Lord, may we listen closely for Your wisdom, share Your grace abundantly, and serve effectively. As the weather improves and more people are safe to resume their lives, please assist us in reengaging with relationships that went dormant. May we enjoy the beautiful outdoors—hiking, fishing, hunting, sightseeing. Michigan is truly an incredible place we are blessed to live and experience. May all of us be able to return to the old normal soon and education and business return to pre-pandemic levels. We have a bright future ahead. I ask that we lean on You for guidance on how we can do our part to protect the vulnerable and help the people we have the honor to represent. Thank You for each day. May we be a light and a blessing.

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Santana, Stamas and Hertel asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Santana's statement is as follows:

I rise today to provide an amendment to this budget to restore the FTEs to the current allocation, and also increase the department's request for ten FTEs to meet the insurance accommodations that we provided through the auto insurance reform policy. The fact of the matter is this: the Department of Insurance and Financial Services is an agency that oversees many areas of industry such as financial, banking, mortgage, insurance, and the like of which these industries requested for oversight and have skin in the game of 40 percent to help with that oversight.

So colleagues, today, we have made some really great modifications to our auto insurance reform, however, this department requires FTEs so that they are able to support our constituency and navigate them through these changes and modifications of which we supported. They also need support to make sure that not only are they overseeing the regulation of these industries, but also to make sure that we are being fiscally sound when it comes to the budgeting process, and also making sure that as these industries are regulated, they also have actuaries—professionals within the department—to make sure that they can accommodate real numbers and also make sure that the industry is not getting over on our proper constituency.

The other aspect of this, colleagues, is that many of our constituents live, breathe, and function by the industries that are overseen by this department and when we talk about cutting their FTEs, it puts a burden on the people we represent in our communities. So I'm asking my colleagues today in this chamber to support the restoration of the FTEs so that they can continue to do the great work that they've been doing not only during this pandemic, but beyond. And I ask for support of this amendment.

Senator Stamas' statement is as follows:

Colleagues, today is the fiscal year 2022 budget plan that meets our pressing issues, continues to provide critical services, and makes key investments to provide our state. During this process, it is our responsibility to remember the reality being faced by our family kitchen tables and our small businesses throughout Michigan as we make our spending decisions.

This plan continues a record level of support for Michigan schools—nearly $16 billion in total. We are increasing the minimum foundation allowance by $250 per pupil. This plan includes more funding to help cover the cost of school employee retirement, more resources for job training to help people return to work, and help businesses find talent that they desperately need; more funding to address childcare needs for people returning to work, new funding to incentivize localities to reduce their long-term debts, a 60 percent boost to the Pure Michigan campaign to help our hard-hit tourism and hospitality industry; and more funding to fix our local roads.

This budget plan increases investment and top priorities facing our state while living within our means. It is the next step in working with the House and the Governor to fulfill our responsibility of enacting a balanced budget by July. I ask and encourage you for your support.

Senator Hertel's statement is as follows:

As we move through these budgets today, I want to first say that I appreciate the work and the conversations that have gone on with the chairman and all the different subcommittee members. This is a step in the process, but it is only a first step. While there are many promises in these budgets, there are still big priorities that are missing from our state and still a lack of federal dollars that need to be spent in a relatively short amount of time to help us end this pandemic and actually get through our next budget cycle. None of this process is over until we all get into a room, find a way to work together, and come to an agreement. So while I appreciate the work, there are many "no" votes today on our side of the aisle. But I appreciate the statement of priorities and I appreciate the work toward the long-term goal of getting us all in the room together to finish this process and make sure that we all get what's best for the people of Michigan.

I would say that we've done this process now three times, maybe four, maybe five, depending on what you're counting, and I think the best products have come when we have all sat down and come together. So I will renew my calls for real negotiations in this process and ask that at the end of the day, that that's where we end up, because again today the people don't care if Republicans or Democrats win, they care about them winning and their families are what we should be concerned about. We should be worried about what happens in their house, not our house.

The following bill was read a third time:

Senate Bill No. 86, entitled

A bill to make appropriations for the department of licensing and regulatory affairs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2022; to provide for certain conditions on appropriations; to establish certain fees in connection with certain appropriations; and to provide for the expenditure of the appropriations.

