Sec. 2. The conveyance authorized by section 1 shall provide for all of the following:

(a) That the property must be used exclusively for public recreation purposes and if any fee, term, or condition for the use of the property is imposed on members of the public, or if any of those fees, terms, or conditions are waived for use of the property, resident and nonresident members of the public will be subject to the same fees, terms, conditions, and waivers.

(b) That on termination of the use described in subdivision (a) or use for any other purpose, this state may reenter and repossess the property, terminating the grantee's estate in the property.

(c) That if the grantee disputes this state's exercise of its right of reentry and fails to promptly deliver possession of the property to this state, the attorney general, on behalf of this state, may bring an action to quiet title to, and regain possession of, the property.

Sec. 3. (1) The department of natural resources shall deposit the revenue received from the conveyance under section 1 in the natural resources trust fund.

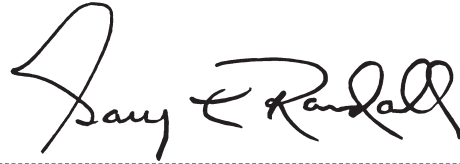

(2) The department of natural resources shall convey the property as authorized by section 1 by quitclaim deed approved by the attorney general.

(3) The department of natural resources shall retain to this state the mineral rights to the property conveyed under section 1.

(4) The department of natural resources may retain to this state rights to continue fishery management activities on the property conveyed under section 1 for as long as this state considers it necessary to continue the activities.

(5) The conveyance under section 1 will nullify the existing lease between the parties.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
