House Chamber, Lansing, Thursday, July 1, 2021.

12:00 Noon.

The House was called to order by the Clerk.

The roll was called by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, who announced that a quorum was not present.

Mr. Brian Mills, House Republican Policy Office Director, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Heavenly Father:

Thank You for many blessings You have provided to everyone that works in this chamber.

May those that work in and around the chamber continue to seek Your wisdom in everything that they do. May they humbly submit themselves to ask for Your guidance and Your direction – let them not boast or take credit for You have given them everything, You have provided them their opportunities and their wisdom.

In a society where credit is sought and title gained, let the meek inherit the Earth. Let those that praise and lift-up others and give thanks to You be examples and leaders for all others to follow in this house.

Heavenly father – we thank You for time that we are given, the opportunities You have provided and the fellowship You create for those in the chamber and we pray that You will continue to bless each of us in the journeys, joys and trials that wait.

In Jesus Christ we Pray.

Amen.”
