Pastor Russ Reemtsma of First Baptist Church of Clarkston offered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father, it is a great privilege to come to You today. We come humbly with our gratitude and petitions. You alone are the eternal one. Who is like unto You, O God? Before the mountains were brought forth or ever You had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God. Your counsel, O Lord, stands forever. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.

Each morning, O Lord, You reveal Your renewed mercy toward all. We count each day as a precious gift from Your hand. Now, Father, as the business of the state of Michigan begins in this great hall, may You give wisdom to each of those present. Thank You, Lord, for all who are about to enter into that business and for the work they have done in preparation for today's solemn obligations. May they be reminded of the far-reaching and lasting import of what is both debated and enacted.

Bless them with discernment that can only come from You. Give to each a spirit of civility and grace that transcends even the most heartfelt and sincere differences that would divide them. May the words that are spoken and the decisions that are made lead to the greatest good for every citizen of Michigan and even to those who live beyond our state lines. May all who are present today, as well as all citizens, remember the divine precept to love our neighbor as we love ourselves. May we always be reminded of the priceless value and dignity of every human being, with the firm conviction and resolve to carry forth that sacred obligation to defend and uphold the rights of all.

May all those who have the God-given responsibility to enact honorable and just laws continue to remember the One from whom all such authority is given. I pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

A resolution proclaiming March 23-29, 2014, as Michigan STEM Awareness Week.

Whereas, An education in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) is critical to our children's future and the continued growth and prosperity of Michigan; and

Whereas, We look to deliver a world-class education that will determine Michigan's success in the 21st century; and
Whereas, If Michigan students become inspired by science, technology, engineering, and mathematics at an early age, there is a greater likelihood they will want to enter those growing career fields when they graduate; and

Whereas, Increased awareness in our community of STEM education and STEM-related careers will advance Michigan's workforce; and

Whereas, STEM-related careers will be pivotal in the 21st century economy; and

Whereas, A STEM education will ensure our state's workforce will be better equipped for the jobs of tomorrow; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we hereby proclaim the week of March 23-29, 2014, as Michigan STEM Awareness Week. We call upon parents, educators, community organizations, businesses, governments, and the people of Michigan to observe the week with appropriate programs and activities.

Senators Bieda, Hopgood and Jones were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senators Pappageorge, Nofs, Proos, Hildenbrand, Marleau, Jansen, Anderson, Booher, Colbeck and Hansen offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 125.

A resolution commemorating March 2014 as Ethnic and Cultural Heritage Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The culture of the people of the state of Michigan has continually been renewed and enriched by the many different individuals who have chosen to come to Michigan, become citizens, and call this state their home; and

Whereas, Each individual brings with them a part of his or her own heritage which over time integrates into one common heritage, leading us to become a united people; and

Whereas, As unified people with one common heritage, we represent the past, present, and future traditions of our great state; and

Whereas, As united citizens, we celebrate Michigan's heritage with pride and great esteem; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we hereby proclaim March 2014 as Ethnic and Cultural Heritage Month in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Senators Smith and Hune offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 123.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to make any murder of a police officer or corrections officer while in the line of duty a federal offense.

Whereas, Michigan law enforcement and corrections officers are highly-trained and courageous individuals, often finding themselves in dangerous situations in order to enforce and maintain the laws of the state and to protect the residents of Michigan; and

Whereas, The killing of a federal law enforcement or corrections officer is a federal offense. However, the killing of a state law enforcement or corrections officer is only considered a federal offense if the officer was working with federal agents in furtherance of a federal investigation. In addition, certain circumstances can elevate a state crime to a federal crime; and

Whereas, There should be a consistent national policy to protect our law enforcement and corrections officers. Law enforcement is a necessary and vital function of our government at all levels. All U.S. citizens rely on federal and state law enforcement and corrections officers to keep us safe in our home states and all states throughout the nation. Creating a uniform penalty for the crime of taking the life of a law enforcement or corrections officer while on duty will underscore the importance of all peace officers nationwide; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to make any murder of a police officer or corrections officer while in the line of duty a federal offense; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The question being on concurring in the committee recommendation to give the bill immediate effect, The recommendation was concurred in, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Protest

Senator Colbeck, under his constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against the adoption of the first conference report on Senate Bill No. 608 and moved that the statement he made during the discussion of the conference report be printed as his reasons for voting “no.”

The motion prevailed.

Senator Colbeck’s statement is as follows:

I rise in opposition to this conference report for Senate Bill No. 608. This bill can be best described as the good, the bad, and the ugly. First, the good: $215 million in additional funds for roads. In addition to voting for the road funding amendment in Senate Bill No. 608 as part of the Senate Appropriations Committee, it is something that I have advocated throughout my tenure. In fact, ensuring that surplus revenue be devoted to fixing our roads is one of the near-term tenets of my road funding strategy. Furthermore, there is some good when it comes to additional funding for servicing our veterans.

Now for the bad and the ugly—Medicaid expansion. We are being called on to spend over $80 million to reap our Medicaid expansion savings. Now think about that for a second. We need to spend more money to save money; $80 million that could have also been put toward our roads. Now I should share the concerns that have been addressed about community mental health funding, but I should point out that there would have been adequate funding for these services if Medicaid expansion legislation would have not reset our fiscal year ’14 budget through these expenditures.

Furthermore, the three-month implementation delay cited as the reason for the shortfall should correspond to the need for additional funding in July, not April. Yet we are being told we are in the midst of a crisis that can’t wait until June to decide. Now why would June matter? Well, in June, we are supposed to find out the parameters for the real Medicaid expansion savings calculation. Why is this calculation important? Because imbedded within the Medicaid expansion bill, there was an automatic repeal provision if savings were not realized. Until that formula is nailed down, it is conceivable that the supplemental funds we are proposing to allocate under this bill could lower the bar for the realization of these so-called savings. I would prefer to wait until June to see what this formula looks like. The Medicaid expansion bill may actually repeal itself.

Lest we forget, my friends, Medicaid expansion is simply Section 2001 of the train wreck that we refer to as Obamacare. You may recall, I do not like this health care scam known as Obamacare. I am not alone. Most of America feels the same way. In fact, now that we have passed that bill so that we can find out what is in it, more and more people are finding out truly what a train wreck this bill actually is. The Affordable Care Act is not caring, and it is not affordable. It is, however, an act. Obamacare has never been about affordability or care. Obamacare is about control, not care. I will not rest until this abomination of a law is conveyed to the ash heap of history.

Now if the good features of this bill were plucked out and placed into another bill, I would readily vote in favor of such a bill. But, alas, my colleagues and I are not afforded this option. As for the bad and the ugly features of this bill, the policies driving the need for the rest of the spending in this bill should be repealed, not have more money thrown at them.

In the final analysis, the bad and the ugly outweigh the good in this bill before us. The long-term implications of Medicaid expansion far outweigh the short-term benefits of this bill. Therefore, I will be voting “no” on this bill and urge my colleagues to do likewise.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of
