Pastor Marvin T. Smith, Pastor of Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Saginaw, offered the following invocation:

“Gracious and Merciful God,

As we gather to take care of the crucial business at hand,

Create within every person a caring heart; to feel the pain of those who are hurting financially, physically, emotionally and otherwise.

Create within every person a sound mind; to think about the impact every decision made will have on people and their families before that decision is made.

Create within every person a submissive will; to yield to the better side of our humanity to remind us of our responsibility to in some way make our communities, schools, state, and nation better places.

Create within every person a courageous spirit; to speak for those whose voices often go unheard; to stand for those who have placed their trust in us to do what is right and to serve those who have given us the opportunity to lead during difficult days. Make us fit to represent them well!

And God, by Your grace and mercy, show us the blessing and the burden of serving, leading and helping people that we will know true humility.

In Your Powerful Name we pray, Amen.”

Rep. Walsh moved that Reps. Kowall and Shaughnessy be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Daley, Denby, Heise, Kandrevas, Knollenberg, Liss, MacMaster, Rogers and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 109.

A resolution to declare July 2011 as Professional Pest Management Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Effective pest management in homes, businesses, and public places throughout our state is an important factor in maintaining the health and well-being of all Michiganders; and

Whereas, Pest management professionals help protect Michigan’s food supply, homes, and the environment from disease and pest-related illnesses by practicing environmentally-friendly pest-control methods; and

Whereas, The Michigan Pest Management Association provides networking and leadership opportunities for Michigan’s pest management professionals and is recognized for its efforts to protect our environment as well as to ensure the safe and effective use of pest management materials; and

Whereas, The National Pest Management Association is committed to educating the public about the dangers posed by pests and the damage they can cause through its website, www.pestworld.org; and

Whereas, Pest Management Month offers all Michiganders an opportunity to understand and appreciate the important role that pest management providers play in ensuring the health and well-being of Michiganders; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare July 2011 as Professional Pest Management Month in the state of Michigan, and call this observance to the attention of all our citizens.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Haines, Barnett, Brown, Crawford, Darany, Denby, Heise, Horn, Kandrevas, Knollenberg, Liss, MacMaster, Poleski, Rogers and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 110.

A resolution to declare June 2011 as Squamous Cell Carcinoma Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The summer months encourage the people of Michigan to get outside and enjoy the beautiful outdoors, therefore, it is a necessity to remind citizens of the dangers of the sun and ultraviolet radiation. Squamous cell carcinoma has become an increased concern for members of our communities; and

Whereas, Squamous cell carcinoma is caused by changing cells. The changes may begin in skin that has been injured or inflamed or in standard skin. Squamous cell carcinoma can occur anywhere in the body but appears most often in areas that have had frequent sun exposure or other ultraviolet radiation including x-ray radiation; and

Whereas, Squamous cell carcinoma is a carcinomatous cancer occurring in multiple organs. It is the second most common skin cancer and the most common head and neck cancer; and

Whereas, Symptoms of squamous cell carcinoma can be a sore that does not heal, growing bumps that may have a rough, scaly surface and flat reddish patches, or any change in an existing skin lesion, wart, mole or lump; and

Whereas, We encourage citizens to take the proper precautions to prevent squamous cell carcinoma. It is recommended that the people avoid high ultraviolet radiation, properly use high-quality sunscreens and regularly check for any new suspicious growths or changes in an existing skin sore; and

Whereas, A large percentage of squamous cell carcinoma can be cured if treated early; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 2011 as Squamous Cell Carcinoma Awareness Month in the state of Michigan. We urge Michigan residents to become aware of the indications, symptoms, and prevention tactics of squamous cell carcinoma.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Haveman, Roy Schmidt, Lyons, Genetski, Jackson, Wayne Schmidt, Bumstead, Horn, Opsommer, Johnson, Yonker, Hooker, McMillin, MacGregor, Nesbitt, Lori, Pettalia, Cotter, Shirkey, Muxlow, Outman, MacMaster, Price, Olson, Agema, Walsh, McBroom, Lund, Daley and Rogers offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 111.

A resolution to memorialize the President and the United States Congress to enact legislation protecting the rights of conscience of students seeking counseling degrees and licensed professional counselors.

