Pastor Skip Meyer of Ballard Church of Christ of Sparta offered the following invocation:

Our Father Who is in heaven, we come to You this morning to lift up in prayer, this great body of people that You have established to govern over us.

We ask that You would give them grace and wisdom in the decisions they will make. We ask that You would give them courage to do what they know they must. And when decisions are made and actions are taken, we ask that You give them peace.

We ask that You would watch over them as they travel and go about their day-to-day business. And finally, we ask that You would bless and protect each and every one of them and their families throughout this term.

We ask these things in Jesus' name. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Messages from the Governor

The following message from the Governor was received on December 4, 2018, and read:

EXECUTIVE ORDER
No. 2018-12

Autism Council
Michigan Department of Health and Human Services

Amendment to Executive Order 2012-11

WHEREAS, Section 1 of Article V of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 vests the executive power of the state of Michigan in the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Section 2 of Article V of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 empowers the Governor to make changes in the organization of the Executive Branch or in the assignment of functions among its units that he considers necessary for efficient administration; and

WHEREAS, the state of Michigan recognizes that the goals of maximizing the potential for children and adults with autism spectrum disorders are the same as those for other children and adults: personal independence and social responsibility; and

WHEREAS, it is important that the state of Michigan encourage early identification of children with autism spectrum disorders to provide early intervention services for children to achieve optimal participation in their home, school, and community; and

WHEREAS, effective coordination of federal, state, and local resources is needed to provide screening, diagnosis, early intensive behavior intervention, and evidence-based treatment for children and adults with autism spectrum disorders to assist all individuals with autism spectrum disorders to reach their fullest potential; and

WHEREAS, continuation of the Autism Council, created by Executive Order 2012-11, with expanded membership and within the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, will advise and assist in the development of a statewide comprehensive, coordinated, multidisciplinary, interagency system; and provide implementation, monitoring, and updating of the Michigan Autism Spectrum Disorders State Plan to ensure that the key recommendations in the document become reality for individuals with autism spectrum disorders and their families throughout Michigan;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brian Calley, Governor of the state of Michigan, by virtue of the power and authority vested in the Governor by the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, order the following:

I. AMENDMENT OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 2012-11

Section I of Executive Order 2012-11 is amended to provide as follows:

A. "Council" means the Autism Council created by Executive Order 2012-11 housed within the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services.

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of Resolutions

Senator Kowall moved that consideration of the following resolutions be postponed for today:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10

Senate Resolution No. 105

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 20*Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21*Senate Resolution No. 153*Senate Resolution No. 149*Senate Resolution No. 115*Senate Resolution No. 132*Senate Resolution No. 179*Senate Resolution No. 180

The motion prevailed.

Senator Meekhof offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 200.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Marty Knollenberg.

Whereas, It is a pleasure for the members of this legislative body to extend our appreciation to Senator Marty Knollenberg for his tremendous work. He ably served the Senate, his residents in southeastern Oakland County in the Thirteenth District, and the entire state; and

Whereas, Marty Knollenberg received a bachelor's degree from Albion College and has been a small business owner for over 25 years. His public service includes time as an Oakland County commissioner and three terms of office in the House of Representatives. Also active in the community, he has volunteered with the Kiwanis Club of Troy and the Deaf Community Action Network Board, among other area organizations; and

Whereas, In his four years of service in this chamber beginning in 2015, Senator Knollenberg has worked toward the betterment of the state. His leadership was illustrated as chair of the Licensing and Regulatory Affairs Appropriations Subcommittee and vice chair of the Education Committee. He also served on the Corrections and Transportation Appropriations subcommittees and was a member of the Finance and Regulatory Reform committees. He contributed to a variety of policy matters, including legislation to limit the number of opioid prescriptions in this state and to increase access to handicapped parking permits; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Marty Knollenberg for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Senator Knollenberg as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted by a unanimous standing vote of the Senate.

