Rep. Sara Cambensy, from the 109th District, offered the following invocation:

“As I complete my third and final term in office, I have come to realize that the most effective leaders I’ve worked with are those who share the trait of being open-minded. They have a thirst for learning. They let their curiosity lead in conversations with those most different from themselves. They have honed their listening skills and have the ability to see things from a different perspective. They have respect for others beliefs and choices, even when they are vastly different than their own. And finally, they understand that their own beliefs at times can be limiting. It is when we are at our most convinced that we have something new to learn. My wish to all of my colleagues today and in the future, is that we continue to strive to be more open-minded in our work, in our conversations, and in our commitment to solving the problems of our constituents throughout every corner in our great state of Michigan.”

Rep. Rabhi moved that Reps. Anthony and Weiss be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Frederick moved that Rule 71 be suspended.
