passionately explained that he did not become a teacher to become rich but to educate our children.

Or the widow who lost her husband in the line of duty and literally the next day, was completely cut off from insurance benefits. Thank you to all who make the trip to the Capitol to advocate for a better Michigan, a stronger Michigan. Keep it up because it works. At least for me, it did.

Central staff, you all have been my extended team. Every one of you has so much talent and commitment to this institution. We thank you.

Chief Dickson, Sgts. Peter, Don, John, Scott, Fawn, Ron, Randy Carpenter—I can't believe that you haven't given up on us. I have to tell you that it means so much in how you all care for us. Sgt. Carpenter, I will miss our conversations about my dream home in the UP and the rowing a boat move.

Chief Dickson, thank you for putting me at ease when I got my first death threat. I could not believe your calm confidence as we decided to report it. I feel so safe with all of you here. Thank you for your service to this institution.

House Fiscal, I honestly don't think the Legislature would function without your skills. You run with every idea we present to you and still smile when that idea never ends up in a budget bill. Mary Ann, you are a true leader. Kyle, keep that sense of humor and those famous one liners when answering very political questions in committee. You will need it my friend, because the Legislature is about to get more conservative.

So on to my colleagues. Now colleagues for those of who don't know, I am the eldest of 14 siblings. Yes, seven younger brothers and six younger sisters. So understand that the way I see and treat all of you is similar to how I interact with my brothers and sisters, with tough love. I sincerely want you to do the best job ever and reach your potential.

Detroit Caucus colleagues, it has been a true joy to work side by side with you all. It was comfortable, like being with family.

Floor Leader Stamas, my big brother. People have used words like fairness to describe you and it fits you well my friend. But warmth and kindness come to mind and are better descriptions of who I saw to my right the last two years. Where in the nation, did a floor leader have a signal for a fellow colleague to let her know she can go pump. Stamas would take off those glasses as he always does, looked at me, and nod his head towards the door. Thank you Leader Stamas for accommodating for a working mom who wanted to make sure her little Yousif can grow up healthy.

Bill Rogers, thank you for allowing one of the mothers from my district to provide her testimony in Spanish without hesitation and judgment. Chairman Rogers saw that she spoke wonderful English, but was scared to do so in such a formal setting. She went back home feeling empowered and welcomed because if you remember Bill she ended up doing it mostly in English. I will never forget your kindness and patience with her.

Al Pscholka, I am really going to miss your chin move or what I call the ready to rumble move. Thank you for not asking to be moved after my mumbling through the right-to-work debacle.

Matt Lori, it says a lot about you my friend that you would allow a progressive, says it like it is woman, to attend the budget meetings with the department and budget office. I learned so much and it made me a better advocate. Thank you for laughing at my passive aggressive jokes during our meetings. But you should know that I really meant some of them. I am proud of the work we have done together to increase lead abatement funding and establishing the first ever community court program.

Sarah Roberts, you will always be my chica. I am so proud to see you hold that gavel as our caucus chair. You are always strong and professional. It was hard work, but you kept order. But chica, a bar of soap would have done it for me.

Steve Lindberg & Gary McDowell, thank you for always having my back and making me an honorary member of the UP caucus. You never judged me and always respected my work in Detroit.

Dean Durhal, you have been my anchor, my friend. We were a great tag team on Appropriations and your institutional knowledge was a gift. I can't wait to see what is next for you.

Jon Switalski, thank you Jon for teaching me so much about Lansing-politics and reminding me that my district comes first.

Paul Muxlow, your leadership during the scrap metal meetings was a treasure. I won't forget your commitment. You are a man with great integrity and your district is lucky to have you.

Tim Greimel, you believed in me even when others tried to push back on the decision to appoint me minority vice chair of appropriations. Thank you for your faith in my work on Appropriations. I will never forget it.

Vicki Barnett, Lisa Brown and Ellen Cogen Lipton, you allowed this Muslima into the Jewish Caucus. I loved the connection we all had. Lisa, you will always be a sister to me. Vicki, sharing our story on how you and I worked together to make a better Michigan is thrilling each time. Ellen, your passion for education is a treasure.