Senator Kowall moved that rule 3.204 be suspended to name the entire membership of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor as co-sponsors of the resolution.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Knollenberg asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Knollenberg's statement is as follows:

I'd like to start by sharing a story. It is a personal story. It is a story about my parents and my family. My dad grew up on a farm in Central Illinois. He had 12 other siblings. Other than a close bond with family and a strong work ethic, my dad was really on his own and yet, became successful. My mom grew up in Allen Park, Michigan. She had an alcoholic father, but fortunately was close to her mother and older sister. She, too, was pretty much on her own, and realized at an early age that when she married her husband, he was going to be special—loving to her and to my brother and I. And he was. She is also a success in her own right. My parents were very involved in the community. While the list is endless—PTA, church, homeowner boards, non-profit organizations, local chambers, coach, supporting local political candidates are just a few. And then, at the age of 59 years old, my dad became a Congressman and served for 16 years in that role. In addition, I have a brother who came out of the closet over 25 years ago and I am really proud of him and his success as a high-end interior designer. I say all this because my family isn't much different than a lot of other families. What is different is the example that my parents set for my brother and I and the importance of service to our community and public service.

They led by example, and I remember them telling me "actions speak louder than words," something that I think is lacking in today's society. I am thankful and grateful to them and am proud of their legacy.

Imagine being born hard of hearing. Imagine not speaking well, not having much of a vocabulary, and not being social in a verbal way. Imagine wearing a bulky hearing aid in the mid-1960s at three and a half years of age. Imagine being bussed to a neighboring school district, away from friends, for special education services at the age of four. Now imagine if this was your child. Imagine wondering how your deaf child in the 1960s was ever going to make it. This was my parents' child. I was that child. Aren't I blessed? Never in my parents' or in my wildest dreams, did they, or did I, think I would be a State Senator.

It is an awesome opportunity to serve and I am thankful, and it goes to show you that anything is possible. I have, however, asked myself, "Why run for public office?" and "Why make these sacrifices when it can often times be frustrating, especially in today's world of politics?" I ask these questions not because I doubt myself, but rather to make sure that I'm doing it for the right reasons and to remind myself of the real purpose of my work in the Senate. I ask these questions to my wife as well for the same reasons, and while she is obviously biased, she is also a fair barometer of judgement. Being honest with ourselves is what keeps us grounded. Her answer and my answer is always the same: to serve, to make a difference, to represent the community, and to provide hope to those who need it.

It is easy to get lost and lose sight of what our role as public servants is and these questions, I believe, are important in understanding what our role as an elected member of the Michigan Senate really is. I believe that I have served for the right reasons and my role was never meant to be a permanent thing. That was the intent of our Founding Fathers. Elections, term limits, and redistricting are responsible for that. Because our work is a part of our Senate's history and while future legislators may change what we have done, our work has mattered in these chambers, given the precedent that we have set. I am simply the connector and I view my job as an ambassador for my communities and my constituents.

There are a number of people that I want to thank and, sorry Senators, the important people are first. Obviously my wife, Lori, who is standing up there, my parents—my mom is up there—and my family. You guys believed in me. Especially you, Lori. You are my ally. You are my partner. You believed in me. You understood and you understand public service, and you made a lot of sacrifices for us. Thank you and I love you.

No doubt, my constituents, including those who voted for me and even those who did not. I tried to represent everybody. I did my best and I hope you felt the same way even when we didn't always agree. Thank you for the opportunity to serve all of you.

We have a beautiful Capitol and this building is special, and it is because of all the people who support us. This includes our Sergeants who make sure that we are safe and protected; everybody in the front row including our clerks who make sure that our votes are accounted for, among other things; and to our Senate personnel. We really have some great people—smart, hard-working, dedicated, and true servants. They include our fiscal analysts, our policy experts, our communications team, all supporting staff, my staff—present and past—and all other legislative chiefs and legislative staff, H.R., interns, pages, photographers—got that Patrick? If I've missed anyone or any group, I apologize. Thank you all for making this a great place to be.

