Rev. Nathaniel Moody, Pastor of Brown Hutcherson Ministries in Grand Rapids, offered the following invocation:

“Dear God in heaven we thank You for this day that You have given each and everyone of us. We pray for all of our state representatives, our Congressmen and women, our Senators and our governor. We ask for Your grace and mercy on each and everyone of them as they help make legislation and our government work on behalf of the people of the state of Michigan. It is by Your grace that we are here today. And we ask for Your peace, love and kindness on our country, our state of Michigan. This is the prayer submitted to You this day. Have mercy upon us and bless us amen.”

The Speaker Pro Tempore assumed the Chair.

Rep. Singh moved that Rep. Kivela be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. LaVoy, Byrd, Sheppard, Hughes, Hovey-Wright, Kivela, Dianda, Faris, Geiss, Hoadley, Howrylak, Irwin, Pagan, Sarah Roberts and Singh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 185.

A resolution to declare November 10, 2015, as Great Lakes Sailors Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Throughout the annals of Great Lakes history, which have spanned hundreds of years, there is but one Great Lakes State; and

Whereas, Michigan has more coastline than any other state within our continental boundaries and embodies a freshwater legacy that is defined by its people, waterways, and ports; and

Whereas, The Great Lakes maritime trade is more than a mode of transportation but rather a way of life which provides the iron ore that has fueled steel production in war and peace, the coal that generates limitless electrical power, the aggregate which lies beneath our feet, and the grains on our kitchen tables. Nowhere else in the maritime world do the cargoes carried by ships reach so far beyond the threshold of one’s household; and

Whereas, While reliant upon many assets this industry, above all else, depends on sea-faring men and women who, at all hours and in all conditions, stand watch to ensure that vessels of American enterprise and sustainability navigate vast waters safely and efficiently for the good of all. Yet, this is not accomplished without risk and in many cases peril as even the finest vessels have succumbed to unparalleled natural forces; and

Whereas, The Great Lakes have more shipwrecks per square mile than anywhere else on earth and in turn serve as the solemn grave for thousands of lakes sailors. Most notable on this day, November 10, is the untimely loss of the once “Queen of the Lakes,” S.S. Edmund Fitzgerald and her 29 crewmembers. Their struggle with wind and waves would result in an inexplicable journey to a watery grave which they now share with all those who had been lost before them; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 10, 2015, as Great Lakes Sailors Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan. We dedicate this day to those who have sailed and continue to ply the waters of our vast inland seas for the Great Lakes have and will continue to serve as the lifeblood of natural resources to our state and nation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Rep. Nesbitt moved that Rule 71 be suspended.
The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

Reps. Howrylak, LaVoy and Pagan offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 186.

A resolution to declare November 28, 2015, as Holodomor Memorial Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Millions of Ukrainians perished as a result of the Ukrainian Famine and Genocide (Holodomor) of 1932-33; and
Whereas, The term “Holodomor” is a Ukrainian word that means “extermination by means of starvation”; and

Whereas, It is recognized that the Soviet authorities denied, concealed, or destroyed information about the Holodomor and that accurate information about this tragic event has only recently been made available; and

Whereas, The Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE), the largest regional security organization in the world, passed a resolution that welcomes the recognition of the Holodomor in the United Nations, by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and by the national parliaments of a number of the OSCE participating states; and

Whereas, The OSCE strongly encourages all parliaments and legislatures to adopt acts regarding recognition of the Holodomor; and

Whereas, Some of the survivors of the Holodomor and their descendants reside in Michigan and have contributed to Michigan’s cultural, economic, political, and educational life; and

Whereas, The people of Michigan value democratic freedoms, human rights, and the rule of law, honor the values of compassion and honesty, and cherish the multicultural vibrancy of the state; and

Whereas, The 4th Saturday in November has been recognized internationally as a day to commemorate the Holodomor; and

Whereas, 2015 marks the 82nd anniversary of the Holodomor; and

Whereas, It is important and fitting to observe Holodomor Memorial Day for the purposes of recognizing the Holodomor and of reflecting on the horrific legacy of this event; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 28, 2015, as Holodomor Memorial Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Howrylak, Faris, Geiss, Hoadley, Hovey-Wright, Irwin, LaVoy and Pagan offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 187.

