

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ACT (EXCERPT)
Act 268 of 1986

4.1402 Salaries and expenses of members; appointment, duties, and compensation of employees.

Sec. 402. Each member of the commission, other than the ex officio member, may receive an annual salary as established by the council. All members may be reimbursed their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The commission may appoint such employees as may be needed, prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation within the amount appropriated for the commission.

History: 1986, Act 268, Imd. Eff. Dec. 19, 1986.