26 definition provided in that act.

27 (ee) Representing that a product or package is degradable,

1 biodegradable, or photodegradable unless it can be substantiated by

4 after consumers use the product and dispose of the product or the 5 package in a landfill or composting facility, as appropriate.

6 (ff) Offering a consumer a prize if in order to claim the 27 cancel the sale.

1 (hh) Except as provided in subsection (3), requiring a
2 consumer to disclose his or her social security number as a

21 database. The consumer good or service shall still be provided to 22 the consumer upon verification of his or her identity if he or she 23 refuses to provide his or her social security number but provides 24 other information or documentation that can be used by the person
25 to verify his or her identity. The person may inform the consumer

27 security number may cause a delay in providing the service or good

1 to the consumer.

2 (ii) If a credit card or debit card is used for payment in a
3 consumer transaction, issuing or delivering a receipt to the 4 consumer that displays any part of the expiration date of the card

3 (ii) At least 1 member of the performing group was a member of 4 the recording group and has a legal right to use the recording
5 group's name, by virtue of use or operation under the recording 6 group's name without having abandoned the name or affiliation with 7 the recording group.

8 (iii) The live musical performance or production is identified 9 in all advertising and promotion as a salute or tribute and the 10 name of the vocal or instrumental group performing is not so 11 closely related or similar to that used by the recording group that 12 it would tend to confuse or mislead the public.

1 following:

2 (a) Providing a service related to the administration of 3 health-related or dental-related benefits or services to patients,
4 including provider contracting or credentialing. This subdivision
5 is intended to limit the application of subsection (1)(hh) and is
