Rev. Venice C. Douglas, of The Lutheran Church of Our Savior in Westland, offered the following invocation:

“O Lord God Almighty, You have called through the ballot box these Your servants to make the often hard decisions which help all the citizens of this state. We pray for Your wisdom and Your guidance as they engage one another in open insightful discussions regarding what is best for all districts and regions of the state.

Lord, we know that through You we can do great and marvelous things. Through You O Lord we know that Michigan can become a bright and shining light in this world of confusion throughout our great country.

Help us O Lord to serve You by serving one another. This we pray in the name of Your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Graves, Barnett, Brown, Durhal, Heise, Howrylak, Kelly, O’Brien and Roberts offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 300.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs to take a stronger role in investigating and eliminating delays in veterans’ health care.

Whereas, The men and women who serve our country deserve our utmost respect and appreciation. Many of them are injured in the line of duty and come home to face challenging physical disabilities and other health issues. These veterans need our continued support after they have left active service. All veterans are entitled to the best health care we can give them; and

Whereas, Several VA facilities have a backlog of patients waiting for colonoscopies or endoscopies, necessary procedures for diagnosing cancers of the colon and digestive tract. As many as 7,000 veterans have been on the backlog list, often waiting over a year while experiencing pain and other symptoms that could not be properly treated without proper diagnosis; and

Whereas, At least 19 veterans have died due to delays in commonly used medical screenings, such as colonoscopies. Although the backlog problem was uncovered as early as July of 2011, little progress has been made in increasing the numbers of veterans who receive the necessary medical procedures; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs to take a stronger role in investigating and eliminating delays in veterans’ health care; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs.

Reps. Abed and Knezek offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 301.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress and the President of the United States to enact legislation that would fund state Pay-It-Forward college financing pilot programs.

Whereas, A college education can expand opportunities for high-quality jobs and entry into the middle class. The nation’s economy benefits from a more highly educated and employed citizenry. However, investment in higher education has fallen significantly in the last 6 years as a result of the 2008 fiscal collapse, while at the same time college tuition rates have risen higher than the rate of inflation; and

Whereas, Financial aid programs are increasingly important to allow students access to college but are inadequate to accommodate all those in financial need. Students have been forced to borrow money at unprecedented rates, resulting in two-thirds of graduates leaving with an average of $26,600 to repay in student loans. Michigan college graduates who earned bachelor’s degrees in 2012 owed an average of nearly $29,000 in student loans. High student debt hurts graduates’ ability to become financially stable and has grave consequences for the future of the United States economy; and

Whereas, Our nation should encourage new approaches to financing college costs that will not overburden graduates with debt. The Pay It Forward College Affordability Act of 2013 would provide a new model for education finance by replacing traditional, interest-bearing loans with post-graduate contributions to repay the cost of college. Instead of paying for tuition based on the amount of money a student can access before they start college, under a Pay-It-Forward program, students would pay for their tuition based on the income generated by the education they obtained in college. Over time, the funds repaid would allow college access for future generations of students. The Pay-It-Forward concept is currently being considered and tested by the states of Oregon and Washington. Senator Merkley of Oregon has introduced a bill in Congress (S. 1884) to provide for pilot programs to test and encourage development of the Pay-It-Forward model. Oregon Representative Bonamici and Michigan Representative Dan Kildee have introduced a similar bill in the U.S. House of Representatives (H.R. 3959); now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize Congress and the President of the United States to enact legislation that would fund state Pay-It-Forward college financing pilot programs; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Education.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Cotter to the Chair.
