

Rep. Kathleen Law offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 294.

A resolution to urge the Great Lakes states to reject changes to the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence River Basin Water Resources Compact and enact it as presented in December 2005.

Whereas, The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence River Basin Water Resources Compact would protect the Great Lakes from diversions and wasteful withdrawals while preserving reasonable use of Great Lakes water within the region. This historic document represents a hard-fought compromise negotiated over five years by the Great Lakes governors and Canadian premiers with input from thousands of stakeholders and citizens; and

Whereas, Each Great Lakes state and the United States Congress must approve the same language for the compact to become legally binding. Three Great Lakes states--Minnesota, Illinois, and Indiana--have already enacted the compact as agreed to by the governors and premiers in December 2005. A fourth state--New York--has a bill with the same language waiting for the governor's signature. In addition, the Pennsylvania House of Representatives and the Ohio House of Representatives have passed bills that would enact that same language. However, the Ohio Senate and Wisconsin State Assembly have indicated that they will consider amending the compact; and

Whereas, Any changes to the compact at this late stage of the process would be a major setback and could undo all the hard work that went into reaching the current compromise. Unilateral changes would place the compact in jeopardy of ever becoming law and would threaten the long-term future of the Great Lakes and all the industries, businesses, farmers, and citizens that depend on them; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Great Lakes states to reject changes to the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence River Basin Water Resources Compact and enact it as presented in December 2005; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Ohio General Assembly, the Pennsylvania General Assembly, the Wisconsin Legislature, and the governors of Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin.
