House Bill 5419 (as passed by the House)
Sponsor: Representative John Llewellyn
House Committee: Insurance
Senate Committee: Financial Services

Date Completed: 1-30-96

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Insurance Code to authorize the Insurance Commissioner or the Commissioner's appointed special deputy, acting in the role of rehabilitator of an insurer, to take certain actions that the Commissioner may take in his or her role as liquidator. The bill specifies that it "does not limit or expand any of the action [sic] the rehabilitator may take as he or she considers necessary or appropriate to reform and revitalize the insurer".

The Code allows the Insurance Commissioner to appoint one or more special deputies who have all the powers and responsibilities of the rehabilitator granted under the Code. The Code specifies that the rehabilitator may take actions as he or she considers appropriate or necessary to reform and revitalize an insurer subject to rehabilitation. The bill would add that those measures could include, but would not be limited to, all of the following powers, which currently are granted to a liquidator:

- To collect all debts and money due and claims belonging to the insurer, wherever located, and for the following purposes: to institute timely action in other jurisdictions to forestall garnishment and attachment proceedings against debts; to do other acts necessary or expedient to collect, conserve, or protect the assets or property, including the power to sell, compound, compromise, or assign debts for purposes of collection upon terms and conditions the liquidator considers best; or to pursue a creditor's remedies available to enforce the creditor's claims.
- To continue to prosecute and to institute in the insurer's name, or the liquidator's name, suits and other legal proceedings, and to abandon the prosecution of claims the liquidator considers unprofitable to pursue further. If the insurer is dissolved pursuant to the Code, the liquidator has the power to apply to any court for leave to substitute himself or herself for the insurer as plaintiff.
- To prosecute an action that may exist on behalf of the insurer's creditors, members, policyholders, or shareholders against an officer of the insurer or another person.
- To assert all defenses available to the insurer as against third persons, including statutes of limitation, statutes of frauds, and the defense of usury. (A waiver of a defense by the insurer after a liquidation petition is filed does not bind the liquidator.) If a guaranty association or foreign guaranty association has an obligation to defend a suit, the liquidator must give precedence to that obligation and may defend only in the absence of a defense by the guaranty association.

- To enter into agreements with a receiver or commissioner of another state relating to the rehabilitation, liquidation, conservation, or dissolution of an insurer doing business in both states.

The bill also would extend the Commissioner's authority, as liquidator, to enter into agreements with a receiver or commissioner of another state, to include agreements with a receiver or commissioner of another country.

In addition, the Code specifies that, if it appears to the rehabilitator that there has been criminal or tortious conduct or breach of contractual or fiduciary obligation detrimental to the insurer by an officer, manager, agent, broker, employee, or other person, the rehabilitator may pursue all appropriate legal remedies on behalf of the insurer. The bill would delete "on behalf of the insurer" from that provision.