A resolution to declare November 15, 2015, as America Recycles Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan recognizes the importance of recycling as a way to protect natural resources, promote environmental stewardship, and improve the quality of life for Michigan’s citizens; and

Whereas, Ensuring that all Michigan residents and businesses have access to recycling opportunities, educating residents on how and why to recycle, and fostering recycling market development will enable sustainable materials management and transformation of currently wasted resources into valuable commodities; and

Whereas, Recycling paper, metal, glass, plastic, wood, textiles, yard waste, and food scraps is one of the most cost-effective strategies for communities and businesses to conserve energy, protect the environment, reduce waste, and strengthen the local economy; and

Whereas, Participating in America Recycles Day 2015 is one way businesses and citizens can help raise awareness about the need to reduce waste through sustainable materials management by reusing, recycling, composting, and buying recycled-content products; and

Whereas, Michigan leaders can use this as an opportunity to spread the word about Michigan’s successful recycling programs, the growth of markets for recycled materials, and the importance of working to expand recycling opportunities to more businesses and communities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 15, 2015, as America Recycles Week in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Brinks, VerHeulen, Kelly, Hoadley, Schor, Moss, Greig, Faris, Sarah Roberts, McBroom, Garcia, Graves, Rendon, Durhal, Guerra, Singh, Kivela, Cole, Jenkins, Vaupel, Canfield, Lyons, Glenn, Forlini, Bumstead, LaFontaine, Pscholka, Theis, Tedder, Somerville, Hughes, Hooker, Muxlow, Bizon, Howrylak, Kosowski, Glardon, Inman, Goike, Victory, Iden, Potvin, McCready, Runestad, Leutheuser, Lane, Lucido, Love, Afendoulis, Webber, Cox, Chatfield, Crawford, Jacobsen, Kesto, Barrett, Brett Roberts, Pagel, Aaron Miller, Santana, Heise, Maturen, Nesbitt, Rutledge, Chang, Talabi, Brunner, Smiley, Neeley, Plawecki, Byrd, Darany, Banks, Pagan, Irwin, Clemente, Dianda, Hovey-Wright, Price, Wittenberg, Lauwers and LaVoy offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 188.

A resolution to declare November 16, 2015, as Dutch-American Heritage Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On November 16, 1776, the batteries at the Dutch port of St. Eustatius fired the first salute to the flag of the newly independent United States; and

Whereas, The firing by the Dutch of the first salute to the flag of the United States uplifted the morale and determination of the individuals who were fighting for American independence; and

Whereas, Commemoration of Dutch-American Heritage Day promotes awareness by the people of the United States of the essential role performed by the Dutch people in securing American independence and in aiding the development of the United States for the past 215 years; and

Whereas, The diplomatic ties between the governments of the United States and the Netherlands are the longest continuous ties between the United States and any country of the world; and

Whereas, Commemoration of Dutch-American Heritage Day provides an opportunity for approximately 4,500,000 Dutch Americans to celebrate their Dutch roots and the extraordinary contributions their ancestors made to the political, economic, and cultural development of the United States; and

Whereas, The heritage of this friendship between these people serves as a laudable example for the kinds of relations that should link all the peoples of the earth and should be properly extolled; and

Whereas, The Midwest region is home to over one million Americans of Dutch ancestry and the state of Michigan is honored to be the home to over a half million of those citizens. The significant size of the Dutch descendant population makes it very special from an ethnic and cultural point. So significant is the Dutch influence in Michigan that a large number of cities in Western Michigan were founded and named by Dutch immigrants; and

Whereas, So important is the relationship with the Netherlands, that the Michigan Legislature has formed a bi-partisan Legislative Dutch Caucus. Its members actively support economic and culture engagement with the Kingdom of the Netherlands; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 16, 2015, as Dutch-American Heritage Day in the state of Michigan. We commemorate the historic ties between the United States and the Netherlands.
