Rep. Kate Segal, from the 62nd District, offered the following invocation:

“As we gather today, we ask for the grace and wisdom to work together to act for the public good ... And make decisions that will benefit all the residents of our great state, as they look to us for leadership in creating a stronger Michigan. We know that these are trying times for our state, our nation, and our families and friends across our communities. We pray for those who are struggling to make ends meet, and the thousands who live under a cloud of uncertainty and fear due to our economic challenges. As the voice of the people who call Michigan home, it is our responsibility to work together to improve the lives of citizens across this great state. So we ask for the guidance and the ability to work toward our common goal of creating a better life for every individual and every family in Michigan. We ask for the courage to think not of our own futures, but rather to make the tough choices as we think of the futures of our children and all those who will come after us. Please give us the wisdom we need to lead Michigan through these dark and turbulent times. We give thanks for the privilege and honor of serving the people of Michigan. In Your name, we offer this prayer. Amen.”

Rep. Dean moved that Rep. Cushingberry be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 255.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Thomas H. Kelly, former member of the House of Representatives.

Whereas, The members of this legislative body and many at the state capitol were saddened to learn of the passing of Thomas H. Kelly. This genial Irishman, remembered fondly by his colleagues for his integrity and sense of duty, touched the lives of many in his Wayne County community and across our state; and

Whereas, Raised in New York City and educated at Fordham University and Long Island University, Thomas Kelly served his country for 4 years in the United States Air Force before embarking on a career as a teacher, advocate of libraries, and public servant. As the library director for the Wayne-Westland Community Schools, assistant professor at Henry Ford Community College, and library technician, he had a deep appreciation of the challenges and opportunities of our information age. This insight served him well in his local government and legislative responsibilities; and

Whereas, Prior to his first election to the House of Representatives in 1994, Mr. Kelly had distinguished himself in his 12 years on the Wayne City Council, his leadership with the Nankin Transit Commission, his efforts with SEMCOG, and his involvement in a variety of civic groups. Throughout his three terms in Lansing, Representative Kelly earned respect for his thorough approach to the legislative process. His voice was especially valued on transportation issues and his work on the House Appropriations Committee. The example of his effectiveness and commitment will long be remembered and deeply appreciated; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Thomas H. Kelly, a member of this legislative body from 1995 to 2000; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Kelly family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Dean moved that Rule 75 be suspended.
The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

Rep. Dean moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Corriveau:

“Thank you Madame Speaker,

Today I speak to you with a heavy heart as we honor the memory and life my friend and mentor, former Representative Tom Kelly.

I recall the first time I listened to a resolution being read into the journal memorializing someone who had served in the House. I did not know this person and I questioned a colleague shortly after why we do this. His response, 'When we die, they will do one for us too'.

It took me a minute to really understand what this meant and I was deeply struck by the reality that the story of my life and my work would someday be read in this chamber for others to hear. I wondered to myself, 'What will it say?'

I can honestly tell you that nothing would be said and I would not be here with you today without the help and guidance of Tom Kelly.

As we heard, Tom served in the House from 1994-2000. When I decided I wanted to try to walk down this common road, he was one of the very first I went to speak with. I had never met Tom before but he agreed to see me without pause. Despite my long odds, he believed in me. Tom took me under his wing and literally his arm that first day and told me, 'Ill take care of Wayne for you young man, go out and introduce yourself to the rest of the district.'

Tom was more than just a respected man in the City of Wayne. He was a hard working man who believed in fighting for others. He lived there for most of his life with Bridgette, his wife, who is in the balcony today. He gave everything he had to the community and during his time in public service he fought doggedly for what was best for his state, his hometown and those least among us. When Tom spoke on my behalf people listened. For that I will be eternally grateful.

Over the years I learned many lessons from Tom. I would like to share with you two of his best. First, he told me to sit in the stands at baseball games. In the suites you will hear what you want to hear, in the stands you will hear what you should. Second, he told me to never forget that as a legislator the decisions I make will affect people lives. Profoundly.

So finally, in memory of Tom Kelly, I look to my colleagues and ask them not to forget what we are all here to do. Never let the politics be the force that writes our stories. We are profoundly affecting people's lives and one day our name and our story will be told in this chamber. What will it say?

God Bless you Bridgett. God bless you Tom. God Speed."

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of Retirement security is constantly being eroded. The House agreed to the title of the bill.

 The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

The Speaker Pro Tempore called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Haase to the Chair.

Rep. Byrnes moved that her name be removed as co-sponsor of the bill.
 The motion prevailed.

The Speaker Pro Tempore resumed the Chair.

Rep. Bauer, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

As a member of the Appropriations Committee for the past three and a half years, I rise in opposition to this bill which consolidates the House and Senate Fiscal Agencies. Though this may appear, at first, to offer some cost reduction, I question any long term savings that will actually result from this action.

More important, in this time of term limits and therefore in this time when legislators who serve on and chair major appropriations subcommittees are doing so after only a very brief time in the legislature, it is more critical than ever that we have good, solid, nonpartisan fiscal advice from the House Fiscal Agency that we can trust and that can help us make good public policy decisions about spending the taxpayer’s money. We have been told that the consolidation - to save any money - will mean less staff support from trained and competent economists in the fiscal agencies. The Appropriations Committee and the House of Representatives is responsible for dealing with a massive budget deficit of $1.7 billion dollars. Of the 45 billion dollar total state budget, the fiscal agency budget is only one one hundredth of one percent. This is not the time to be cutting the resources that are so extremely important to making the decisions needed to turn this great state around.”