My fellow Senators, thank you. We are in the communications business and people business and it is hard work to try to make everyone happy, but I appreciate all of you and what you do. While I'd like to mention something about each of you, I only have time for two members.

First, Coleman Young Jr. You are right, we probably don't agree on much, certainly not on "free the weed." But I respect you because you know your community and you know your constituency and that is what public service is all about. I appreciate your passion to fight for their interests.

Jack Brandenburg, I hesitated to mention Jack, given that he is about a foot taller than I am and I still have to sit next to him in caucus for the next three weeks. I've been telling him for four years that I can take him; I just have never had the chance. Anyway, Senator Brandenburg is my Finance chair, and Finance members pay attention, because you will remember this story. We were in the old Senate building listening to testimony in the Finance Committee and in the middle of it all, there is a loud noise. I mean really loud. As the committee members looked over to where the noise came from, there is a hand raised from the floor and a voice says, "Eh, I'm ok." Something like that; that's my best impersonation. It is Jack Brandenburg on the ground. All 6' 6" and 300 pounds of him—do I have that right, Jack? It seemed like 300 pounds; I apologize if it's less than that. He had gotten up during testimony, stepped off the dais, and tripped on the step. After he fell, he then got up and pretended like nothing happened. I was laughing so hard, I had tears in my eyes. I had a hard time keeping quiet, but I wasn't alone. Other members were all chuckling too. Jack, I'm sorry, but I had to tell this story. I love you and you were great to me and I appreciate having you as a friend.

As I conclude, I would like to share one final story. As you may or may not know, my dad passed away this year on February 6, which happens to be the day that Ronald Reagan was born. I wish you all had the chance to meet him. He was a special man. I had the opportunity to attend a memorial service held at Statuary Hall at the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C. this past September. They were honoring 38 former members of Congress who passed away in the last year. I remembered the beauty of the Capitol, the friendly guards, and the excitement and the energy that surrounded us. Not much different than here. I also remembered the civility during the ceremony. Nancy Pelosi, Jeff Flake, Tom Daschle were a few people I recall who spoke. They all seemed to get along. Not much different than here. I also talked to other current members of Congress and they all seemed to respect each other. Not much different than here. It is a shame that the general public doesn't see it, like we all do here. I truly believe in public service, and again, I am very grateful and humbled to have been able to serve with all of you.

Thank you and God bless.

Recess

Senator Kowall moved that the Senate recess subject to the call of the Chair.
The motion prevailed, the time being 1:43 p.m.

3:11 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by the President pro tempore, Senator Schuitmaker.

Senator Meekhof offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 201.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Steven M. Bieda.

Whereas, It is with great appreciation for his commitment to the people of the Ninth District, as well as the entire state, that we honor Senator Steven M. Bieda on his retirement from the Michigan Senate after eight years of dedicated service; and

Whereas, Steven M. Bieda has a long and accomplished career in public service. The former three-term representative received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Wayne State University, a juris doctor from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law, and a master of laws in taxation from his alma mater, Wayne State University. Prior to his 2002 election to the House of Representatives, he was the labor relations director for the city of Warren, a senior policy analyst for the House, and an attorney specializing in estate and tax planning. His dedication to community and its history has been evidenced time and again, serving Warren in numerous capacities, including his local Lions Club, historical society, and Michigan Labor Legacy Project. Displaying his creative side, he also designed two U.S. Mint coins, the Thomas Edison Silver Dollar and the reverse side of the 1992 issue of the U.S. Olympic Half Dollar; and

Whereas, Elected to the Michigan Senate in 2010 and 2014, Senator Bieda has been a strong advocate for all Michigan residents. Serving on numerous committees, including as minority vice chair on the committees on Finance, Insurance, and Judiciary, he worked diligently on a wide array of issues, from expanding economic opportunities, reforming health and auto insurance, and reducing the cost of early education to election reforms. The former Assistant Democratic Leader was also a member of the Legislative Council, Michigan Commission on Uniform State Laws, and the Michigan Capitol Committee. The historical replica cannons installed on the Capitol lawn will be long-serving reminders of his dedication to the preservation of Michigan's culture and history; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Steven M. Bieda for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Senator Bieda as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted by a unanimous standing vote of the Senate.