The question being on the passage of the bill,

Senator Bayer offered the following amendments:

1. Amend page 11, line 16, after “saves” by striking out “750,000” and inserting “5,000,000” and adjusting the subtotals, totals, and section 201 accordingly.

2. Amend page 33, line 5, after “$” by striking out “750,000.00” and inserting “5,000,000.00”.

Senator Chang requested the yeas and nays.

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Bayer and Santana asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bayer’s statement is as follows:

I’m here to ask for your support on this amendment that would reinstate the Governor’s recommendation for $5 million for the Michigan Saves green bank, the nation’s first nonprofit green bank. It provides low-interest loans for energy efficiency and renewable clean energy, which is the future. Michigan should build its strength in clean, green energy for the future. It is critical energy infrastructure. Since its inception, Michigan Saves has provided $280 million in clean energy financing, job creation, and energy independence. And my business background compels me to look at our “why” on any kind of deal like this. Every dollar of public investment in this Michigan Saves bank leverages $30—30 to one—return on that investment. So right now, appreciating the work that was done on this budget to put $750,000 in here. $750,000, the average is $22 million in an external investment. That’s a great thing. But if we put the $5 million of funding in there, now we’re talking money. $150 million of additional external investment in clean energy, in good paying jobs, in local businesses to do the work. These things cannot be outsourced to other places. So I’m urging you to vote “yes” on my amendment for our clean energy for the local, good jobs that it brings.

Senator Santana’s statement is as follows:

Today I rise to offer this budget amendment to restore FTEs to the executive recommendation. When you look at the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs, they provide oversight to so many professionals across the state of Michigan to make sure they’re licensed adequately and that that process is fluid in our state. People renew their licenses on an annual basis for all types of professions. This department also works on our indigent defense funding which makes sure people who are pre-trial receive proper counsel, and making sure these departments are funded properly is important to making sure they can continue the great work to make sure that people are not being locked up or incarcerated or taking a plea deal that might not be to their benefit. They also provide so much support to our Liquor Control Commission which in this past year because of the pandemic we could say, but we did see an increase in those sales in our Liquor Control Commission department. We want to make sure there is adequate regulation and if we are minimizing the amount of support the department can provide, that oversight can be diminished. I think in this time and this season, that is not what we will require as a state.

With that said, I’m hoping all of my colleagues will support this amendment to restore the FTEs to the proper recommendation by the Executive Office and I ask for support of this amendment by my colleagues.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of General Orders

Senator Lauwers moved that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of the General Orders calendar.

The motion prevailed, and the President, Lieutenant Governor Gilchrist, designated Senator Brinks as Chairperson.

Substitute (S-3).

The following are the amendments to the substitute recommended by the Committee of the Whole:

and adjusting the subtotals, totals, and section 201 accordingly.

- 3. Amend page 54, following line 8, by inserting:

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Victory, Bayer, Irwin, Hertel, Bullock, Moss and McMorrow asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Victory’s first statement is as follows:

I’m asking that my colleagues vote “yes” on my amendment. This amendment would require the Secretary of State’s office to accommodate walk-in service as a part of their motto to help address the demand from the public to have those services available in a timely manner.

Senator Bayer’s statement is as follows:

This amendment will add the Governor’s recommended $20 million for cybersecurity, advanced persistent threat protection. Some of you know I do have a degree in computer science. I have also worked directly in online identity management and I know how important this funding can be and how real this threat is. Now you should know as well, having heard the news over the weekend of a ransomware cyber attack that shut down a major pipeline on the East Coast—major, critical infrastructure shut down because of a ransomware attack. The director of our Department of Technology, Management, and Budget—Ron Stibitz—has said that Michigan’s cybersecurity is the thing that keeps him awake at night. The stakes are really high here. This money that we’re talking about is to prevent, to prepare, and to fight against advanced persistent threats. This is not about high school hackers. This is about foreign governments’ highly-skilled, well-resourced people—usually funded by other countries. They have proven that they’re capable of shutting down governments. Without a lot of detail, I mean, this stuff is about vulnerability assessments, penetration testing, analytical tools, using artificial intelligence and machine learning to understand and be able to predict what’s going on and doing something about it. Enhanced, expanded risk mitigation, cloud security, firewalls, monitoring tools, all the things we need to keep our state running. I would say that when the department responsible for cybersecurity, responsible to prevent critical state systems and data from being held hostage for outrageous sums of money, and we decide that instead of the $20 million they think they need, we’re only going to give them $12 million—arbitrarily we just pick a smaller number—I would say that the cost of recovering our data would be a heck of a lot more than the $8 million we think we’re going to save here. I urge you to vote “yes” on this amendment, to protect data, to keep our operations running, and to take care of the people of the state of Michigan.