John Walsh, you are one of the most sincere and genuine people I know. If I was to be forced to choose a Republican to represent me, I would choose you.

Joseph Haveman, you will be missed my dear friend. You have been a blessing in my life. Thank you for working with me to help bring resources to children across this state that have limited English proficiency and for not making it political, but about the families we represent. I still remember when you came into my office to discuss using another term other than illegal to describe undocumented immigrants in your district. That was the day my respect for you heightened. I think we settled with unauthorized immigrants. I will always be grateful for our friendship.

Doug Geiss, you are the one who started the fight between Matty and I, although you pretend that you don't remember. Doug and I had a joint meeting with Matty Moroun and it started so well with him sharing his Arab immigrant story with me as I shared mine. Then Mr. Engineer over here begins questioning the extra pier structure that my district lovingly called the Dukes of Hazard ramp. When I asked about the Gateway Project, the duty free store and three gas stations built illegally, Matty turns to me and says 'don't tell me what to do in my backyard' and I pause in shock. I respond, 'Mr. Moroun, it is my backyard.' Six months later, Matty with hired help, launched a recall campaign against me. Literally, my first six months as a state rep, I got into a fight with a billionaire with a shrewd reputation and suffered through a failed recall campaign. So thanks Doug for starting what turned into one of the biggest fights I took on for my residents.

When Steve Tobocman asked me to run, I could not have imagined the journey that was ahead of me.

Being the eldest of 14 shaped so much of who I am today, but the community I grew up in did the rest. I grew up the child of Palestinian immigrants in the most diverse part of Detroit, where we have over 20 different ethnicities. I didn't speak any English when I started school. My mother only had an 8th grade education and my father 4th grade.

I made history within my family, but also Michigan's history in becoming the first ever Muslim woman elected to the Michigan Legislature and only second in the country. It sent a wave of celebration with people who I have never met. Congratulations from California to Thailand. It inspired so many and it was humbling to have moms and dads bring their kids up to me just so they can meet a Muslim elected official.

But for a few incidents, including being asked for my birth certificate in committee, you all have been extremely respectful of my faith and even felt comfortable to ask me questions so you have a better understanding. So I thank you from the bottom of my heart. I pray that you remember you met a Muslim that cared about our state, our communities and our country unlike the ugly stereotypes that continue to be spread about my faith.

As you all continue your service and commitment to the families you represent, I want to leave you with some thoughts. You will never go wrong if you vote your district and allow the issues back home guide you. You will leave here with respect.

Introduction of bills and new laws don't always change lives and sometimes takes years to make an impact in your district. You need to go beyond pressing a button.

The power of your letterhead can go a long way in bringing attention to issues important to your families. Use it. The power to convene people can be life changing for the families and children in your district. Convene them.

Don't always think that the tools in the Legislature is limited to bills and policy change. It still amazes me that the most impactful work my team and I have done went beyond construction of bills.

The creation of a center based in my district to help families get through everyday issues is the heart of who I am as a public servant. Every bill that became law stemmed from an issue we faced at the center. Helping one of my families save their home from foreclosure, or accessing resources like weatherization grants, utility assistance, job training, starting a we have the right to breathe campaign and so much more led to real change.

Think beyond these walls.

One of five children in my district suffers from asthma. Fighting to get trucks off of our local streets and the removal of illegally dumped pet coke near our community didn't get resolved with a new law, but through partnership and community action.

So please find solutions beyond these walls.

To my residents: Your strength inspires me every day. You gave me the fuel, the air I needed to get up every day. I want to thank you all for your faith in the work I did and for believing in me. You demonstrate the beauty of our country by not allowing my faith and ethnic background guide your decision to support me, but instead you looked at my character and work ethic. You all have changed my life for the better.

