

REVISED JUDICATURE ACT OF 1961 (EXCERPT)
Act 236 of 1961

600.4322 Habeas corpus; “prisoner” defined.

Sec. 4322. The term “prisoner”, as used in connection with habeas corpus, means the person on whose behalf the writ is issued, such as an inmate of a penal or mental institution, the child whose custody is sought, and other persons alleged to be restrained of their liberty.

History: 1961, Act 236, Eff. Jan. 1, 1963.