Rep. David LaGrand, from the 75th District, offered the following invocation:

“Creator God,
 We pause before another day of session to give You thanks.
 We thank You for our gifts of free will, judgement, and our ability to act.
 We thank You for the gift of Michigan, our home, and the communities we love here, who loves us.
 Help us to honor our gifts.
 When we speak in this place, help us speak in love.
 When we examine one another’s motives, help us to start from love, and to presume motives of love and empathy from those we may disagree with.
 Help us to work, not fight. Help us to build, not in.
 We confess that our wisdom is limited.
 Forgive us when we make the wrong decision, or our decisions don’t achieve our intent.
 We confess that our pride and vanity can be stumbling blocks to our best service.
 Forgive us when we bask in flattery, and our resolve to do the right is weakened.
 Creator God, we know, when we pause and ponder, that the world is not ours to save. This is Your world.
 We are all weak, fallible, perishable creatures.
 Help us when we try.
 Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Rep. Rabhi moved that Rep. Liberati be excused from today’s session.
 The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 126.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Margaret O’Connor, former member of the House of Representatives.

Whereas, The members of this legislative body were saddened to learn of the passing of former Representative Margaret O’Connor. A strong advocate for limited government, she represented parts of Ann Arbor and the rural areas around it in the Fifty-second District with an unwavering resolve; and

Whereas, Margaret O’Connor was born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska, and would grow up to be a high school state champion swimmer. She attended Creighton University where she earned her bachelor’s degree in nursing education and met her husband, Gerald O’Connor. Married in 1953, she moved to Ann Arbor where she continued to work in nursing. While raising her family of 10 children, she became active in local politics, serving on the Lodi Township Board, Lodi Township Planning Commission, the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners, and the Washtenaw County Planning Commission. She also earned another bachelor’s degree in political science and public administration from Eastern Michigan University. In 1982, she was elected to the first of five terms in the Michigan House of Representatives; and

Whereas, Margaret O’Connor spent her 10 years in this chamber championing limited government spending and decreased regulation. She regularly opposed budget bills that included spending she felt was inappropriate and wasteful. A conservative leader within this chamber, she ably served on committees dealing with labor, public health, mental health, state affairs, and civil rights issues, and was minority vice chair on committees related to constitutional and women’s issues. Her integrity and dedication earned the respect and admiration of her constituents; and

Whereas, Margaret O'Connor remained active in her community long after her time in the House of Representatives. She became an expert in local history, co-founding the Lodi Township Historic Preservation Group and working to restore the Lodi Township Cemetery and the township hall; and

Whereas, Margaret O'Connor lived a long, full life dedicated to public service and family. Her decades of contributions to her community and our state have made a lasting legacy in which her family can take pride; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Margaret O'Connor, a member of this legislative body from 1983 to 1992; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the O'Connor family as evidence of our lasting esteem for her memory.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Reps. Bellino, Albert, Breen, Cherry, Haadsma, Hope, Kuppa, Sabo, Sneller, Steenland, Thanedar and Weiss offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 127.

A resolution to declare June 10, 2021, as Alcoholics Anonymous Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On June 10, 1935, Bill Wilson and Dr. Bob Smith first met and what grew out of that meeting was Alcoholics Anonymous; and

Whereas, Out of Alcoholics Anonymous, the 12 step program, a set of spiritual guiding principles to assist in recovery from alcoholism was developed; and

Whereas, Alcoholics Anonymous has been a positive guide for countless people the world over as they have battled the disease of alcoholism; and

Whereas, Numerous people, both in America and worldwide, are sober because of their experiences in Alcoholics Anonymous; and

Whereas, The 12 step program developed by Alcoholics Anonymous has been adopted by numerous other groups around the world to assist people struggling with other addictions, such as narcotics, gambling, and overeating; and

Whereas, We stand in solidarity with our families, friends, and neighbors struggling with alcoholism; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 10, 2021, as Alcoholics Anonymous Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Reps. Stone and Rogers, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted ‘no’ on Senate Bill 440 to preserve the integrity of the Certificate of Need (CON) process. The Positron Emission Tomography (PET) scanner at the center of this legislation is truly awe-inspiring technology and may be the future of modern medicine. However, this bill attempts to circumvent the CON process in a way that would benefit a specific for-profit company, setting a dangerous precedent.”

Rep. Lasinski, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted ‘no’ on Senate Bill 440 to preserve the integrity of the Critical of Need (CON) process. The Positron Emission Tomography (PET) scanner at the center of this legislation is truly amazing technology and may be the future of modern medicine. However, this bill attempts to circumvent the CON process in a way that would benefit a specific for-profit company, setting a dangerous precedent that, if continued, could lead to rising health care costs.”

Rep. Clemente, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted ‘no’ on Senate bill 440 to preserve the integrity of the Certificate of Need (CON) process. Explanation of “No” Votes

Rep. Cavanagh, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of House Bill No. 4688, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I am submitting a no-vote due to I do not believe we as legislators should limit people’s ability to use the knowledge and experience to advance their future or career.”

Rep. Yancey, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of House Bill Nos. 4687 and 4688, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Minorities are disproportionately impacted by this bill. Due to institutional racism, the number of black lobbyists and lawmakers in Lansing does not properly reflect our percentage of the total population. Closing the door to former lawmakers becoming lobbyists furthers the disadvantages we as black lawmakers face.”
