

Senators Kahn, Kuipers, Jacobs, Jansen, Thomas, Anderson, Barcia, Olshove, Brown, Sanborn, Gilbert, Gleason, Pappageorge, Jelinek, Clarke, Van Woerkom and Brater offered the following concurrent resolution:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21.

A concurrent resolution to urge state departments, universities, community colleges, and local units of government not to invest or deposit any funds in any business, legal, or governmental entity or institution that is engaged in business with known state sponsors of terror or has facilities in these countries.

Whereas, In recent years, there have been numerous terrorist attacks in locations such as New York, Washington, D.C., Madrid, London, and Yemen, as well as in Iraq and Afghanistan. The United States Secretary of State has determined that certain countries have repeatedly provided support for acts of international terrorism, and such a country is known as a state sponsor of terror. State and local funds should not be invested in companies that do business or have facilities in countries that have been identified by the United States Secretary of State as state sponsors of terror; and

Whereas, A number of states have taken steps to urge or to prohibit investment or deposit of funds in companies that do business or have facilities in countries that have been identified as state sponsors of terror. It is important that states place pressure on such countries to stop supporting terrorism. Support of terrorism represents a grave threat to the security of the United States and to the residents of the state of Michigan. In the same manner, state and local agencies should not invest or deposit funds in countries which have been identified as state sponsors of terror. Twenty-eight states are considering legislation and six states have passed disinvestment legislation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we urge state departments, universities, community colleges, and local units of government not to invest or deposit any funds in any business, legal, or governmental entity or institution that is engaged in business with known state sponsors of terror or has facilities in these countries; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to state departments, universities, community colleges, and local government associations.
