The House was called to order by the Clerk.

The roll was called by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, who announced that a quorum was not present.

Rep. Aldo Vagnozzi, from the 37th District, offered the following invocation:

“Dear God who serves us all, may we call on You to guide our efforts here towards a fair and just society. Especially to take care of those who are handicapped, who are of low income and who have other needs. I would also urge You to work towards peace in the world, wherever strife is taking place. We need to protect our civilians; we need to protect the entire world. Thank You very much, dear God, Amen.”