Whereas, University students in Michigan and other states have been punished or dismissed from counseling programs for adhering to their sincerely held religious convictions; and

Whereas, There is an increasing number of disturbing reports that the counseling profession is eliminating from the profession persons who take their religious faith seriously; and

Whereas, The American Counseling Association, a private organization that promulgates a code of ethics widely used by university counseling programs and state licensure boards in training for and regulating the counseling profession, has publicly supported universities that have punished or dismissed students for adhering to their sincere religious convictions; and

Whereas, The American Counseling Association recently urged the governor of Arizona to veto a bill that protects the religious liberties of university students enrolled in counseling programs; and

Whereas, Persons should not be subjected to a religious test as a condition of obtaining the education necessary to serve as a licensed counselor or as a condition of acquiring a counseling license; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the President and the United States Congress to enact legislation protecting the rights of conscience of students seeking counseling degrees and licensed professional counselors; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Office of the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Education.

Reps. Haveman, Roy Schmidt, Lyons, Olumba, Jackson, Wayne Schmidt, Bumstead, Horn, Opsommer, Johnson, Hooker, Yonker, McMillin, MacGregor, Nesbitt, Lori, Pettalia, Cotter, Shirkey, Muxlow, Outman, MacMaster, Price, Callton, Olson, Genetski, Agema, Walsh, McBroom, Kowall, Lund, Daley and Rogers offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 112.

A resolution to urge Michigan's public universities to adopt policies to protect the rights of students in counseling, social work, or psychology programs who are faced with situations that conflict with their religious beliefs.

Whereas, A distinguishing feature of our American values is respect for religious beliefs that may be different than our own. The potential for conflict when a person with deeply held religious convictions encounters a situation that challenges these beliefs is inherent in several professions, including counseling and social work; and

Whereas, A specific case at a Michigan university involving a graduate student faced with counseling a person whose life included elements that conflicted with the graduate student's beliefs has drawn considerable attention. The dismissal of the graduate student, and the subsequent legal actions, make it clear that a reasonable solution to this situation must be found; and

Whereas, It is reasonable to expect that those who work in areas where deeply held personal beliefs conflict will face difficult situations. It is prudent to encourage the development of standards that give greater opportunities for a counselor to refer someone to another counselor without fear of penalty. Our higher education institutions should do all they can to provide for such situations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge Michigan's public colleges and universities to adopt policies to protect the religious beliefs and practices of students in counseling, social work, or psychology programs who are faced with situations that conflict with their beliefs. We encourage our institutions of higher education to develop standards that protect the religious beliefs of counselors by providing that students shall not be disciplined for counseling situations when the student consults with supervising instructors and determines a course of action to avoid harm to the person seeking counseling help; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Michigan's public universities.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Education.

THIS RESOLUTION IS OFFERED TO COMPLY WITH MCL 4.101 AND REQUIRES A RECORD ROLL CALL VOTE UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF RULE 37 OF THE STANDING RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Rep. McMillin offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 113.

A resolution to extend subpoena power to the House Oversight, Reform and Ethics Committee.

Whereas, Full access to accurate information is essential for sound decision making by any public or private body. Section 1 of 1931 PA 118, being MCL 4.101, provides, in part, that

Committees and commissions of or appointed by the legislature may by resolution of the legislature be authorized to administer oaths, subpoena witnesses and/or to examine the books and records of any persons, partnerships or corporations involved in a matter properly before any of such committees or commissions.

Pursuant to Rule 37 of the Standing Rules of the House of Representatives, the authority for a committee to issue subpoenas shall be granted by resolution, with the vote for adoption by record roll call and a majority of members elected and serving required for adoption; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That, pursuant to MCL 4.101 and Rule 37 of the Standing Rules of the House of Representatives, we hereby grant subpoena power to the House Oversight, Reform and Ethics Committee relative to its work on the issue of invasive searches of travelers without reasonable cause.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I am voting no, which is different than my initial vote on this bill because of the growing trend to do way with privacy for the sake of some sort of transparency. And while the changes to the bill make it more palatable, recent votes on these supposed 'transparency' issues makes me unaffordable for the people of the State of Michigan. If it's health care information today, I am wondering what is next for the people of our Great State. That 'what next' should not be the further erosion of personal private information. I therefore vote no on SB 446."

Rep. Irwin, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

HB 4503 will subject our agriculture industry to potential harm from these invasive species. In order to protect our farmers, Michigan needs appropriate regulation. I believe that this proposed regulation falls short of that required to prevent these invasive species from harming other property owners. Moreover, the fees that would support the permitting and inspection programs will not cover the cost of the program. As a result, the general fund will be subsidizing this industry. At a time when we are cutting education and public safety, I find it outrageous that we are moving to subsidize businesses that endanger our second largest industry.”
