

PUBLIC HEALTH CODE (EXCERPT)
Act 368 of 1978

333.20164 Duration of license or certification; license, certification, or certificate of need nontransferable; transfer of ownership or ownership interest; notice; application for license and certification.

Sec. 20164. (1) A license, certification, provisional license, or limited license is valid for not more than 1 year after the date of issuance, except as provided in section 20511 or part 209 or 210. A license for a facility licensed under part 215 shall be valid for 2 years, except that provisional and limited licenses may be valid for 1 year.

(2) A license, certification, or certificate of need is not transferable and shall state the persons, buildings, and properties to which it applies. Applications for licensure or certification because of transfer of ownership or essential ownership interest shall not be acted upon until satisfactory evidence is provided of compliance with part 222.

(3) If ownership is not voluntarily transferred, the department shall be notified immediately and the new owner shall apply for a license and certification not later than 30 days after the transfer.
