Pastor Billy Bartlett, Pastor of Wyldewood Baptist Church in Lambertville, offered the following invocation:

“Our great and gracious Guardian of Human History, we concede Thou art in control and art the architect of earth’s course and consummation. This morning, we humbly approach Thy Throne as we are invited to do. We petition Thy touch upon this session of Thy servants asking for compassion, wisdom, and direction.

Heavenly Father, in around 60 AD, Thou moved on the primary articulator of ‘the faith’ of most of western civilization to record Heaven’s position on human government. In Romans, Chapter 13, the great apostle to the gentiles laid out the obligations of both the governed and the governors.

First, Lord, we understand we, the governed, are to be ‘subject’ to the higher powers or implaced officials. We the citizenry are enjoined by Paul not to rebel or resist that power. The reason, the government officials are ‘ordained’; that is, put in their positions or empowered by God himself and are uniquely His ministers. Those that resist, riot, or in any way reapture the system, according to Scripture, invite the revenge of government and the wrath of the Great Originator. An enlightened God-like society must have rules set by Heaven and executed by His ministers.

Then, the governors are instructed. They are challenged to produce ‘good works’ and regard themselves as answerable to The Almighty who inhabits eternity. Lord, You instructed Your apostle to inform the governors they are empowered to exact revenge and execute wrath on evil doers when it is appropriate. They are to reward ‘good behavior’ and punish or ‘bear the sword’. Lord, help those who are governing to realize they are first Thy ministers, not Republicans, Democrats, Independents, or representatives of special interests. Help them always, in every decision, to consider Thy will and Word, as well as the Son’s outpourings in The New Testament, while fulfilling their civic duties. A Pure Michigan blessed by a Holy hand is our fervent desire.

*It is in the name of the Savior we advance these petitions.
Amen.”*

Rep. Nesbitt moved that Rep. Muxlow be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Chang, Garrett, Lucido, Howrylak, Neeley, Wittenberg, Hoadley, Love, Irwin, Sarah Roberts, Driskell, Greig, Hovey-Wright, Kelly, LaVoy and Singh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 161.

A resolution to declare October 2, 2015, as Wrongful Conviction Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Wrongful Conviction Day is an annual event that highlights the need to prevent and remedy wrongful convictions around the world. On October 2 each year, innocence groups from around the world undertake activities to raise awareness about wrongful convictions worldwide. Innocence groups headquartered around the world are committed to identifying, advocating for, and exonerating individuals who have been convicted of a serious crime which they did not commit, and to preventing future wrongful convictions through awareness, education and justice system reform; and

Whereas, In the United States alone, there were 125 recorded exonerations in 2014. Since 1989, there have been 1577 recorded exonerations in the United States. Thus far in 2015, there have been in excess of 29 recorded exonerations in the United States. Nationwide, the average exoneree serves thirteen years in prison before exoneration. Thirty states, the federal government, and the District of Columbia have recognized the obligation to compensate wrongfully convicted people for the years stolen from their lives by failures of the criminal justice system; and

Whereas, According to the National Registry of Exonerations, there have been 56 people wrongfully convicted and exonerated in Michigan since 1990. Michigan has averaged two exonerations per year. Unlike parolees, exonerees in Michigan are given no services to help with re-integration into society; and

Whereas, Wrongful Conviction Day is a specifically allocated annual day to focus attention on and discuss the problem of wrongful convictions around the world. The conviction of innocent people is an international human rights issue; and

Whereas, Awareness can be raised in any number of ways, including through media releases, interviews, educational forums, church services, exoneree presentations and involvement, commemoration services, vigils, book signings, film festivals, blogs, Facebook, websites, Twitter, magazines. Frank and open discussions about the causes of wrongful convictions will lead to positive change in our criminal justice systems and help reduce future wrongful convictions; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 2, 2015, as Wrongful Conviction Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Chang moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

House Resolution No. 162.

A resolution to declare October 2015 as Breast Cancer Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, October has long been recognized across America as Breast Cancer Awareness Month in an effort to raise public awareness about the importance of early detection; and

Whereas, In 2015, it was estimated that among U.S. women, there will be 231,840 new cases of invasive breast cancer and 60,290 new cases of in situ breast cancer along with 40,290 breast cancer deaths; and

Whereas, In 2011, 7,329 women in Michigan were newly diagnosed with invasive breast cancer and 1,426 women died of the disease; and

Whereas, The five year survival rate among women whose breast cancer has not spread beyond the breast at the time of diagnosis is 99 percent; and

House Resolution No. 164.

A resolution to express the sense of this legislative body that the state of Michigan should continue its efforts to further reduce the rate of teen pregnancy by promoting programs with proven results.

Whereas, Teen pregnancy is a problem that crosses all racial, cultural and socio-economic lines. It is closely related to infant health concerns including premature birth and low birth rates as well as critical social issues, such as poverty, education attainment, and involvement in the child welfare system and the criminal justice system. Parenthood is the leading reason for teen girls dropping out of school, causing more than 50 percent of teen mothers in the United States to never graduate from high school; and

Whereas, Despite progress in reducing teen pregnancy rates in Michigan, teen pregnancy continues to impact the physical, educational, social, and economic well-being of our citizens, communities, and state; and

Whereas, Teen pregnancy impacts the Michigan economy and costs Michigan taxpayers. All of us play an integral role in preventing teen pregnancy in our respective communities. The efforts to prevent teen pregnancies will collectively contribute to decreasing state taxpayer expenses related to teen pregnancies and teen births; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That it is the sense of this legislative body that the state of Michigan should continue its efforts to reduce the rates of teen pregnancies and births, especially in communities where teen pregnancy rates remain high; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the sense of this legislative body that the state of Michigan should raise awareness about the importance of this critical issue by promoting parent-child communication and investing in programs that have been proven to reduce teen pregnancy.
