SUMMARY:

Senate Bill 1219 would amend 1927 PA 372, the handgun licensing law, to provide that an executive order issued under the Emergency Management Act or 1945 PA 302 does not affect any of the following:

- The duty of a county clerk to issue a concealed pistol license or renewal license under the act.
- The duty of a county clerk to provide fingerprinting services for purposes of the act.
- The duty of a county clerk to provide a personal identification number to enable an individual to submit a license renewal online.
- The duty of the Department of State Police (MSP), a county sheriff, or a local police agency to provide fingerprinting services for purposes of the act.

In addition, during a state of emergency or disaster declared by the governor under the Emergency Management Act or 1945 PA 302, MSP could provide a personal identification number to facilitate an online license renewal.

MCL 28.425b and 28.425l

FISCAL IMPACT:

Senate Bill 1219 would not have a significant fiscal impact on any unit of state or local government.
