House Bill 5479

A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 5479 AS INTRODUCED 12-13-95

The Insurance Code currently requires insurers to pay $1 to the Automobile Theft Prevention Authority for each vehicle insurance policy written annually. These funds are deposited into the Automobile Theft Prevention Fund to pay for programs designed to reduce motor vehicle theft in the state. The bill would amend the Michigan Vehicle Code to require the secretary of state, at the time of registering a commercial motor vehicle, to collect from the owner of the vehicle (in addition to the registration tax) an annual assessment of $1 to be deposited into the theft prevention fund.
