Rep. Beau Matthew LaFave, from the 108th District, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Lord,

We pray for the people of Michigan, and for all those we’ve lost in the preceding year due to this pandemic and all other causes – and we pray for their families – may they find solace in the knowledge that they are by Your side now.

And we pray for the people of this chamber and the Senate, members past and present. Let us today and everyday do Your will. And for the other public servants in local governments and the judicial, and executive branch, that they also be stewards of Your will.

All of these things and the prayers we hold silently in our hearts, we pray in the name of the father, the son and holy spirit – AMEN.”

Rep. Cambensy moved that Rep. Neeley be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Frederick moved that Rep. Schroeder be excused from today’s session.

Rep. Frederick moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Cynthia Johnson, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

In 2015, Stoni Blair and Stephen Berry were found dead in a deep freezer in Detroit. Before their murders, their mother, Michelle Blair, pulled them from public school to home school them. She admitted to killing Stoni and Stephen and storing them in the freezer, as well as admitted to charges of torture and neglect.

House Bill 4063 makes a change as it relates to home school students that, in a vacuum, makes sense. Parents who are homeschooling their children should be allowed to serve as the administrator who signs off on their child’s work permit.

However, in the grand scheme of things, the issue is one of checks and balances. Michigan’s homeschooling system has few opportunities child to be checked in on. In almost all cases, a check in, like a school administrator signing off on a work permit, is at most, a slight inconvenience. Unfortunately, as evidenced by the deaths of Stoni and Stephen, sometimes it is absolutely necessary and can be lifesaving.

Until we address the issue of checks and balances on our homeschool system, I cannot in good conscience, vote to remove the few ones we have.”

House Bill No. 4088, entitled

House Resolution No. 111.

A resolution to declare May 20, 2021, as Stop the Bleed Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The “Stop the Bleed” campaign is a national awareness effort to educate people about the importance of bleeding control measures, encourage all Michigan citizens to participate in the initiative, and learn more about the importance of bleeding control measures; and

Whereas, Each year, more than 240,000 people die from traumatic injuries sustained as a result of events including motor vehicle crashes, falls, industrial and farm accidents, natural disasters, tragic mass casualty events, and violence; and

Whereas, Trauma is the leading cause of death in the United States for individuals under age 44 and the third leading cause of death overall; and

Whereas, The most common preventable cause of death in these situations is the loss of too much blood in the minutes before trained immediate responders arrive; and

Whereas, Bleeding control is best performed with use of tourniquets or direct pressure within the initial moments of trauma and anyone can be trained to act as an immediate responder to stop a life-threatening hemorrhage. Military experience has proven that bleeding control techniques result in reduced rates of death from a hemorrhage; and

Whereas, May 20th is National Stop the Bleed Day. The “Stop the Bleed” campaign is a call-to-action movement intended to cultivate grassroots efforts that encourage bystanders to become trained, equipped, and empowered to help in a bleeding emergency before professional help arrives; and

Whereas, Providing Michigan citizens with the best chance of survival includes educating them with the knowledge and skills to perform immediate bleeding control and encouraging public places to equip bleeding control kits; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 20, 2021, as Stop the Bleed Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, We recognize the cultural and artistic contributions of hip hop to Michigan communities; and

Whereas, Hip hop culture has become a key to uplifting the spirit of many. Hip hop has greatly influenced the entertainment world with its creative contributions in music, dance, art, poetry, fashion, education, spirituality, and life; and

House Resolution No. 113.

A resolution to declare May 20, 2021, as Negro Leaguers Baseball Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Even though African-Americans were excluded from playing in the Major Leagues of their time with their white counterparts, the desire of many African-Americans to play baseball could not be repressed; and

Whereas, Major League Baseball did not fully integrate its leagues until July 1959; and

Whereas, African-Americans began organizing their own professional baseball teams in 1885; and

Whereas, The skills and abilities of Negro League players eventually made Major League Baseball realize the need to integrate the sport; and

Whereas, Seven separate baseball leagues, known collectively as the "Negro Baseball Leagues", were organized by African-Americans between 1920 and 1960; and

Whereas, The Negro Baseball Leagues included exceptionally talented players who played the game at its highest level; and

Whereas, On May 2, 1920, the Negro National League, the first successful Negro League, played its first game; and

Whereas, Andrew "Rube" Foster founded the Negro National League on February 13, 1920, at the Paseo YMCA in Kansas City, Missouri, and also managed and played for the Chicago American Giants, and was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

Whereas, Leroy "Satchel" Paige, who began his long career in the Negro Leagues and did not make his Major League debut until the age of 42, is considered one of the greatest pitchers the game has ever seen. During his long career, Paige thrilled millions of baseball fans with his skill and legendary showboating. His exemplary tenure began with winning his first big league victory in his first game on July 15, 1948. This momentous moment helped the Cleveland Indians on the road to winning the pennant the same year. He was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

Whereas, Josh Gibson, who was the greatest slugger of the Negro Leagues, tragically died months before the integration of baseball, and was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

Whereas, Jackie Robinson, whose career began with the Negro League Kansas City Monarchs, became the first African-American to play in the Major Leagues in April 1947, was named Major League Baseball Rookie of the Year in 1947, subsequently led the Brooklyn Dodgers to 6 National League pennants and a World Series championship, and was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

Whereas, Larry Doby, whose career began with the Negro League Newark Eagles, became the first African-American to play in the American League in July 1947, was an All-Star 7 times in the Major Leagues and 2-time American league home run leader, and was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

Whereas, John Jordan "Buck" O'Neil was a player and manager of the Negro League Kansas City Monarchs, became the first African-American coach in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs in 1962, served on the Veterans Committee of the National Baseball Hall of Fame, chaired the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum Board of Directors, and worked tirelessly to promote the history of the Negro Leagues; and

Whereas, James "Cool Papa" Bell played, coached, and managed in the Negro Leagues from 1922 to 1950, discovered, trained, and assisted numerous Negro League players into the Major Leagues, and was later inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame; and

Whereas, Minnie Minoso, the "Cuban Comet," played on the New York Cubans when they won the Negro League World Series, broke the color barrier on the Chicago White Sox when he joined the team in 1951, and was the first black Latino to play in the Major Leagues; and

Whereas, The talents of such players as Josh Gibson, James "Cool Papa" Bell, and Oscar Charleston earned them recognition in the Baseball Hall of Fame as well as the Sporting News List of Baseball Greatest Players; and

Whereas, Auto Zone Park in Memphis, Tennessee, hosted the inaugural Civil Rights Game between the defending World Champion St. Louis Cardinals and the Cleveland Indians in commemoration of the civil rights movement, on March 31, 2007; and

Whereas, Michigan made significant contributions to the Negro Leagues. The Detroit Stars, founded in 1919 by Tenny Blount and the father of black baseball Rube Foster, was a prominent charter member of the league. All but two of the seasons they played were winning seasons. They produced numerous Hall of Fame inductees, including Turkey Stearnes and Andy "Lefty" Cooper; and

Whereas, By achieving success on the baseball field, African-American baseball players helped break down color barriers and integrate African-Americans into all aspects of society in the United States: now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 20, 2021, as Negro Leaguers Baseball Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize the teams and players of the Negro Baseball Leagues for their achievements, dedication, sacrifices, and contributions to both baseball and our nation.
