Pastor Jerry Hatter of Brown Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church of Ypsilanti offered the following invocation:

Praise God. God, our Father in heaven, we thank You for another day that You’ve made. We shall rejoice and be glad in it.

You are worthy. We love You. We adore You. We magnify You. We pray Your presence and Your power in the midst of this session, and we come today asking that you would lead this body of legislators to do Your holy and righteous will— all of the things that are before them, that they will give their wholehearted attention to the laws that protect those who are depending on them for education and social justice and mental health and fair laws that address discrimination, irrespective of age, sex, or national origin. And Lord, we pray that they will rightly address those issues that guarantee clean water for every citizen. We pray that their minds, their hearts, their souls as well as their spirits, O God, be lifted to You. We pray for the Governor. We pray, O God, as we enter into this season, to honor our veterans. We pray, O God, that all of them will give You glory and honor and thanksgiving to all who serve.

And help us now to put aside partisan politics and work for the good of all citizens. Bless their homes and bless their families. Keep Your angels watching over them day and night.

Now Lord, please let Your will be done. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

The Assistant President pro tempore, Senator Theis, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance

Resolutions

Senator MacGregor moved that consideration of the following resolutions be postponed for today:

Senate Resolution No. 30

Senate Resolution No. 38

The motion prevailed.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8.

A concurrent resolution to declare Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) a critical health issue, commit the Legislature to action, and encourage the Governor to direct agencies to assess and report progress on reducing ACEs.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

The concurrent resolution was adopted.

Senators Bullock, Wojno, Horn, Bayer, McCann, Moss, Santana, Brinks, Alexander, Polehanki, McMorrow, Chang, Geiss, Curtis Hertel, Outman, Daley, Lauwers, MacGregor, MacDonald, Stamas, Runestad, VanderWall, Theis, Lucido, Victory, Johnson, Hollier and Ananich offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 52.

A resolution to commemorate May 23, 2019, as the 120th Anniversary of the Michigan Municipal League.

Whereas, The origins of the Michigan Municipal League were initiated in 1899 when a group of mayors sought to collaborate with one another and form an organization to focus on ‘good government’ and to strengthen the concept of home rule; and

Whereas, The original bylaws envisioned an organization whose purpose was “the affiliation of municipal officials and the general improvement of every branch of municipal administration...”; and

Whereas, Michigan organized a state municipal league in 1899, following California, Indiana, Iowa, and Wisconsin. The organization was known as the League of Michigan Municipalities, and its founding members were: Adrian, Albion, Alpena, Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Bay City, Benton Harbor, Big Rapids, Cadillac, Charlevoix, Charlotte, Coldwater, Detroit, Dowagiac, Eaton Rapids, Flint, Grand Haven, Grand Ledge, Grand Rapids, Hillsdale, Holly, Hudson, Ionia, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Ludington, Manistee, Marshall, Mason, Monroe, Muskegon, Niles, Owosso, Pontiac, Port Huron, Rochester, Saginaw, St. Louis, Stanton, St. Joseph, Traverse City, Wyandotte, and Ypsilanti; and

Whereas, The League’s continuity was secured in 1928 by creating a permanent home in Ann Arbor, hiring a full-time employee, publishing a periodical, and establishing a clearinghouse of information. Harold D. Smith was the first director and built the League into a statewide organization by doubling membership his first year and doubling it again in his second year; and

Whereas, In 1957 the League expanded its presence by establishing an additional consultation and research office in Lansing, and ten years later held its first legislative conference bolstering its advocacy and coverage of municipal issues at the state level; and

Whereas, 120 years later, the mission statement reads: The Michigan Municipal League is dedicated to making Michigan's communities better by thoughtfully innovating programs, energetically connecting ideas and people, actively serving members with resources and services, and passionately inspiring positive change for Michigan's greatest centers of potential: its communities; and

Whereas, The League continues its legacy of service to meet the challenges of Michigan's 533 cities and villages; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body commemorate May 23, 2019, as the 120th Anniversary of the Michigan Municipal League; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan Municipal League as evidence of our esteem for being Michigan's voice for local government over the last 120 years.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator MacGregor moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senator Nesbitt asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Nesbitt's statement is as follows:

I'd like to introduce Laura Velderman. She joined the Marines in February and what makes her story so unusual is that she graduated from boot camp on May 17 and then is returning to graduate with her Hopkins High School class on May 24. While at boot camp, she was voted by her platoon to be awarded the highly coveted Molly Marine Award. This is given to the recruit who shows the characteristics of a Marine from the beginning. With this prestigious award, she will be graduating boot camp as a Private First Class. On Memorial Day, she will be performing "Taps" at the Poplar Hills Cemetery one last time before she leaves for combat training.

As you can see, Laura is not your typical 18-year old. And with May being Military Appreciation Month, I think she not only deserves recognition, but could also be an inspiration to others and all of us.

Senator MacGregor moved that rule 3.901 be suspended to allow filming and photographs to be taken from the Senate Gallery.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senators Polehanki, Irwin, McMorrow, Chang, Geiss, Ananich, Hertel, Bullock, Wojno, Bayer, McCann, Moss, Santana, Brinks, Alexander and Hollier offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 53.

A resolution to commemorate May 22, 2019, as Equal Rights Advocacy Day.

Whereas, Michigan supports equal rights for all who live, study, work, and visit our Great Lakes state; and
Whereas, The Michigan Constitution does not explicitly guarantee that all of the rights it protects are held equally by all without regard to gender; and

Whereas, The laws that prohibit gender discrimination still exist today, but can be repealed or reduced by a simple majority in the legislature; and

Whereas, Even though Michigan ratified the United States (U.S.) Equal Rights Amendment on May 22, 1972, it still does not have gender equality guaranteed in its own state constitution; and

Whereas, The Equal Rights Amendment was ratified by 37 out of 38 states, although without full ratification, the U.S. Constitution fails to guarantee female citizens equal rights and equal justice; and

Whereas, An Equal Rights Amendment would help correct systemic gender discrimination that is both widespread and pervasive; and

Whereas, Many women have dedicated their entire lives to a constitutional amendment affirming that women have equal rights and protections under the U.S. Constitution; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body commemorate May 22, 2019, as Equal Rights Advocacy Day.

Pursuant to rule 3.204, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of
