4 read as follows:

5 Sec. 1167. (1) The state board shall develop guidelines for
6 school districts for the teaching of dispute management and reso-
7 lution as a separate course or as a part of other courses. The
8 guidelines shall structure an outline or part of an outline for 1

1 or more courses or part of a course that will do all of the
2 following:

3 (a) Develop an awareness and concern for the rights and
4 well-being of others.

5 (b) Provide insight into how attitudes are formed and deci-
6 sions are made.

7 (c) Provide an understanding of other cultures and the ori-
8 gins and nature of conflict between cultures.

9 (d) Develop skills and attitudes for effective communication
10 and cooperation with people from cultures different from the 11 students' own, both in this country and in other countries.

12 (e) Improve dispute management and resolution skills.

13 (f) Encourage creative problem solving through peaceful
14 means, including, but not limited to, mediation and arbitration.

15 (2) In implementing subsection (1), the state board shall 16 seek advice from representatives of at least all of the 17 following:

18 (a) School boards.

19 (b) School administrators.

20 (c) School counselors.

21 (d) Elementary and secondary classroom teachers.

22 (e) Curriculum development organizations.