As we come to the end of this road, I hope you take solace in how much we accomplished together over the last six years, from individual constituent services to legislative victories. We have stood up to corporate billionaires and won. And we have touched thousands of lives. I can't help but beam when I read the list of our accomplishments. Together, we've combated poverty, increased access to human services, protected our health and environment, and promoted public safety and consumer protection. All this couldn't have been done it without you.

Steve Tobocman, my friend, if I begin to explain how much your friendship and guidance has meant to me, it will bring me to tears. Just a simple, thank you for asking me to run and I love you bro will do for right now.

My team is up in the gallery and I would like to ask them to stand.

Amanda Kaye, you never hesitated, not once on taking on work intensive projects. You were central to the successes we have had the last six years. You need to know that you were essential to success of our team.

Larissa Carr, you ran the service center with commitment and drive. You are so special to me and I can't wait to see your name on a ballot.

Mary Turner, you are my angel. The prayers, strength and spirit you brought to our team kept us going during some of most difficult times. You taught me how to build a strong loving bond with our residents.

BJ Puchala, Jessica Ponto, William Holley, Olga Gonzalez, Eve Pourzan, thank you for helping serve the families of District 12 and 6. You were essential in shaping the work we continued to do as you went on to the next chapter of your life.

A special thank you to Diana Flora, Alex Garza, Andrew Goddeeris, Lawrence Farr, Christina Guzman, Louie Garcia, Max Rodriguez, Muzammil Ahmed, Wisam Fakhoury, Lina Haralji, Raquel, Mac and Anne Rashid for all you did to help me get here.

Thank you to my boys back home. My husband, Fayez, you will always be my elbi, my roheay, my hayati. You valued what I was doing and was genuinely proud. Thank you for your partnership in raising our boys. Adam, you will always be my baby even if you are nine and Yousif, my kalulu, I love you.

I thank my brothers and sisters who best prepared me for public service through the challenges we faced together. Thank you Nader, Aiman, Rashad, Ibrahim, Natasha, Ameria, Rachid, Ishmael, Nadia, Jacob, Layla, Zaneb and Nisreen. Sity Shama, Yama and Yaba, thank you for your courage to come to America for a better life for all of us.

As I stand here in this beautiful building, I am still in awe and think 'hey not bad for girl who didn't speak English when she started school, from south Detroit, a child of Palestinian immigrants.'"

Rep. Zorn:

"Mr. Speaker and Fellow Colleagues,

It has been an honor to sit with you as we together have been a part of something so much larger and more important than we are as individuals.

I am humbled that the voters of District 56 have given me this opportunity to serve Monroe County.

To all Monroe County, the simple words, thank you, will never express the gratitude I have for them.

Today, I remember those in my life that have supported me while in public service.

I reflect upon my parents support throughout my thirty-four years in public service.

They taught me at a young age the importance of community service, and being a positive influence in our community. They were supportive as I entered public service when I followed my Father's footsteps serving on the Raisinville Township Board and they were there during my tenure on the Monroe County Board of Commissioners.

I knew I could never fill my Fathers shoes, but I am thankful to have been able to follow his footsteps in public service. Today, I remember my parents and hold their memory close to my heart.

To my children Jason, Holly, Kylie and Skylar that sacrificed, as at times I missed a day in their life. I thank them too, for when I came to the Capitol, I came with four grandchildren, and I leave the House with ten and one more on the way.

And to my brother Dean, I can never thank you enough for standing beside me with understanding as you kept our business running in my absence. I know it was not easy, but, as you served with passion twenty-five years on the Ida Township Fire Department, you understand the importance of community service and you allowed me to serve.

I also wish to thank Speaker Bolger, Floor Leader Stamas, and the entire leadership team that put their trust in me to serve the House, the caucus and the people of Michigan. You have been leaders that have made a positive mark in Michigan history.

While here, I have worked with many dedicated professionals including staff members and lobbyists. I have been blessed with three wonderful staff members, Angela Goble, John Manor, and Janelle Theisen. I am thankful to the countless office interns, like Melissa Kallasides, that provided a great service to Michigan.

