Rev. Dr. Jill Hardt Zundel, Senior Pastor of Central United Methodist Church in Detroit, offered the following invocation:

“God of many names, unite us as one we pray this day. We are thankful that You join us each day to do the work You have called us to do. We are thankful that You are a God of peace and justice. You are a God that longs for the day when all of Your people will find equal opportunity in this world.

We pray that You will challenge each one of us gathered here this day, to unite our hearts and our minds, to help us set aside our agendas and look for the common good for all. Help us to reach across the aisle and work for solutions allowing compromise when necessary, to get the job done. Each person in this room is here because we believe that we can make a difference, that we can fight for change, that at the end of the day, justice will roll like a river and righteousness like an ever flowing stream.

We have been called to do works of service for such a time as this. Empower us to do so. Give us the holy boldness we need to change the systems that oppress and to right the wrongs in our country so that all may be given a chance in our world.

God, fill this place with Your Spirit, with Your grace and Your understanding. Guide this place to do works of justice and peace. We give You praise for what You will accomplish in and through each one of us. We pray this in the name of the One Who is greater than all of us. Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Sneller, Moss, Brinks, Ellison, Zemke, Liberati, Elder, LaGrand, Rabhi, Faris, Cochran, Neeley, Phelps, Chang, Greimel, Sabo, Hammoud, Lasinski, Cambensy, Greig, Camilleri, Chirkun, Howell, Yanez, Geiss, Guerra, Yancey, Gay-Dagnogo, Wittenberg, Durhal, Hoadley, Pagan, Garrett, Love, Byrd, Hertel, Frederick, Sowerby, Green, Robinson, Dianda, Peterson, Santana, Jones and Howrylak offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 246.

A resolution to declare February 11, 2018, as White Shirt Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, We recognize Michigan's members of the United Auto Workers (UAW) as they gather to mark the 81st anniversary of their first contract with General Motors. This anniversary is a reflection of extreme sacrifice, commitment, and determination of those first UAW members who paved the way for higher pay and improved benefits that have created a positive atmosphere for all of America's working men and women. We remember those historic members on this anniversary; and

Whereas, On February 11, 2018, UAW members and retirees will wear white shirts to commemorate the anniversary of the end of the famous Flint Sit-Down Strike in 1937. While the members of this distinguished organization celebrate the 81st anniversary of this event, we offer our thanks for the outstanding contributions they have made to the Flint community, our state, and our nation; and

Whereas, The origin of the UAW's White Shirt Day can be traced back to 1948 when Bert Christensen, a member of Local 598, first suggested it. His idea was to ask that workers wear the white shirts traditionally worn by managers to show the company that they were equally important to the business. The shirts represent equal respect and treatment for blue-collar workers and the unity and strength of UAW members; and

Whereas, With ceremonies to celebrate its history, the members and officers of the UAW will remember the vision of its founders and the commitment of its workers that have brought them to this point. Fittingly, as they look to the past, they will also be casting an eye to the future and to the many ways in which United Auto Workers will continue to serve the working men and women of this great country; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives That the members of this legislative body declare February 11, 2018, as White Shirt Day in the state of Michigan. We commemorate the 81st anniversary of the first United Auto Workers contract with General Motors and commend everyone who has contributed to the UAW's success. We applaud their accomplishments and thank them for helping to strengthen and build Michigan's communities, workforce, and economy.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