Senator Kowall moved that rule 3.204 be suspended to name the entire membership of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor as co-sponsors of the resolution.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Bieda asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bieda's statement is as follows:

It seems to be my luck that the whole building would be evacuated right before I was going to speak earlier today. I wanted to talk about a couple things that I have experienced here in this rich experience of serving in the State Capitol. One of the things I was thinking about as I was going through that little memory jog that you do when you're writing a speech like this: A couple years ago I had an opportunity to see the Capitol from a totally unconventional view. I had been to a function with the building trades and one of the local businesses was doing work and restoring the Capitol dome and the roof of the Capitol. This led to an invitation for me to see the Capitol from above. Specifically I was suspended, secured in one of those buckets, strapped into a harness, and lifted by a crane that towered about 350 feet above the Capitol dome. I'm not sure if I was supposed to tell people that I did that, but I'm pretty sure I'm the only one who floated over this Capitol dome. Maybe with the exception of Coleman Young, but that's a different story. Once you got over the fact that you were hanging in a slightly swaying bucket, 350 feet above the ground, you could really enjoy a unique view. It was beautiful. The view floating above the Capitol was simply awe inspiring and really a bit surreal.

People often remark about the details found throughout the Capitol, and this building truly represents civic pride in our beautiful state. It also reminds me just how special a place this is, and what a special role we all play. Having had the honor of working here first as a staff member, then as a House member, and now as a State Senator for a cumulative of nearly 20 years, I've seen the turnover of Representatives, Senators, staff members, Governors, employees, and others associated with the Capitol and state government. So many issues over the years, so many controversies over the years, this place is a lot of things but it is never boring. I don't think I've had a day working here that I didn't notice some new detail of this magnificent building. Every day we start our session reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. Occasionally, a visiting school group is present. This chamber loses a little bit of its stuffiness when these young visitors loudly, enthusiastically, and energetically join us in reciting the pledge. I don't know about you, but listening to these school children, I get the feeling that our country is going to be in good hands.

Now, I ran for office with an ambitious agenda and a sincere desire to make a positive difference. I may not have achieved everything I wanted to, but I was able to work on legislation that helps make the state a little better for our citizens and that will help to right some wrongs. It is not in my nature to talk about myself, but many of the legislative initiatives that I took on—things like compensating wrongfully convicted individuals; like providing law enforcement with the proper tools to identify wrongdoers and to exonerate the innocent; like rewriting antiquated paternity laws; protecting consumers, the environment, and even protecting people from cyber bullying; proposing historic preservation; and working to provide more humane treatment of animals—have made it into statute. None of this would have been possible without your help.

I have some special thank yous I would like to say. First of all, Connie Platte who is my office manager and has been with me since I started in the Senate. Prior to that, she worked for Senator Dennis Olshove and Senator Art Miller. She has been a wonderful person. I call her the mother hen sometimes in the office because she knows just about everything. If she doesn't know it, she knows somebody who does. We have had over 80 interns who have worked for my office, and some of them—including the current ones, Reidar Sandall and McKenzie Pollick, as well as people like Matt Black, Madison Brock, Brad Davis, Renee Hermanowski, Mike Guthrie, Mike Klinefelt, Steve Koski, Keith Reid, Allison Tinsey, and Spencer Tobias—have all gone onto bigger and greater things. Connie, herself, has been a wonderful person to work with. She has a great sense of humor and she balances family and work, and does it with a great deal of cheer. With her three children, Alex, Catherine, and Sarah, I've learned more about childhood diseases and the type of weird injuries one can obtain in sports.

