1 A resolution to declare March 8, 2019, as International
2 Women's Day in the state of Michigan.

3 Whereas, March 8, 2019, marks the 108th anniversary of the 4 celebration of International Women's Day. Originally called 5 International Working Women's Day, it is celebrated on March 8 of 6 every year; and

7 Whereas, International Women's Day is a global day celebrating

1 the economic, political, and social achievements of women in the 2 past, present, and future. It is a day when women are recognized 3 for their achievements, regardless of divisions, whether national,
4 ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic, or political. It is an 5 occasion for looking back on past struggles and accomplishments
6 and, more importantly, for looking ahead to the untapped potential 7 and opportunities that await future generations of women; and

8 Whereas, In different regions the focus of the celebrations
9 ranges from general celebration of respect, appreciation, and love 10 towards women to a celebration for women's economic, political, and 11 social achievements; and

12 Whereas, The earliest Women's Day observance was held in 1909
13 in New York and was organized in remembrance of the strike of the 14 International Ladies' Garment Workers Union. At the second 15 International Women's Conference in 1910, the first International 16 Women's Day was officially established to promote equal rights, 17 including suffrage, for women. The following year, International 18 Women's Day was marked by over a million people in Austria, 19 Denmark, Germany, and Switzerland. The efforts of early European 20 pioneers led to women gaining the right to vote and to hold public 21 office and the establishment of many early prohibitions against 22 employment sex discrimination; and

23 Whereas, In 1975, during the United Nations (UN) International 24 Year for Women, the UN held its first official celebration of 25 International Women's Day. Two years later, in December 1977, the 26 General Assembly adopted a resolution proclaiming a United Nations
27 Day for Women's Rights and International Peace to be observed by 28 member states. In adopting this resolution, the General Assembly 29 recognized the role of women in peace efforts and development and

1 urged an end to discrimination and an increase of support for 2 women's full and equal participation; and

3 Whereas, Beginning in 1996, International Women's Day
4 organizers began adopting a theme to each year's celebrations that 5 reinforces its commitment to women's rights and world peace.
6 Successful campaigns centered on such themes as "Celebrating the 7 Past, Planning for the Future" (1996) and "Women in Decision-8 Making" (2006); and

9 Whereas, Presidents of the United States have consecutively
10 declared March to be Women's History Month since 1988 after the 11 National Women's History Project petitioned the United States
12 Congress in 1987 for recognition of Women's History Month, and have 13 since announced the 2019 theme of "Visionary Women: Champions of 14 Peace & Nonviolence"; and

15 Whereas, On the occasion of 2010 International Women's Day,
16 the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) drew attention 17 to the hardships displaced women endure by spreading awareness of 18 the displacement of populations as one of the gravest consequences 19 of today's armed conflicts; and

20 Whereas, There are more than 3.7 billion women in the world
21 today. Women around the world participate in the political, social, 22 and economic life of their communities, play a critical role in 23 providing and caring for their families, contribute substantially 24 to the growth of economies, and, as both farmers and caregivers, 25 play an important role in advancing food security for their 26 communities; and

27 Whereas, The advancement of women is a public policy priority
28 for our country and the state of Michigan and the ability of women
29 to realize their full potential is critical to the ability of a

1 country and state to achieve strong and lasting economic growth and 2 social stability; and

3 Whereas, According to the International Monetary Fund,
4 "focusing on the needs and empowerment of women is one of the keys
5 to human development" and according to the 2012 World Economic 6 Forum Global Gender Gap Report, "reducing gender inequality 7 enhances productivity and economic growth"; and

8 Whereas, According to the World Bank 2012 World Development
9 Report: Gender Equality and Development, "greater gender equality
10 is also smart economics, enhancing productivity and improving other 11 development outcomes, including prospects for the next generation 12 and for the quality of societal policies and institutions"; and

13 Whereas, Although strides have been made in recent decades, 14 women around the world continue to face significant obstacles in 15 all aspects of their lives, including underrepresentation in all 16 aspects of public life, denial of basic human rights, and 17 discrimination; and

18 Whereas, Despite some achievements by individual women
19 leaders, women around the world are still vastly underrepresented 20 in high level positions and in national and local legislatures and 21 governments and, according to the Inter-Parliamentary Union, women 22 account for only 24 percent of national parliamentarians; and

23 Whereas, Women remain underrepresented in conflict prevention
24 and conflict resolution efforts, despite proven successes by women
25 in conflict-affected regions in moderating violent extremism,
26 resolving disputes through non-violent mediation and negotiation, 27 and stabilizing their societies by improving access to peace and 28 security services, institutions, and decision making venues; and

29 Whereas, According to the Food and Agriculture Organization of

1 the United Nations, the majority of women living in rural areas of 2 the developing world are heavily engaged in agricultural labor, yet
3 they receive less credit, land, agricultural inputs, and training 4 than their male counterparts; and

5 Whereas, It is imperative to alleviate violence and 6 discrimination against women and afford them every opportunity to 7 be full and productive members of their communities; and

8 Whereas, March 8 is recognized each year as International 9 Women's Day, a global day to celebrate the economic, political, and 10 social achievements of women past, present, and future, and a day
11 to recognize the obstacles that women still face in the struggle
12 for equal rights and opportunities; now, therefore, be it

13 Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of 14 this legislative body declare March 8, 2019, as International 15 Women's Day in the state of Michigan. We support the goals of 16 International Women's Day, recognize that the empowerment of women 17 is inextricably linked to the potential of countries to generate 18 economic growth, sustainable democracy, and inclusive security, 19 honor the women in the United States and around the world who have 20 worked throughout history to ensure that women are guaranteed
21 equality and basic human rights, reaffirm the movement's commitment 22 to ending discrimination and violence against women and girls, to 23 ensuring the safety and welfare of women and girls, and to pursuing 24 policies that guarantee the basic human rights of women and girls
25 worldwide, and encourage the people of Michigan to observe
26 International Women's Day with appropriate programs and activities.
