The bill would add a new section to the Home Solicitation Sales Act to make it an unfair or deceptive act or practice and a violation of the act for a telephone solicitor to make certain kinds of representations, false or misleading statements, credit card charges, and prize offers. Current law provides that violations of the act's provisions are punishable by fines of up to and/or imprisonment for up to. The bill's provisions could increase local enforcement and incarceration costs as well as local fine revenue to the extent that violations occur.