I also had Jerry Gill in my office for a number of years. He's going to hate me for saying this, but Jerry just informed me that today is his last day working. He has been a wonderful friend, mentor, and kind of a Yoda-like figure in my office. He also knows where all the bodies are buried. Now Jerry worked originally for Senator John Bowman, then Senator Art Miller, then Senator Dennis Olshove, and then myself. It's remarkable that his entire career has been in one Senate district. In fact, my predecessor, Dennis Olshove, joked that Jerry's name is on the ballot when you run for office in this seat. We're not exactly sure what his exact start date was, but the best that the state archeologists can determine is that it was in the early 1970s.

I would also like to thank Democratic policy and communications staff: Nancy Green, John Mulcrone, Rosie Jones, Bryanna McGarry, Shaquila Myers, Lisa Keith, Robert Leddy, Mike Vatter, Dan Oberlin, Sam Buchalter, Allison Paris, Malcolm Kletke, David Ettinger, Elizabeth Battiste, and David Olds, along with everybody else. I would also like to thank the Sergeants, the Enrolling Clerks, Senate Fiscal Agency, H.R. folks, the Legislative Service Bureau, Legislative facilities, and the docents. I would also like to do a shout out to Matt Van Acker for his dedication to the Capitol over the years.

I also want to thank my family, friends, supporters, and everybody who worked with me on many pieces of legislation, but also helping me get up here. I've served as the Minority vice chair of the Judiciary, Finance, and Insurance Committees, and for the first four years, as Minority vice chair of the Redistricting Committee. I've also been a member of the Energy and Technology and Economic Development and International Investment Committees. I'm the only Democrat on some of these committees, but Ian Conyers, Coleman Young, and Rebekah Warren presently serve with me on some of them. It's been an honor to serve with you. I also want to thank the chairmen, Senators Rick Jones, Jack Brandenburg, Joe Hune, Mike Nofs, and Ken Horn for their work as well as their patience, as I tend to ask a lot of questions during committee.

I would also like to thank Governor Snyder, Lieutenant Governor Calley, Majority Leader Arlan Meekhof, Floor Leader Mike Kowall, and former Majority Leader Randy Richardville. While I have not always agreed with you, and we've had some sharp policy differences, I've always appreciated the openness and sometimes even the ability to find some common ground. Civility in politics is not necessarily dead, friendship can and does transcend politics.

Being in the majority has its difficulties, but it doesn't compare to the challenges faced while serving in the minority. To that end, I want to thank my good friends, Gretchen Whitmer and Jim Ananich, along with Tupac Hunter and Morris Hood, for their exemplary leadership. I also want to thank my caucus, which has ranged from 10 to 12 members during my two terms. It was a caucus that was a historic low as far as numbers were concerned. Although we had two veterans, Vincent Gregory and David Knezek, which made it a caucus with the highest percentage of veterans. The caucus is also noteworthy in that I worked as a policy staffer with two of my caucus members, Rebekah Warren and Hoon-Yung Hopgood, both of whom I have known for over 20 years.

November 2018 changed fortunes a bit. I have to say I'm delighted that, as I go out the door, I can welcome a Democratic caucus of 16 members. It's even better than that, eight of them are women, for a record number of women to serve in this chamber. I think diversity is a good thing, and I have a feeling that they're going to do a great job.

I have several things that I regret this Legislature has not taken up. One of my first bills introduced in both the House and the Senate called for no-excuse absentee voting, as well as bills to maintain the right for voters to have the option to vote a straight ticket, and efforts to modernize voter registration. Being a strong believer that gerrymandering is wrong, I had also proposed a number of redistricting reforms. Some of you might recall that I periodically offer these as amendments and tiebars to numerous election related bills. My friend the chairman of the Elections and Government Committee would ask his members to vote "no" against them—all of them actually—with the promise that eventually they would be taken up in committee. Well, we don't need a committee meeting now, because an overwhelming majority of voters passed both Proposal 2 and Proposal 3 this last November. All we have to do is respect their vote.

