Rabbi Herschel Finman of Jewish Ferndale of Ferndale offered the following invocation:

The sages suggest that words of inspiration be culled from the portion of the Torah that is read each week in the synagogue. Soon we will be reading about the story of the patriarch Jacob wrestling with the angel of Esau. That fight is analogous of the struggle we face each day in deciding between right and wrong. Jacob vanquished his opponent when exerted effort. So too, we must exert effort to overcome each day's trials.

To quote the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson of Blessed Memory, the world is lacking in one more act of goodness and kindness. When that one act is performed, we will merit the coming of the righteous redeemer and then there will be peace and unity throughout the world. As the prophet writes, no nation will lift up a sword, and we will no longer learn war. May we merit it speedily in our day.

Master of the Universe, may it be your will that the proceedings today in this hallowed hall be for blessing and that You guide the members of this great body to come to decisions that are right and fair. For You, Almighty, have instructed the people of the world to believe in Your supremeness, not to believe in false deities, not to murder, steal or commit adultery; not to be cruel to animals, and to establish legislative bodies such as this one enact fair and just laws to protect the citizens of this great state regardless of race, religion, belief, or physical limitations. And may the people of the great state of Michigan be united for the good of all.

Let us all say. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Motions and Communications

Senator MacGregor moved that Senators Horn and McBroom be excused from today's session. The motion prevailed.

The motion prevailed, the time being 10:11 a.m.

10:31 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by the President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt.

During the recess, Senators Zorn and Ananich introduced Frank Dick and Victor Cross, the last remaining Michigan survivors of the Battle of the Bulge; and presented them with Special Tributes.

Pursuant to rule 3.506, Senators Zorn and Ananich submitted statements in writing for inclusion in today's Journal.

Senator Zorn's statement is as follows:

Colleagues, it is my distinct honor to introduce to you today Michigan's last two remaining survivors from the Battle of the Bulge during World War II. With us today, as the guest of Senator Ananich and Representative Sheryl Kennedy, is Mr. Victor Cross. Also with us today as my guest and the guest of Representative Bronna Kahle is Mr. Frank Dick. Senator Ananich and I would like to tell you a little about these two outstanding veterans.

Upon graduation from high school, Frank Dick answered the call to serve and began basic training on June 6, 1944. On December 9, after rigorous preparation, he boarded a passenger ship with thousands of soldiers to the heat of battle in Southampton, England. Two weeks later, Frank was designated as a replacement in Patton's Third Army, 80th Division, 317th Infantry Regiment, Company I, famously known as the Blue Ridge Mountain Boys. His involvement in the division made him a participant in the Battle of the Bulge, the last major German offensive campaign on the Western Front.

On February 9, 1945 Frank found himself caught in a foxhole and was injured by incoming mortar fire. His injuries were significant, and he suffered 100 percent disability. Frank was honorably discharged as a Private First Class on February 6, 1946, and was awarded the Purple Heart, the Bronze Star, the Good Conduct Medal, and the Combat Infantry Badge, among others.

Frank has led a remarkable life and has continued to build upon his service and leadership as a civilian. Next week, Frank will travel to Belgium and Luxembourg as part of an event to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the Battle of the Bulge. It is an honor to have him here today to show our appreciation for his service and to wish him well in his travels next week.

Senator Ananich's statement is as follows:

It is my distinct honor to recognize Mr. Victor Cross for his contributions to our country during the dangerous and uncertain times of World War II.

Mr. Cross was aboard the General W. M. Black sailing from Boston on January 3, 1945 and experienced his first combat east of St. Vith, Belgium in late January during the middle of a week-long storm. He fought alongside the 87th Infantry Division and helped to push back to the Siegfried Line. His unit liberated several towns in Belgium, where citizens were hiding in basements and cellars when they arrived. He was among the first troops to march into the towns, searching for and capturing any German stragglers.

The 87th Infantry Division kept moving all the way to the Czech border near Plauen, where his journey finally ended. After making it through the war without any serious wounds, outside of frozen feet and fingers, he returned to America on July 5, 1945. On his return he was awarded the Combat Infantry Badge and Bronze Star.

Mr. Cross, we are grateful for your sacrifices and your service, and we're humbled and honored to have you here today. Senate colleagues, please join me in honoring these two distinguished veterans. Thank you.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of General Orders

Senator MacGregor moved that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of the General Orders calendar.

The motion prevailed, and the President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt, designated Senator Daley as Chairperson.

After some time spent therein, the Committee arose; and the President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt, having resumed the Chair, the Committee reported back to the Senate, favorably and without amendment, the following bills:
