Senate Bill 315 establishes the 27th day of the month of Nisan in the Hebrew calendar as Holocaust remembrance day, and that the period beginning on the Sunday before the 27th through the following Sunday shall be the Days of Remembrance in Michigan. This period will be a time to remember the victims of the holocaust, a time to honor the survivors, as well as the rescuers and liberators.

There is no fiscal impact of this bill to state or local units of government.
