Rev. Terry L. Cropper, Jr., Senior Pastor of Bethel Baptist Church in Three Rivers, offered the following invocation:

“Our Father and our God, we thank You for this day. This is the day that You have made, we shall rejoice and be glad in it. We pray today, that You would give this body wisdom and guidance as they make decisions on the behalf of their constituents. Father, we ask that You would allow the decisions that are made to bring glory and honor to You. God we ask that You would help all political parties to work together in the spirit of unity and love. Lord, we also want to thank You for Juneteenth. Thank You for the ending of slavery in the United States, but most of all in Texas. Lord, we celebrate freedom for all African Americans. We realize there is still much work to be done, but with Your sufficient grace we can accomplish great things. In Jesus Christ’s name we pray, Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Rep. Cole moved that Rep. Inman be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Sabo, Schroeder, Cherry, Chirkun, Clemente, Crawford, Ellison, Garza, Gay-Dagnogo, Greig, Haadsma, Hammoud, Hoadley, Hood, Hope, Jones, Kuppa, Leutheuser, Liberati, Love, Manoogian, Pagan, Sneller, Sowerby, Stone, Webber, Wittenberg and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 129.

A resolution to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the founding of Optimist International.

Whereas, On June 19, 1919, Optimist International began its remarkable history when representatives of 11 clubs held a convention in Louisville, Kentucky, and adopted the name International Optimist Club. During the convention, William Henry Harrison, a descendent of the ninth president of the United States bearing the same name, was elected the first International President of Optimist International; and

Whereas, Optimist International is a worldwide volunteer organization made up of more than 2,500 local clubs across the globe whose members work each day to make the future brighter by bringing out the best in children, in their communities, and in themselves; and

Whereas, The vision of Optimist International is to be recognized worldwide as the premier volunteer organization that values all children and helps them develop to their full potential. With a purpose to develop optimism as a philosophy of life utilizing the tenets of the Optimist Creed, to promote an active interest in good government and civic affairs, to inspire respect for the law, to promote patriotism and work for international accord and friendship among all people, to aid and encourage the development of youth, in the belief that the giving of one’s self in service to others will advance the well-being of humankind, community life and the world; and

Whereas, Optimist International continues to demonstrate their devotion to young children in our local communities and translating that passion to global efforts through the work of its members. The satisfaction members receive from giving back is the motivation for the clubs to continue their work for years to come. Optimist International will continue to be a beacon of light for children throughout the world. Michigan makes up District 17 of Optimist International and encompasses 92 local Optimist Clubs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 100th anniversary of the founding of Optimist International; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Optimist International headquarters in St. Louis, Missouri.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

House Resolution No. 130.

A resolution to commemorate the 55th anniversary of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Whereas, 2019 marks the 55th anniversary of the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 is the most comprehensive civil rights legislation in our nation's history. It opened the door for legislation that strengthened voting rights and established fair housing standards for all Americans; and

Whereas, The Civil Rights Act of 1964 was the result of decades of struggle and sacrifice of many Americans who fought for equality and justice. A civil rights movement developed to achieve the goal of equal rights for all Americans and a broad coalition of civil rights, labor, and religious organizations created national support for civil rights legislation. Many Americans sacrificed their lives in the fight against racial and social injustice while working to guarantee the rights of every citizen of the United States and generations of Americans of every background supported legislation to eliminate discrimination; and

Whereas, The United States Senate passed the Civil Rights Act of 1964 on June 19, 1964, and the United States House of Representatives passed the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and President Lyndon Johnson signed the bill into law on July 2, 1964. This historic legislation dismantled legal racial segregation and set a benchmark standard for civil rights protection across all states. It also helped bring an end to the Jim Crow era, banning discrimination in public places, prohibiting employment discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, and providing an enforcement mechanism for the integration of schools; and

Whereas, The Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibited the use of federal funds in a discriminatory fashion, barred unequal application of voter registration requirements, encouraged the desegregation of public schools and authorized the United States Attorney General to file suits to force desegregation, banned discrimination in hotels, motels, restaurants, theaters, and all other places of public accommodations engaged in interstate commerce, and established the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission; and

Whereas, We applaud those whose support and efforts led to the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 55th anniversary of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; and be it further

Resolved, That we reaffirm Michigan's commitment to the principles of justice and equality.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Neeley, Cherry, Chirkun, Clemente, Ellison, Garza, Greig, Haadsma, Hammoud, Hoadley, Hood, Hope, Jones, Kuppa, Liberati, Love, Manoogian, Pagan, Sabo, Sneller, Sowerby, Stone, Wittenberg and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 131.

A resolution to declare June 19, 2019, as Juneteenth Independence Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, News of the end of slavery did not reach the frontier areas of the United States, in particular the state of Texas and the other southwestern states, until months after the conclusion of the Civil War. This was more than 2½ years after President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863; and

Whereas, On June 19, 1865, Union soldiers, led by Major General Gordon Granger, arrived in Galveston, Texas, with news that the Civil War had ended and that the enslaved were free; and

Whereas, African-Americans who had been slaves in the Southwest celebrated June 19, commonly known as “Juneteenth Independence Day”, as inspiration and encouragement for future generations; and

Whereas, African-Americans from the Southwest have continued the tradition of observing Juneteenth Independence Day for over 150 years; and

Whereas, Juneteenth Independence Day celebrations have been held to honor African-American freedom while encouraging self-development and respect for all cultures; and

Whereas, The faith and strength of character demonstrated by former slaves and the descendants of former slaves remain an example for all people of the United States, regardless of background, religion, or race; and

Whereas, Slavery was not officially abolished until the ratification of the 13th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States in December 1865; and

Whereas, Over the course of its history, the United States has grown into a symbol of democracy and freedom around the world; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 19, 2019, as Juneteenth Independence Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