I will not let this time go by without commending Chief Sergeant Dickson and his team that has protected our well-being and the integrity of the House.

As I leave this chamber, I could never express enough of my love and appreciation for my wife Cindy who is sitting with me today. Your support reflects the love we share. I always knew this day would come, and always knew at end of this day, I will leave this historical place, and you would be waiting for me at the door of the place we call home. On this day, I express my love and gratitude for you.

My journey to the House of Representatives started forty-two years ago when I was a senior in high school.

Serving in the Michigan House of Representatives was on my bucket list as I graduated from high school. It was recognized in the 1972 yearbook that I would enter public service in state government or as an ambassador.

Next to being called to serve our God, public service is a wonderful calling. No matter the level of government, it should never be about politics, but about people.

I take pride in the accomplishments that I have had success, but more important to me, as it should be with you, the peoples work must be given with an honest open mind and heart.

Our time on this earth, no matter how long, cannot be wasted, nor can we hesitate to help our fellow man and woman. It is not government that makes our communities a better place; it is you and me, and what we do in our communities.

The people we serve expect great things from their government, as they should. We have been appointed by the citizens of Michigan to serve, to lead, and then leave this great hall after making Michigan a better place.

Government progress can be slow and always threatened with conflict and principles. It commands our minds, and at times leads us to places we wish not to tread.

Despite this provocation, this House has moved Michigan forward.

It has done so because it has heart when after a day of great debate, our hearts submit to the friendships that come from public service. It is essential to our state, and our nation that we as legislators rise above, and allow our God to lead.

Our government was founded on having a balance of government, it is far more important than ever, that today's balance includes, public and private partnerships that will benefit our economy and the citizens we serve.

Good judgment brings balance and progress. The lack of it brings instability, and frustration.

It is those of us that occupy these seats that will make Michigan better or for that matter worse; do not lead to the later. Take this opportunity, knowing you have been asked to make Michigan a better place for our families.

I do reflect upon my time in the House as being productive with passage of several bills and Public Acts including:

- House Bill 5126 (2011) County Boards taking control of Road Commissions
 - House Bill 4347 (2011) County Boards being able to participate in funding roads
 - House Bill 5404 (2012) protecting cemeteries from being land-lock
 - House Bill 5437 (2012) repayment of illegitimate unemployment compensation from Lotto winnings
 - House Bill 5617 (2012) MSHDA Eligibility bill that helps low income homeowners
 - House Bill 4545 (2013) the towing bill that protects accident scenes
 - House Bill 5015 (2013) denying the use of bridge cards at horse racetracks
 - House Bill 5014 (2013) denying the use of bridge cards to purchase liquor
 - House Bill 4208 (2013) Resort Authority Bill
 - House Bill 4337 (2013) the Ducks Unlimited licenses plate that will provide funding for wildlife habitat conservation
 - House Resolution 390(2014) Toll-free calling for overseas military personal
- and several still awaiting its turn in the Senate:

- House Bill 4544(2013) LIHEAP Weatherization bill
- House Bill 5182(2013) Non-profit housing property tax exemption bill
- House Bill 4814(2013) the naming of the Matt Urban Memorial Bridge in Monroe

I have to say when leaving county government, I considered writing a book entitled 'if it's going to happen, it's going to happen in Monroe County' but, I can say the same about this chamber.

We have experienced the mountain tops and the valleys while here. From the protests, to the phony money floating down from the gallery, to life's personal challenges, to a marriage proposal that reminds us that life is to be enjoyed. Klint, best wishes to you!

We all came here with a desire to serve the people and to make Michigan a better place. We have debated the issues with dedication for the people in our communities.

Although some debate has been challenging, this body has moved Michigan forward.

I, along with you have had the greatest opportunity to serve the citizens of Michigan, to help those that cannot help themselves, and to push those that can.

Understanding that there are so few that have had the opportunity to serve in this Chamber, it has been a privilege for me to serve in the Michigan House of Representatives.

