Pastor Kerby Fannin of Word of Promise Church of Addison offered the following invocation:

Dear heavenly Father, Yahweh, we thank You for this day, knowing that it belongs to You. We thank You for Your blessings, for Your provision, and for Your protection. We know that all things, including this state and this government, also belong to You. As You so clearly revealed through the prophet Daniel, Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your dominion is from generation to generation. It is You who rules in the kingdom of men, and You give it to whomever You will.

You have given great responsibility to each man and woman in this Senate Chamber to govern on Your behalf for the people of this great state of Michigan. You promise blessings to those who listen to Your voice and curses upon those who refuse to hear Your word.

We ask You to forgive us for our sins, including our unforgiveness of others who remain in our hearts, which keeps us from calling upon You and prevents us from hearing Your voice. You tell us that a man's heart devises his way, but You direct his steps.

Now we pray for Your blessing upon each person in this chamber, and pray that each Senator will seek Your wisdom, guidance, and direction in every decision that they make.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus, Yahshua. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senate Resolution No. 186.

A resolution to memorialize the United States Congress to continue support for the 340B Drug Pricing Program.

Whereas, Since its enactment in 1992, the 340B Drug Pricing Program has provided necessary support to Michigan hospitals delivering medical services to vulnerable populations. The program provides financial relief from high prescription costs to these safety-net hospitals; and

Whereas, While the 340B program represents only 2 percent of approximately $375 billion in annual prescription drug purchases in the United States, it has critical benefits for patients and communities. The program has reaped an invaluable and life-saving return on its investment; and

Whereas, The 340B Drug Program has become a target by critics in the pharmaceutical industry. Some have suggested that scaling back the program would save costs by reducing the number of eligible hospitals and the types of patients that can be served under the program; and

Whereas, Michigan hospitals, patients, and communities depend on the 340B program. Any effort to reduce support or to scale back this program could considerably harm vulnerable patients in communities throughout this state. It is vital in the effort to help Michigan hospitals stretch scarce resources to improve access to care; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we memorialize the United States Congress to continue support for the 340B Drug Pricing Program; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The Senate was called to order by the Assistant President pro tempore, Senator O'Brien.

Statements

Senator Colbeck asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Colbeck's statement is as follows:

This past week, there was a common theme expressed in the Memorial Day parades and services by those who have served our country. What was that theme? Anxiety. What are they anxious about? In a word, they are anxious about America.

This anxiety was expressed by several veterans over the past week, but one of the most emotional expressions was by Pops, a World War II veteran I met at the Northville Memorial Service. Pops took me by the hand, looked me straight in the eye, and, almost pleadingly, asked me to work hard to restore the morals and values that made America truly exceptional. It was a powerful message as he stood in uniform amid the graves of fallen soldiers at the Northville Rural Hill Cemetery.

The encounter reminded me of a scene in the movie "Saving Private Ryan." It was the scene near the end of the movie where Captain Miller, in his dying breath, says to Private Ryan, "Earn this." It is clear to these veterans as watchmen on the wall that we are in a battle for the soul of our nation. Not everyone sees it, but they do. It is a battle of good versus evil. It is a battle not of munitions, but rather one of words and of principles and values. It is a battle for all the remaining good in a nation that is increasingly turning its back on God.

Unfortunately, too many of us are oblivious to this battle. Some choose to ignore it or dismiss it as partisan bickering. Some clam up because they fear being labeled a racist or a bigot by people who seek to shut down discussion to push their agendas. Some people choose to focus on the battle in D.C. They believe that it is our choice of the next President that will determine who wins the battle.

That focus ignores the true nature, true scope, and true breadth of this battle. It is not limited to D.C. The battle is right here in Michigan, right now. It is in our schools, in our churches, and in our workplaces. It is in our town halls and the halls and chambers of this Capitol. We cannot afford to neglect the home front.

It is in this spirit that I would like to reflect once again on the movie "Saving Private Ryan." Several years ago, my wife and I had the good fortune to visit the Normandy American Cemetery and Memorial near St. Laurent, France, that was featured in the movie. The cemetery, full of white marble crosses and Jewish stars in perfect alignment, rests on a hill that overlooks Omaha Beach. It is a very humbling and awe-inspiring environment.

The final scene of the movie takes place in this environment. In this scene, an elderly Private Ryan is seen staring at the white marble cross of Captain Miller. Full of tears before this cross, he says, "I hope that at least in your eyes, I've earned what all of you have done for me." This is where Hollywood got it wrong, as it tends to nowadays.

It is not our veterans who need to earn this. Many of them have already given their last measure. It is you and I who need to earn this. We can no longer afford to be silent in this battle for the soul of our nation. We can no longer stand silent as our enemy calls evil good and good evil. We need to rededicate ourselves to the beliefs found within our Declaration of Independence that gave birth to this nation of the people, by the people, and for the people. We need to rededicate ourselves to the principles of limited government found in our Constitution and to the principle that the government works for We the People, not the other way around.

We have been blessed with the immeasurable gift of freedom. Many of us have been born into this blessing. We cannot take this blessing for granted. It is time each of us wakes up and speaks out boldly against the fundamental transformation of America. It is time for each of us to earn this.