Senator Victory's second statement is as follows:

I appreciate the concerns on the amendment by the Senator from the 12th District, and just want to remind that we are retaining $12 million in this budget for this issue. As we go along through the process, we'll continue to have another dialogue and also seeing how this $12 million will be implemented as we continue to address this problem. At this point in time, I ask for a "no" vote on this amendment.

Senator Irwin's first statement is as follows:

I ask my colleagues for support on my amendment today which will help support our local governments in need. One of the major sources of revenue that our local governments have lost out on during this pandemic has been income tax. Many of our local governments have endured a significant negative impact to their budget because of that lost revenue, but there are other important local services that have lost major revenue during this pandemic and I feel that the state needs to step up and make sure our local governments are made whole—not just for revenue sharing, not just for income tax, but also for some important other priorities like, for instance, some of our local governments run recreation centers that have been empty, yet they have still been paying those employees and are ineligible for the PPP loans that might have helped some of our local businesses. Parking revenue is another major one that many of our communities have lost out on. Those bonds for those parking decks are still due; those bills are still coming due and they're still being paid by local governments. I offer this amendment to try to fill some of these major holes that our local partners are realizing as a result of the pandemic and I hope that if we cannot meet this need on budget with the regular budget, that my colleagues will still consider using some of the stimulus funds from the federal government to make sure our local governments see a piece of this help.

Senator Victory's third statement is as follows:

I appreciate the concerns that the Senator from the 18th District has presented here. At this point, I'm not supporting the amendment. The proposal here would replace two types of revenue but what about the other revenue streams that were hurt, and why would we replace these funds and not others? Additionally, this budget includes 2 percent revenue sharing to support all local units of government. At this point in time, I would ask members for a "no" vote.

Senator Irwin's second statement is as follows:

As you all know, the state has been working on this clergy abuse investigation for many years. It was started under the previous Attorney General, and one of the things we heard in the subcommittee was that there is a tremendous number of documents that need to be reviewed as a part of this investigation. It's very, very important that our residents get the justice they deserve from these cases of past abuse from clergy and I think it's important we fund this work of the Attorney General's office. I offer this amendment to put up a modest appropriation to make sure that our Attorney General's office has the resources to investigate this trove of documents related to the clergy sex abuse investigation.

Senator Hertel's statement is as follows:

Just to correct the record on the veto—the veto of that portion of that supplemental was an agreed-upon veto by the Majority Leader and the Speaker and the Governor at the beginning of this pandemic, and I would ask that we not refer to it in political terms as we move forward on this floor today considering that it was an agreement among all parties.

Senator Bullock's statement is as follows:

I rise in support of this amendment to restore the $5 million for our local first responder training and recruitment initiatives. It's been a challenging and transformational year with this coronavirus, but our first responders are vital to our community in times of just daily crises, let alone a pandemic. Over the past year, they've been at the forefront of COVID-19 response efforts, often overlooked and taken for granted; often risking their lives and their health, exposing themselves, their families and loved ones to the virus to help and serve others. So we owe it to them to support local efforts to train, recruit, and expand; maintain a level of safety, security, and sanity for our first responders. I urge a "yes" vote for this amendment and show support for the value of our first responders.

