A joint resolution proposing an amendment to the state constitution of 1963, by amending section 9 of article II, to clarify the power of referendum when making appropriations.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the state of Michigan, That the following amendment to the state constitution of 1963, to clarify the power of referendum when making appropriations, is proposed, agreed to, and submitted to the people of the state:

ARTICLE II

Sec. 9. The people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and to enact and reject laws, called the initiative, and the power to approve or reject laws enacted by the legislature, called the referendum. The power of initiative extends only to laws which the legislature may enact under this constitution. The power of referendum does not extend to acts making appropriations for state

1 institutions or ACTS to meet deficiencies in state funds and must 2 be invoked in the manner prescribed by law within 90 days following
3 the final adjournment of the legislative session at which the law
4 was enacted. To invoke the initiative or referendum, petitions
5 signed by a number of registered electors, not less than eight
6 percent for initiative and five percent for referendum of the total 7 vote cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding 8 general election at which a governor was elected shall be required.

9 AS USED IN THIS SECTION, "ACTS MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR STATE
10 INSTITUTIONS" MEANS A GENERAL APPROPRIATION ACT THAT PRIMARILY 11 FUNDS THE CORE FUNCTIONS OF ONE OR MORE STATE DEPARTMENTS. ACTS
12 MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR STATE INSTITUTIONS DO NOT INCLUDE AN 13 ACT CONTAINING ANY SUBSTANTIVE LAW. AS USED IN THIS SECTION, "ACTS 14 TO MEET DEFICIENCIES IN STATE FUNDS" MEANS A GENERAL OR 15 SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATION ACT THAT PRIMARILY REDUCES EXPENDITURES
16 IN ONE OR MORE STATE DEPARTMENTS.

17 No law as to which the power of referendum properly has been 18 invoked shall be effective thereafter unless approved by a majority 19 of the electors voting thereon at the next general election.

20 Any law proposed by initiative petition shall be either
21 enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment 22 within 40 session days from the time such petition is received by 23 the legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be 24 enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as 25 hereinafter provided.

26 If the law so proposed is not enacted by the legislature 27 within the 40 days, the state officer authorized by law shall

1 submit such proposed law to the people for approval or rejection at 2 the next general election. The legislature may reject any measure
3 so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different measure
4 upon the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll 5 calls, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by such 6 state officer to the electors for approval or rejection at the next 7 general election.

8 Any law submitted to the people by either initiative or 9 referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast 10 thereon at any election shall take effect 10 days after the date of 11 the official declaration of the vote. No law initiated or adopted 12 by the people shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, 13 and no law adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative 14 provisions of this section shall be amended or repealed, except by 15 a vote of the electors unless otherwise provided in the initiative
16 measure or by three-fourths of the members elected to and serving 17 in each house of the legislature. Laws approved by the people under 18 the referendum provision of this section may be amended by the 19 legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If two or more 20 measures approved by the electors at the same election conflict, 21 that receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

22 The legislature shall implement the provisions of this 23 section.

24 Resolved further, That the foregoing amendment shall be 25 submitted to the people of the state at the next general election
26 in the manner provided by law.