There are other big things that we as a state need to tackle: infrastructure investment, our roads, bridges, sewers, and water systems need to be strongly and aggressively addressed. It is an abomination that the people of Flint still do not have clean drinking water. For a state that put the nation on wheels to have an inadequate response to our deteriorating roads is not acceptable. While some improvements have been made, we still have a lot to do. The safety of our citizens and our attractiveness as a state to live in and invest is related to the quality of our infrastructure.

Our citizens should be our highest priority. Laws, unique only to Michigan, protecting drug companies by providing immunity from lawsuits for injured Michigan citizens need to be repealed. Laws protecting the civil rights and safety of all of our citizens need to be enacted. It is an irony that a same-sex couple can be legally married in Michigan on a Saturday and get fired by an employer for being gay on a Monday. The same couple can be a target of a hate crime for being gay. It is time that Michigan amend both the Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act and our hate crimes statutes to protect our citizens in the LBGTQ community. Our state has many talented individuals, many who serve in state government, indeed, in this building. We need to pass this legislation.

Laws protecting workers and the environment need to be strengthened. Attacks against working people have been relentless during the last eight years. I hope these attacks stop and that this state's disastrous right to work laws are reconsidered and repealed. Similarly, maybe state government can learn a thing or two by listening to our teachers as to what is needed to improve our schools. Teaching is a noble and extremely important profession. One cannot honestly say that they love their country if we are, in any way, shortchanging the education of our next generation. Let's make sure that our students are prepared for a bright future and that they can compete, and our industry can compete, with anyone around the world. As the Great Lakes State, let's continue to cherish and protect our natural resources, especially the Great Lakes. Anyway, these are some of the challenges for the next Legislature and the Governor.

With regards to David Letterman, I have my top ten list of memories from serving this last eight years in the Legislature.

Number one: I used to sit next to Mike Kowall for my first four years in office and we were part of the Polish Caucus. We thought it was a good idea to bring in paczki for Pączki Day. In case you don't know what pączki are, they're a large globular pastry usually dusted with cinnamon powder or white sugar and filled with jelly. I had arranged to pick them up one morning and we had them out in the hall, and Mike and I were talking and we brought the dishes and there was a rather large protest going on. We looked and I think immediately each realized that we had 100 of these jelly bombs out in the hallway with a relatively raucous crowd, so Mike and I had to hurry up and make sure that those were brought into a safe place just in case they ended up as a rain of jelly doughnut terror on the inhabitants of the State Senate.

The second one I always remember, and it was a little awkward, but it's the time that Senator Mo Hood was in the hospital with a kidney transplant and my good friend Senator Coleman Young requested a moment of silence for him. Now, some of you may remember that because my phone was deluged with text messages with "oh my God, did Senator Hood die?" or "What did Senator Hood die of?" Coleman, I could have done a top-ten list just on you.

The third one, you could file this under the listing of "no good deed goes unpunished." I'm friends with a lot of you and I like to try to work with people on bills, and sometimes you get a bill that, eh, I really don't think this bill is good for my district or this is something I don't believe in, but I could give it to a colleague and it will help them. Well, there was a pretty notorious story about a lawsuit being filed against the state jail in which a prisoner was suing the sheriff for not having access to, let's call it, illustrated adult periodicals with pictures—in other words, porn. Jerry in my office ordered this bill and six weeks later it comes in. I'm looking at it thinking, "I'm not sure about this." Then I thought, "Tonya Schuitmaker helped me out with something recently. I'm going to give this to her." Republicans like to be hard on crime and all that, so I thought I'd give her this bill. I gave her this bill and she was very gracious and without doing a press release or anything she introduced it. That weekend, her local newspaper and a number of other newspapers across the state were emblazoned with the headline, "Schuitmaker does prison porn bill" with a nice picture of Tonya on the cover and everything else. I think she was a bit embarrassed by it. It certainly wasn't anything that I intended as a bad thing for her, but we've always had a good laugh about it.