Senator Moss' statement is as follows:

On a previous amendment addressing revenue sharing, the subcommittee chairman said that we need a more comprehensive, across-the-board approach to revenue sharing, so I've got an amendment for that. In every budget cycle I talk about the need to boost revenue sharing and I give this speech every year because this problem persists. We know what revenue sharing is: the money that our constituents pay here to Lansing, and there is an expectation that that money is going to come back to our communities to pay for essential services back home. And again, this year, Michigan's local governments are projected to lose serious state funding. This is in part due to the pandemic, but our communities have been struggling for decades due to the Legislature balancing its books on the backs of cities, villages, and townships—our communities—the heart and soul of the state of Michigan. Every year I talk about the data provided by the Michigan Municipal League. They have this chart that shows how different states give that state funding to their local communities. And some states give it a lot, some states give it a little, and at the tail-end of that graphic is the state of Michigan, where the Legislature actually defunds our communities. $8.5 billion has been diverted away from our communities and our state since 2002. Those communities were especially hard hit from state action during harsh Executive Office budget cuts in 2011. Now since then, we've attempted to climb out of that hole, but it appears that revenue sharing is the only line-item from those 2011 cuts that has not been fully restored. Our communities are still $50 million short of where they were in 2011, let alone the cuts that took place a decade prior. So my amendment would boost state dollars to local budgets to address the projected loss and constitutional revenue sharing. Michigan communities and the people who live in them deserve to have thriving futures. I request a "yes" vote for this amendment.

Senator McMorro's statement is as follows:

My amendment restores the Governor's proposed $200,000 to increase FTEs in the Office of Children's Ombudsman. Recently I read a story of a four-month-old baby who was abandoned in the woods in Oakland County. Luckily, the child was found alive, but suffering from not enough food and from being cold. And thanks to incredible first responders and a hiker who heard the child crying and luckily the child is OK. Horrifying stories like this happen every single day. And colleagues, as we are talking about an office that investigates child abuse, neglect, and death. When they don't have enough staff, this translates into fewer cases being investigated and considering you're also cutting 781 full-time employees from the Department of Health and Human Services, can we really afford to cut here too, thinking about the lives that are at stake? Michigan is still under federal oversight from failures in our child welfare system. This is an area we must improve. While the OCO is independent of our state government, they provide another layer of protection for our children to help strengthen our child welfare system, and I ask for your support of this amendment.

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators McMorrow and Horn asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator McMorrow’s statement is as follows:

My amendment would restore $25 million for the Mobility Futures Initiative as per the Governor’s recommendation. This will not be the first time people in this room have heard me talking about the importance of this. There are four technologies that are disrupting Michigan’s auto-supply chain currently—autonomous, connected, shared, and electric. EV sales are set to surpass internal combustion engine vehicle sales by 2030. Michigan is currently a global leader in this space, but this is an area that is rapidly changing faster than any other time the industry has before; and we are not only set out to lose our place in leadership to states like California, but to countries like China that are investing very, very heavily in this space. Smarter infrastructure can reduce accidents up to 90 percent—we can save lives—and Michigan will need 12,000 people and these skills to retain and grow our position as a global leader in mobility. This program includes such exciting programs as the Lake Michigan EV Circuit, which would put electric vehicle chargers around Lake Michigan and at tourist destinations throughout our state, encouraging green tourism; and also fund the fleet transition program—Flip Your Fleet—encouraging small businesses and schools to switch over to electric school buses, which not only again support a critical industry of ours, but also protect kids who are standing at the level of bus exhaust as buses are idling at the end of the day. This will clean our air. It’s an innovative program that Michigan cannot afford to wait on because this industry, as I’ve mentioned, is changing more rapidly now than it ever has before.

Senator Horn's statement is as follows:

Over the past two weeks, there has been some consternation and confusion over the budget for the Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity—LEO.

First, I'd like to say that many of our shared priorities are properly addressed—such as Pure Michigan funding, the Going Pro Talent Fund, Michigan Reconnect, and many other programs to deal with Michigan's workforce shortage. In addition to opening our UIA offices to in-person visits, discussions need to take place to repair the catastrophically horrible 2020 management of unemployment claims. That should start immediately.

As Chair of the LEO/MEDC Appropriations Subcommittee and the Economic and Small Business Development Committee, I am interested in having both budget and policy discussions with the department. Following departmental testimony over the past two months, it became clear that a wall has been created between the administration and the Legislature. Various department and division heads have made it obvious that they intend to oversee state law with little or no input from state lawmakers. Many of us have worked with previous administrations on legislation initiated by departments for the purpose of streamlining operations or bringing clarity to existing law. We know that this can be done.

