Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Gagliardi moved that Rule No. 82 be suspended.
The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

Rep. Scott moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Vaughn:

“As Chairwoman Mary Lou Parks said, we are here to celebrate African-American History Month. This is the 72nd year. In 1926 this illustrious period was put together by the Honorable Dr. Carter G. Woodson, who was a graduate of the University of Chicago where he received his master’s degree, and he received his Ph.D. from Harvard University, only the second African-American to receive a Ph.D degree from Harvard. In 1915 he organized the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History. In 1926 he put together Negro History Week, now which is called African-American History Month. Dr. Woodson wrote about twenty-five different books. Three of his better known books are

'The Negro in Our History', 'The Negro Orators and Their Orations', and 'The Miseducation of the Negro', being the most widely read of his books. Dr. Woodson dedicated his life to the study of African-American life and history. We certainly owe a great deal of debt and gratitude to him. He reminded us that the human family began over 5 million years ago in the great lakes region of East Africa, and that all of the people that God created at that particular time lived around the equator and that they had certain physical characteristics because of where they lived. As the human family began to migrate north and got above the 40th parallel we got into a different temperate zone the darker-skinned Africans tended to die out while the lighter-skinned Africans tended to live. After thousands of years of evolutionary change of living in the north, these Africans evolved into what today we call Europeans. The Africans who then crossed the Red Sea and went into Asia Minor and into the Far East lived in valleys for thousands of years and developed the indigenous characteristics of the Asiatic people. Dr. Woodson, who preceded the scientists in understanding this, made us quite aware that the human family is monogenetic, and we need to understand that. He also reminded us that not only did the human family begin in Africa, but the earliest civilizations also started in Africa, long before the Greek civilization, long before the Roman civilization, long before anything in China. The Africans raised the pyramids above the Nile, gave to the world the sciences of chemistry, physics, mathematics, astronomy and astrology, and laid the basis for Eastern and Western civilization. Every holy book in the world, whether it's the Holy Koran, the Talmud, the Bagavadita, the Holy Bible, all of the holy books can be traced back to the first book written in a religious manner and that was the book of coming forth by day and by night which British Egyptologists called the Book of the Dead. Every religion on the face of this earth, whether it is Buddhism, Shintoism, Christianity, Islam, all religions owe their origin to the first religion developed in Africa 5,000 years before the time of Christ. These are the things that Dr. Woodson taught us. He also taught us that in spite of the fact that we were enslaved in America, that we made many contributions to this nation. From the inventions of Elijah McCoy, who invented the automatic railroad coupler, to the inventions of the gas mask, and the traffic light by Garret Morgan. To the invention of the golf tee, the egg beater and Edison's light bulb which could not stay on until Dr. Louis Lattimer invented the carbon filament that allowed Edison's light bulb to stay on. We say that we have come a long way and that we have given much to this nation and to this world. I close now with what James Walden Johnson wrote in the Negro National Anthem, which we call Lift Every Voice and Sing. The second stanza, which spoke of slavery but also spoke of a better day, he said, 'Stoney the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod, felt in the days when hope unborn had died, yet with a steady beat has not our weary feet come to the place to which our fathers died. We have come over way in which tears have been watered, we have come treading the path through the blood of the slaughtered, out from the gloomy past till now we stand at last, where the bright gleam of our bright star is cast.' Thank you and God bless you."

Rep. Thomas moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today's session.
The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Gagliardi, Bodem, Frank, Griffin, DeHart, Quarles, Brewer, Bogardus, Rison, Callahan, Brown, Tesanovich, Anthony, Agee, Profit, Brater, Parks, LaForge, Palamara, Wojno, Schauer, Lowe, Richner, Rocca, Stallworth, Basham, Cherry, Harder, Dobronski, Kaza, Wallace, Curtis, Baade, Martinez, Baird, Gire, Hale, Kelly, Murphy, Prusi, Green, Owen, Mathieu, Middaugh, Alley, Gernaat, Middleton, Bobier, Geiger, Scranton, Freeman, Hanley, Kukuk, Gubow, Goschka, Hood, Vaughn, Law, Voorhees, Llewellyn, Jelinek, Leland, Wetters, Scott, Varga, Oxender, Dalman, Cropsey, Kilpatrick, Birkholz, Schermesser, Horton, Ciaramitaro, Thomas, Cassis and Dobb offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 216.

A resolution to support the selection of Mackinaw City as the site of a national lighthouse center and museum.

Whereas, A twenty-one member national committee is working to select a locale for a national lighthouse center and museum. Mackinaw City is among the finalists in this process. With the strong private and community support and the keen interest of Michigan's residents and visitors, Mackinaw City would be an outstanding and fitting spot for a national center to highlight the history and service of lighthouses; and

Whereas, Michigan's history emerged from the maritime culture of the Great Lakes. Our state has 116 lighthouses, more than any other state. There are 438 lighthouses on the Great Lakes, more than any region of the country, including New England. Another measure of the popularity of lighthouses with our citizens is the Great Lakes Lighthouse Keepers Association, which is the largest organization of its kind, with 13,000 members; and

Whereas, Michigan's tourism industry supports 400,000 jobs and represents $8.7 billion overall each year. The Straits of Mackinac, one of the most beautiful areas of the country, includes many historic attractions. Mackinaw City already is a highlight of 1.7 million trips, a number that grows each year; and

Whereas, A national lighthouse museum would be a fitting addition to the area. Over the years, lighthouses have been a key element of safety along the treacherous Straits of Mackinac. Within 40 miles of Mackinaw City are 21 lighthouses that are still standing; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we support the selection of Mackinaw City as the site of a national lighthouse center and museum; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the national lighthouse center and museum selection committee.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Tourism.

Reps. Brewer, Baird, Martinez, DeHart, Freeman, Hanley, Dobronski, Harder, Kukuk, Gire, Kelly, Anthony, Cherry, Tesanovich, Gubow, Bodem, Goschka, Hood, Vaughn, Voorhees, Richner, Scranton, Jelinek, LaForge, Leland, Wetters, Scott, Varga, Oxender, Dalman, Cropsey, Profit, Murphy, Parks, Schauer, Kilpatrick, Hale, Birkholz, Quarles, Schermesser, Ciaramitaro, Brater, Thomas, Dobb, Baade and Emerson offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 217.

A resolution congratulating Linda A. Sims upon her selection as the first African American Chairperson of the Ingham County Board of Commissioners.

Whereas, It is a pleasure to offer congratulations to Linda A. Sims upon her selection as the first African American Chairperson of the Ingham County Board of Commissioners. With the record that this talented and energetic commissioner has compiled over the years, this is a most fitting symbol of excellence in an endeavor of great importance to every citizen, business, and institution in this state—service of our community; and

Whereas, Michigan has a long tradition of belief in the value of public service. Ms. Sims has worked hard to carry on that tradition. In becoming the first African American to serve as Chairperson of the Ingham County Board of Commissioners, Linda brings a great deal of leadership and experience. Elected to the Board of Commissioners seven years ago, she has worked hard to improve services and programs for children, senior citizens, and women; and

Whereas, In becoming Chairperson of the Ingham County Board of Commissioners, Linda A. Sims is being singled out for her efforts in several areas. In addition to specific innovations in public health, environment, and constituent services, she is being honored for success in the most fundamental component, that of public service. We applaud the dedication she has consistently displayed and offer our thanks for the manner in which both Democrats and Republicans benefit from all of her hard work; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we salute Linda A. Sims upon her selection as Chairperson of the Ingham County Board of Commissioners. May she long enjoy the health and happiness she has earned; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Linda as a symbol of our esteem.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Gagliardi moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.
