Rep. Julie A. Calley, from the 87th District, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father, in Philippians Chapter 2, we read, ‘Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of others. In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death—even death on a cross!’

Lord, we are sent here as public servants, and we cherish the example that You provided. May we work cohesively, serve humbly, seek Your wisdom, and be instruments of peace.

Thank You for our Sergeants, especially Chief Sergeant Dickson who is retiring, thank You for our office staff members, policy advisors, bill drafters, fiscal analysts, the House Clerks and their team, our communications experts, and the numerous other specialists who make activities in this Chamber possible. Their service is essential to the success of our great state. May You bless them richly.

And may our service to our constituents be thoughtful, sincere, and productive. In Your name we pray, Amen.”

Rep. Rabhi moved that Reps. Liberati and Whitsett be excused from today’s session. The motion prevailed.

Rep. Frederick moved that Reps. Griffin, Marino and Slagh be excused from today’s session. The motion prevailed.