Instead, they choose to ignore the Legislature in crafting policy and actively work to re-interpret legislative intent. Outside of the Governor's emergency executive orders—later struck down by the Supreme Court—the most glaring example of the abuse of power are MIOASHA's actions to make permanent many of the temporary emergency rules that they themselves created. Under current state statute, certain departments of the state can promulgate rules in the event of an emergency. That authority lasts for six months, with the ability to extend that authority for a second six-month period. The latest extension, which ends on October 14, 2021, still includes words from the Governor's original E.O.s that read, "There is currently no approved vaccine or proven effective antiviral treatment for COVID-19."

In initiating the rulemaking process to make permanent its COVID-19 rules, LEO is ignoring both the intent of the law it operates under and 2020 advances made in medicine. This includes the presence of the very vaccine which the Governor cites as the sole marker for withdrawing the department's emergency rules. I can only conclude that the department is willfully ignoring the Legislature and modern science either out of ignorance or arrogance. Both choices are unacceptable in governing the people of the great state of Michigan.

Senate Bill No. 85 of 2021 is my budget recommendation for LEO. We were very cautious in reviewing this budget. The bill before you today reflects the Senate's priorities. It encourages the department work with us as envisioned by the people we serve. Senate Bill No. 85 essentially asks top decision-makers of LEO, its agencies, and divisions to review recent actions and ensure that it is properly interpreting legislative intent. My door is open to all department heads, many of whom I have a deep and abiding respect for. It is my hope that top administrators recognize the primary significance of our form of government—that it is driven by the consent of the people. We feel there is great value in understanding the will of the people as expressed by this Legislature.

Over time—together—we have produced well-established law. The administration should take serious note that the policy bills we work on together are as important as the appropriations bills we work on together. More simply put, if we aren't partners in creating good policy it makes it pretty darn hard to be partners in creating good budgets.

Let's pass Senate Bill No. 85. Let us resolve our differences with a partnership that Michiganders truly deserve and expect.

Senator Wojno asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Wojno’s statement is as follows:

Colleagues, this amendment restores the facility staff FTEs that were not included in the budget before us. Our prisons are 24/7 operations. Correction officers and key prison facility staff members are on the frontlines doing extremely important work to keep our communities safe. They face challenging circumstances every day during every shift. We must maintain adequate staffing numbers to ensure safety in our prison system throughout the state. This is the key to protecting prisoners and staff alike. I ask my colleagues for their support of my amendment.

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Bayer, Schmidt and Polehanki asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bayer’s statement is as follows:

This amendment is to fully fund for the Governor’s recommendation $2.9 million and the associated boilerplate to address the educator shortage. Michigan has been suffering from a teacher shortage for years and, like everything else that’s happened this year, it’s gotten a lot worse under the pandemic. Teachers are retiring at higher levels than ever and fewer people are entering the profession. Our teacher shortage has reached critical levels. Our teaching universities have no pipeline. Michigan needs to establish a program to build interest in this profession again that we’ve kind of ripped apart here or we’re going to face an incredible emergency situation here. We will not have enough teachers to keep our schools operating. We will see long-term, negative consequences in our education system, but actually the rest of our state as well. Without qualified teachers, our education will suffer and our students will suffer. Without an educated workforce, businesses will not only not come here, they’ll leave. Our state will suffer. I urge you, for the future of our businesses in this state, to vote “yes” on this amendment.

Senator Schmidt’s first statement is as follows:

I appreciate the comments from my colleague from the 12th District, but at this time we do have some programs in place in the higher education budget that address the goal of increasing recruitment in teaching and retention of teachers, specifically a program put in place by the late Senator Hood. So at this time, I urge my colleagues to vote “no.”