The fourth one is sort of a mishmash. I mentioned I sat next to Mike Kowall for four years and Mike and I just became best friends. We got to work on a lot of really good issues together—the autonomous vehicle legislation, we formed the Michigan Legislative Auto Caucus, surprisingly Michigan being an auto state never had an auto caucus before, and we also developed a committee to privately raise money to re-create the historic Loomis cannons that appear in front of the Capitol today. Those cannons—the original ones—were melted down in a scrap metal drive in 1942 and so we raised money to have them re-cast and re-set there. It's kind of neat to look out the window and you see children posing in front of it or groups of people posing in front of those cannons and it's kind of a neat little thing to have when you're leaving the door, that you left the place a little bit better or a little bit more interesting than when you were there. The cannons, incidentally, are nicknamed Steve and Mike. We're trying to encourage you to keep using those nicknames. Steve is the one with the good hair.

Number five is observing the unusual items the members like to keep on their desks. Senator O'Brien's big, pink teddy bear cookie jar heads the list. In fact, I understand from the docents that the T. Rex on my desk and your cookie jar elicits the most comments from groups that come in. Senator Judy Emmons—we call it The Senator Coleman Young Bait Station that the people like to go past. Senator Casperson often has his wolf mask there, and Senator Dave Knezek and his little, tiny gavel there. There is a story about that. When Dave first became caucus chair and when he would first bang the gavel to keep everyone in line, and I didn't think he was using it enough so I took his regular sized gavel away and replaced it with this tiny one under the premise that if you don't use it you're going to lose it. I love the fact that you have that on your desk. I'll also give a shout-out to our newest member, Senator Adam Hollier, it is starting to look like a Smithsonian exhibit here, even though he has only been here a couple of weeks. He is going to be a great addition to this body.

The number six observation about this place is the place you're most likely to be run over is if you're standing between Senator Rick Jones and a TV camera. We all know that's true.

Number seven is observing Senator Jim Ananich's various diet attempts, including his very strange and peculiar looking drink concoction that looked a lot like Soylent Green and probably didn't taste any better than that.

Number eight is my good Macomb buddy, being a proud unofficial member of the Democratic caucus. You can always count on him, usually in the 11th, 12th, or 13th vote on a lot of different issues.

Number nine is the exquisite oratory of many of our members, especially my personal favorite, a quote by Senator Coleman Young speaking against the pension tax as “dropkicking grandma to the curb.”

And number ten, and this is a little more serious—it brought the experience of working in the Capitol in full circle for me. I was hired in 1996 after interviewing in 1995, and I was hired by then-Minority Leader Curtis Hertel. It was an honor to work with Curtis, and I learned a lot. He left us way too soon. I have had the pleasure of working with his sons, Curtis, Jr. and State Representative Kevin Hertel who is in my district. I see that the dedication to public service runs deep in that family. I am glad that we have people like them, and to be frank, all of you who are willing to step forward and to serve the public. I think our world is a much better place when people share their talents in that fashion.

Now as I end my term, I would like to compare it to a book. It's not the end of the book but rather the end of the chapter. I look forward to the next chapter as well as the next chapter for 20 other members who are leaving and that I have had the honor to serve with. One last and very important thank you, I would like to thank the people of the 9th Senate District for electing and re-electing me to this chamber. When I ran for office, my promise was I hope to make it the best vote you ever cast; I hope I came close to that goal. May God bless all of you. It has been an honor to serve you. Thank you.

Senator Meekhof offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 202.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Ian Conyers.

Whereas, The members of this legislative body deem it a great honor to congratulate Senator Conyers on his service and commitment to the Fourth District, encompassing Detroit, Allen Park, Southgate, and Lincoln Park, and to the entire state; and

Whereas, Ian Conyers earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Georgetown University, the first of his siblings to graduate high school and college. He also completed additional studies at the Instituto Brasil-Estados Unidos. He began his political career early with stints in the Washington, D.C., mayor's office; as regional field director for Obama for America; as disadvantaged business director for the Anacostia Waterfront Initiative; and as a partner in Ruth Strategies, LLC; and

Whereas, Ian Conyers was elected to the Senate in 2016 in a special election. He has utilized his talents and dedicated himself to serving the concerns and needs of his constituents with a community-first approach to problem solving. He served on the committees on Banking and Financial Institutions; Economic Development and International Investment; Energy and Technology; and Transportation, the latter as minority vice chair. He has focused his efforts on building ladders of opportunity for the underserved residents of our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Ian Conyers for his notable contribution to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Senator Conyers as evidence of our esteem and best wishes.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted by a unanimous standing vote of the Senate.