Senate Bill No. 468, entitled

A bill to amend 1949 PA 300, entitled “Michigan vehicle code,” by amending section 320a (MCL 257.320a), as amended by 2008 PA 463, and by adding section 602b.

(The bill was read a third time and postponed for the day on April 20, see House Journal No. 35, p. 538.)

The question being on the passage of the bill,

Reps. Smith and Jackson moved to amend the bill as follows:

1. Amend page 18, following line 10, by inserting:

“Sec. 909. (1) Except as provided in ~~subsection (2)~~ THIS SECTION, a civil fine ~~which~~ THAT is ordered under section 907 for a violation of this act or other state statute shall be exclusively applied to the support of public libraries and county law libraries in the same manner as is provided by law for penal fines assessed and collected for violation of a penal law of the state. ~~A~~ EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (3), A civil fine ordered for a violation of a code or ordinance of a local authority regulating the operation of commercial motor vehicles and substantially corresponding to a provision of this act shall be paid to the county treasurer and shall be allocated as follows:

(a) Seventy percent to the local authority in which the citation is issued.

(b) Thirty percent for library purposes as provided by law.

(2) Subsection (1) is intended to maintain a source of revenue for public libraries which previously received penal fines for misdemeanor violations of this act which are now civil infractions.

(3) BEGINNING ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE AMENDATORY ACT THAT ADDED THIS SUBSECTION, A CIVIL FINE ORDERED FOR A VIOLATION OF SECTION 602B OR A LOCAL ORDINANCE SUBSTANTIALLY CORRESPONDING TO SECTION 602B SHALL BE DEPOSITED IN THE GENERAL FUND. THIS SUBSECTION IS INTENDED TO OFFSET THE LOSS OF REVENUE OCCASIONED BY THE REDUCTION IN DRIVER RESPONSIBILITY FEES COLLECTED UNDER SECTION 732A. THIS SUBSECTION DOES NOT TAKE EFFECT UNLESS DRIVER RESPONSIBILITY FEES CEASE BEING ASSESSED UNDER SECTION 732A(1) AND (2)(C) AND (D).”

The motion was seconded and the amendment was adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the passage of the bill,

The bill was then passed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor, by yeas and nays, as follows:

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Dean moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Agema, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

There was an amendment placed on this at the last minute which we don’t know what it does. Also, there are already laws on the books to enforce dangerous driving. It does not stop people from using their phones as TVs, stock market quotes etc. It’s also a primary offense, meaning they can stop you for almost any reason of suspicion of texting.”

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Warren, Scripps, Smith, Miller, Roberts, Kennedy, Liss, Haase, Haugh, Barnett, Ball, Lisa Brown, Terry Brown, Espinoza, Robert Jones, Kandrevas, Kowall, LeBlanc, Lori, Marleau, Mayes, Neumann, Polidori, Sheltroun, Spade, Stanley and Tlaib offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 256.

A resolution to declare April 19-April 26, 2010, as Conservation Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The House of Representatives has seen great value in the proper conservation of our natural resources with three previous annual celebrations of Conservation Week, taking the charge specifically provided to the Legislature in Article IV, Section 52 of the Constitution of the State of Michigan of 1963:

“The conservation and development of the natural resources of the state are hereby declared to be of paramount public concern in the interest of the health, safety and general welfare of the people. The legislature shall provide for the protection of the air, water and other natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment and destruction.”

; and

Whereas, The House of Representatives has celebrated land conservation, state parks, recycling, and our Great Lakes and other key environmental issues during the third week of April to center around the nation’s celebration of Earth Day on April 22nd; and

Whereas, The House of Representatives has seen fit to again celebrate Conservation Week with another week-long series of events designed to draw attention to the need to conserve our natural resources; and

Whereas, This year, the House of Representatives has chosen to focus its efforts on the recent enactment of the Michigan recreation passport and the need to continue to educate the public in the mission to protect our waters and lands from invasive species; and

Whereas, Funding for the Michigan State Parks systems has been inadequate to protect our parks and ensure they are open for public access, and whereas the threat of invasive species is the number one threat to Great Lakes ecosystems. The House of Representatives has been active in passing legislation both to protect Michigan’s parks and guard against invasive species, while also adopting the Great Lakes Basin’s most comprehensive ballast water regulation law and remains the regional leader in instituting aggressive penalties to help provide deterrents to further invasions of land and water invasives; and

Whereas, The House of Representatives has taken specific action on Asian Carp through House Resolutions requesting funding for electric barriers, while one of Michigan’s Representatives has joined in a lawsuit filed by the Michigan Attorney General to close the Chicago shipping canals, and another legislator has introduced legislation prohibiting the use of Asian Carp as bait; and

Whereas, There is an increasing need for coordinated regional action to bring together all Great Lakes states to stop the spread of invasive species, including new threats from land and water invasives that will impact Michigan’s water quality and in that quest the House of Representatives has helped support the founding of the Great Lakes Legislative Caucus; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 19-26, 2010, as Conservation Week in the state of Michigan. During this week, the House of Representatives will take measures to educate the public and create awareness for threats posed by invasives and bring awareness to the new recreation opportunities that await Michigan citizens with the implementation of the Michigan Recreation Passport legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor, the Director of the Department of Natural Resources and the Environment, the Senate Majority Leader, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