Now, after serving thirty-four years of elected service to our community and Michigan, I leave the House with the same passion to help those that are in need, and to make Michigan a place where our children can live, and work and call it home.

You have heard me say, with a name like Zorn, I am usually the last in line. Today is no different; I am honored to follow those that came before, like my friend Rep. Kurtz who started these farewell speeches.

Serving in this historical chamber has been an incredible ride filled with memories and friends.

As we leave to begin a new chapter in our lives, I thank you and wish you all God's Blessings.

Though, I stop short of mission accomplished, because in government, the work, the mission is never finished.

With that, I bid farewell to the House of Representatives and say hello to the Michigan Senate where I shall continue the work of the people.

May God Bless my home state and our United States of America."

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Schmidt:

“Thank you Mr. Speaker.

It’s not often that I address this august body; on those rare occasions that I have, my remarks have tended to cause some excitement. I doubt this speech will have nearly the same affect!

It is rather to say goodbye to a chamber I have come to deeply appreciate and to express my deepest gratitude for having served six years as one of its members.

I would like to humbly say thank you to my colleagues—both past & present—it has truly been a privilege to serve with you.

And thank you to all who have attended the Hayford BBQs. Alum are always welcome and there will be food for 25, beer for 50!

Thank you to the constituents of the 104th House District for putting their confidence in me to represent them in Lansing. I’m very proud to have represented my hometown. And thank you to the constituents of the 37th Senate District for allowing me the opportunity to continue my service to the people of northern Michigan and the eastern Upper Peninsula.

I would like to say thank you to Mr. Tim Bowlin and the House Office Staff. No job has been too big or small for your team. I would like to also say thank you to the great staff here in the Capitol Building. From the grounds crew, maintenance team, the custodial staff, the docents and everyone else who is a part of this magnificent building, your work does not go unnoticed.

Thank you to Chief Dickson and all of the sergeants who keep us safe and help with small details on a moment’s notice.

Thank you to Clerk Randall & the house clerks. It’s been a pleasure working with you. Thank you to the committee clerks and in particular to Malika, Cathy and Mary Lou. Your flexibility & patience has been invaluable.

Thank you to the House Republican Policy Staff. You have always been accessible, reliable and straightforward with your advice & counsel. I would also like to add my thanks to the Democratic Policy staff for their hard work. Staff, regardless of their affiliation, really makes this chamber and its member a true governing body.

Thank you to my committee members on Commerce and Transportation & Infrastructure. Your willingness to meet multiple times during any given week did help advance good policy. Thank you to my vice-chairs Sharon Tyler, Jon Switalski, Marilyn Lane and Ben Glardon—couldn’t have done it without you! And to my good friend Vicki Barnett who sometimes seemed like staff, constituents and family all rolled into one. Thank you.

To Team Schmidt: Thank you for all your efforts whether it was on the campaign trail or late nights at the Capitol. Thank you Kent, Matt, Jeff and Joe.

To Senators Jason Allen and Howard Walker: Thank you for your leadership, mentoring and guidance as I navigated the House of Representatives. I know I have large shoes to fill in the 37th Senate District.

And to incoming 104th State Representative Larry Inman —know that those who have been there for me will also be there to guide you in your journey as a legislator.

And a tremendous thank you to Suzanne Miller Allen who helped me greatly get organized, adjusted, and become a productive legislator. Her respect for the institution is second to none!

To Speaker Bolger, Floor Leader Stamas, Speaker Pro Tempore Walsh, Majority Whip Lund and Chairman Haveman—you guys are the best and I’ll leave it at that.

To Kathleen, Ryan, Danny, and my entire family—I love you. You are ultimately the ones who have allowed me to achieve this special honor and privilege. No words can express enough my thanks for your patience, understanding, willingness to listen to boring stories and all the other fun parts of being related to an elected official. It is your love and care for me that has kept me on track and help create a better future for Michigan.

A staffer once told me ‘the day you walk by the Capitol and not care is the day you should leave.’ I’m glad to see we’re all still here.

Thank you Mr. Speaker.”