Senator Kowall moved that rule 3.204 be suspended to name the entire membership of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor as co-sponsors of the resolution.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Conyers asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Conyers' statement is as follows:

I want to start off thanking each and every one of the members of the Michigan Senate. It seems that my term in the Senate has gone from lame duck to lame duck, and for those of you who remember, I didn't start off seeking a seat in the State Senate. I actually challenged an incumbent Democrat who walked up to me and said, "Conyers, what did I do to you?" and I think that as each of us see the next step happening in our state, we're seeing that as a positive where more folks are becoming a part of the public body.

I want to thank my staff. I want to thank Bobby Lawrence, I want to thank Alana Brinker, I want to thank Cindy Davis, and I also want to thank Delorean Holmes. It's been quite the firehose experience starting here and they've made it a much easier process to be able to get things done that we set out to do.

I set about a mission of building jobs, protecting neighborhoods, and developing communities, and the 22 pieces of legislation we introduced sought to do just that. Many of them are in various stages of committee, some are on the floor, some may never make it to the floor of the House of Representatives; however, I think that in pushing toward those goals, we've made a difference. I also think I have a unique obligation as being the youngest State Senator in Michigan history—sorry David—to make sure that this is a space for every voice to be heard. A bill I put in March last year sought to remove age language from the offices of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, and Secretary of State. Folks said, "Oh, you're going to run for Governor yourself" because I was 29 at the time, but I thought, looking back to our heritage as a territory, who are we in this body to keep out those voices of folks between the ages of 18 and 30? Our very own first Governor was 22, 24, and 26, and so in the spirit of that, I still think that if we are seeking the vote of those who are 18 and up, we ought to consider them to be full partners.

It's been an honor to continue the tradition of public service of my family. I have a plaque in my office from a distinguished member of this body—Senator Jackie Vaughn—who memorialized my great-grandfather John Conyers, Jr., who moved to Detroit in 1923 as a 17-year-old from rural Georgia and set about making this a place to build his family.

I haven't had the longest term, and I think that in keeping with that spirit, I'd like to keep this short and sweet. I haven't had too much face time with each and every one but from the very beginning of my service in this Legislature, it's been an honor to get to know each and every one of you. I made a real effort to try to meet folks where they are. I think the more that we as legislators get to know each other in our communities, it's really going to make a difference in terms of what we're standing for. It's been great to sit next to Pete MacGregor. I'll tell you, I didn't grow up hunting or fishing, but being a member of the Sportsmen's Caucus has been fantastic to show me what it's all about in our state, and I think that the more that we reach out and build those bridges and teach the next generation all the bounty, all the fantastic things that there are to utilize in our state, the more that we build our culture and the better state we're going to have for all of our communities.

I'll say that one really immortal person that I've had the most face time with in this entire body is the immortal Marquis de Lafayette. I've had a front-row seat and spent many days thinking about what the America that he stood up for, that he sailed across to see, to create, would mean to him and what that would mean to us today. I think that it's a great opportunity to reflect on a quote of his, which says, "When the government violates the people's rights, insurrection is, for the people and for each portion of the people, the most sacred of the rights and the most indispensable of duties."

It's been an honor to serve. I also want to give thanks to my church community at Triumph and my high school—U of D Jesuit—as a faith-based organization. We always seek to live the forth—to go forth for the greater glory of God—and that's what I'll continue to do. If you need me, I won't be too far. I'll be down in Detroit.

Thank you all so much.