Senator Polehanki’s statement is as follows:

I have an amendment to direct $1.5 million to extend mental health supports for babies and children under five. Young babies and children absolutely do suffer mental health disorders and stress. In fact, toxic stress can actually change brain structure in young children. Unfortunately as with the rest of the population, COVID has exacerbated this problem. We have to do everything we can to help families treat mental health issues, even in our youngest residents. Research has shown that early screening for and immediate treatment of mental health issues and severe stress and trauma in young children is key to preventing lifelong mental health disorders. So this is both a moral and an economic issue. Cutting the $1.5 million for a mental health initiative for our youngest, most vulnerable population is cruel and short-sighted. It will lead to more suffering and it will cost our state significantly more in the long-run. So I encourage my colleagues to vote “yes” on my amendment.

Senator Schmidt’s second statement is as follows:

I appreciate the comments from my colleague in the 7th District. We are already funding social and emotional supports for students in K-12 through the Navigate360 program through an additional $55 million in mental health funding in section 31n and a new program called TRAILS. For those under the age of five, I believe it is best that we serve that population through the Department of Health and Human Services budget and so at this time I ask my colleagues to vote “no” on this amendment.

In The Chair: President

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senator McCann asked and was granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator McCann’s first statement is as follows:

The food and agriculture industry in Michigan is a $105 billion industry and my amendment would restore nearly 80 jobs that have been cut at the Department of Agriculture and Rural Development which are critical to managing its responsibilities to Michigan citizens. If we are going to support our food and agriculture businesses in Michigan, the department should be able to re-staff and retain staffing levels, which is also important to note that this is merely to keep their existing services and support running and is not looking to hire additional people from the previous fiscal year, although I don’t know why we wouldn’t support more people having jobs even if that were the case. Regardless, I ask my colleagues to support this amendment.

Senator McCann's second statement is as follows:

This amendment would restore the Governor's recommendation of $900,000 in ongoing funding for the Double Up Food Bucks program. This nationwide program started in Michigan and it's been widely successful for families and small businesses, providing more than 18 million pounds of healthy food for Michigan families. I ask my colleagues to support this amendment.

Senator McCann's third statement is as follows:

This amendment would restore a $100,000 cut to the food and safety quality assurance line of the Department of Agriculture and Rural Development budget. This division, as you know, is charged with protecting public health by ensuring a safe and wholesome food supply across our great state. Certainly we wouldn't want to make any reductions to these important public health functions, especially during a pandemic. So I would ask my colleagues for their support of this amendment.

Recess

Senator Lauwers moved that the Senate recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Statements

Senator Lauwers asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Lauwers’ statement is as follows:

This week, our country is again being reminded of the damage that can be done when a critical energy supply goes offline. The cyber attack on the Colonial Pipeline is already causing fuel shortages in several states and a spike in gas prices. Over the weekend, fuel went up over 25 cents in my neighborhood.

But in Michigan, it’s not an outside bad actor targeting our energy supply. It’s our own Governor. With the support of many of our colleagues across the aisle, Governor Whitmer has set a deadline for closing Line 5—tomorrow—without a realistic plan to replace the crucial source of transporting petroleum and propane to Michigan citizens, neighboring states, and Canada.

As we witness the damage created by the temporary shutdown of the Colonial line, it is estimated that the closure of Michigan’s Line 5 will result in a $3 billion hit to our Michigan economy. Forty-two percent of our gas, diesel fuel, and jet fuel moves through Line 5. How many of us are prepared to reduce our consumption—weekly and daily consumption—of fuel by 42 percent? When taking into account the entire region, it’s estimated that the Governor’s decision will result in a $21 billion annual economic impact and the loss of 34,000 jobs.

Mr. President, we have a very vivid example of just how much Governor Whitmer’s decision will harm Michigan when we look out these windows. On the Capitol lawn today there were 1,200 hard hats, representing a fraction of the steelworker jobs that will be lost if the Governor does what she has threatened to do and closes Line 5 tomorrow. That’s 1,200 union jobs.

Governor Whitmer and the Democrats in this chamber supporting her decision are sending a clear message to Michigan union workers—keeping radical environmental groups happy is more important to them than your jobs.

Mr. President, our state is slowly emerging from a year of record unemployment and financial hardship. Michiganders need quality job opportunities and reliable, affordable energy. The Governor’s closure of Line 5 will unnecessarily deny them of both.
