Secretary of the Senate

Jeffrey Fetzer Cobb, Secretary of the Senate
Adam W. Reames, Assistant Secretary of the Senate

The Secretary of the Senate is elected by the Senate as a statutory officer at the beginning of the 4-year Senate term. The Secretary's most visible role is the work on the podium during session — reading in bills, recording votes, serving as a parliamentary adviser, and, occasionally, presiding in the absence of designated presiding officers. The Secretary also has many statutory record-keeping responsibilities such as the “care and preservation” of bills and Senate records, including the recording and validating of official Senate actions; the enrolling of bills; the preparation of the journal of each day's proceedings; and the dissemination of bills, resolutions, and amendments to Senators. In addition, the Secretary is responsible for management of the Senate's media services and security. The Secretary also serves on the Michigan Capitol Commission which governs the Michigan State Capitol Historic Site, maintains and restores the State Capitol Building, and maintains and improves the grounds of the site. The Secretary of the Senate's office is located in Room S-5, State Capitol, Lansing, MI 48933. Phone: (517) 373-2400.

Senate Fiscal Agency

Ellen Jeffries, Director

The Senate Fiscal Agency is a nonpartisan legislative agency that was formed by state statute to provide assistance through research and analysis to the Michigan Senate. The staff provides technical, analytical, and preparatory support for all appropriations and retirement bills. The agency also prepares an objective written analysis of all bills and administrative rules under consideration by the Senate.

Fiscal analysts of the Senate Fiscal Agency review and evaluate state programs, proposed policies, proposed rules, budgetary requests, and the fiscal impact of all bills before the Senate. The fiscal analysts serve as the primary staff to the Senate Appropriations Committee and the Subcommittees of the Senate Appropriations Committee. The agency also provides economic and revenue analysis and forecasting, analyzes the impact of federal budget decisions on the state, tracks state and national economic conditions, and monitors the state's compliance with constitutional and statutory fiscal requirements. The agency's economic and revenue forecasts are used as the official Senate forecasts at the Consensus Revenue Estimating Conference.

Legislative analysts of the Senate Fiscal Agency are responsible for providing objective bill analysis for all bills considered by Senate standing committees, other than the Senate Appropriations Committee. Legislative analysts prepare summaries of bills in committee, and bills reported from committee, to provide a straightforward explanation of the changes a bill would make to present law. Once a bill is reported from committee, the analyst also may prepare a detailed analysis describing the reason for the bill's introduction, the changes the bill would make in present law, supporting and opposing arguments, and fiscal implications. Analyses are updated as bills are amended throughout the legislative process.

The Senate Fiscal Agency is located in the Victor Center, 8th Floor, 201 N. Washington Square, Lansing, MI 48933. Phone: (517) 373-2768. Reports and publications of the Senate Fiscal Agency can be found on the agency's website at www.senate.michigan.gov/sfa.

Fiscal Analysts assist legislators with developing the state budget; review and prepare budget and supplemental appropriations bills and certain transfer requests; provide fiscal impact statements on proposed legislation; monitor, research, and analyze fiscal issues; and prepare reports and documents to assist legislative deliberations. Economists analyze legislation related to tax and lottery issues, monitor state revenue, track state and national economic conditions, and prepare reports on revenue and other economic issues. Legislative Analysts prepare nonpartisan summaries and analyses of bills. The Agency Director, by statute, is one of three state officials charged with forecasting state revenues at Consensus Revenue Estimating Conferences.

Reports and publications prepared by the House Fiscal Agency are available on the agency's website (www.house.mi.gov/hfa); bill summaries and analyses are available on the Michigan Legislative Information System website (www.legislature.mi.gov).
