Office of Senator Jon Bumstead

May 26, 2021

Per the rules of the Michigan Senate, I wish to remove my name as sponsor of Senate Bill 265.

Originally SB 265 was supposed to suspend the third-grade reading law for the current school year. The suspension of these requirements is justified for the current school year because of the COVID-19 pandemic and the inconsistent experience that students had in their schools. But more than the justification of the pandemic, it's just the right thing to do.

The substitute version of SB 265 is flawed in that it creates more mandates from Lansing to our local school districts and implements a 4th grade retention component for students next school year. Our students, teachers, administrators and parents do not need more mandates from Lansing. They need our help and empathy for all that they've gone through.

In addition to the contents of the S-1 being bad, the changes contained within the substitute were never negotiated with me or my staff. If these ideas would have been brought to me directly I would have flat out rejected those changes.

The students of the 34th Senate District deserve better than the contents of the S-1 version of SB 265, which is why I request to remove my name as sponsor of the bill.

Sincerely,
Jon Bumstead
State Senator
34th District

The communication was referred to the Secretary for record.

Senator Bullock entered the Senate Chamber.

Resolutions

Senator VanderWall offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 56.

A resolution to designate May 2021 as Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month.

Whereas, Michigan has 243,483 registered motorcycles and 503,110 individuals who have operator licenses with a motorcycle endorsement; and

Whereas, The safe operation of a motorcycle requires the use of special skills developed through a combination of training and expertise, the use of good judgment, and a thorough knowledge of traffic laws and licensing requirements; and

Whereas, The use of proper protective riding apparel is an important part of a motorcycle operator’s responsibility; and

Whereas, The advocacy of motorcycle safety awareness is a cooperative effort to decrease the number of injuries and fatalities associated with motorcycling; and

Whereas, The promotion of motorcycle rider education programs available through the Michigan Department of State, including recommendations that motorcycle operators wear the proper gear, in addition to driving their vehicles defensively and cautiously, is intended to reduce the number of crashes; and

Whereas, The emergence of spring is synonymous with the return of motorcycle enthusiasts to our roadways. Throughout Michigan, motorcyclists are on the cutting edge of supporting the wise and sensible use of this enjoyable mode of travel; and

Whereas, Indeed, the disproportionate number of motorcycle fatalities make it vitally important to encourage motorcyclists to understand and practice the highest degree of safety. It is also important to remind other drivers that highway safety is beneficial to all parties traveling on public roadways; and

Whereas, Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month encourages motorcycle operators to wear proper protective riding attire, maintain their motorcycles using safety and maintenance checks found in the owner’s manual, abide by the laws of the road, and implement operating techniques that provide an additional standard of safety; and

Whereas, Car and truck drivers are informed of the fact that motorcyclists are resuming their travels on our public roadways and all are advised to be exceptionally vigilant and watchful when approaching or passing a motorcycle; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body designate May 2021 as Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month. We encourage all of Michigan's citizens to participate in the aims and goals of this safety effort.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Lauwers moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senator Horn was named co-sponsor of the resolution.

Senator VanderWall asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator VanderWall's statement is as follows:

Senate Resolution No. 56 would declare May 2021 as Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month. As an avid rider, this is an issue that is near and dear to my heart. Heading into summer months, motorcycle enthusiasts are starting to take to the roads in great numbers. Unfortunately, Michigan has been trending in the wrong direction over the last few years when it comes to motorcycle safety. The disproportionate number of motorcycle fatalities makes it vitally important to encourage motorcyclists to understand and practice the highest degree of safety. It is also to remind other drivers that the highway is shared by both motorcycles and other vehicles and it's beneficial to all parties that are traveling on the roadways. I please ask that you don't text while driving and always keep your eyes on the road.

To mark Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month, I'm encouraging all motorcyclists to be aware of their surroundings, maintain their motorcycles as recommended, abide by the laws of the road, and implement operating techniques that provide an additional standard of safety. I also am imploring that car and truck drivers be exceptionally vigilant and watchful when approaching or passing motorcycles. Please pay extra attention for motorcycles that are sharing the road with you.

I ask for support for this important resolution recognizing May 2021 as Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 5.

A concurrent resolution to reaffirm states' rights under the United States Constitution to establish election laws.

Whereas, Traditionally, and as empowered through the U.S. Constitution, states set and administer their own election policies. While there is some congressional power regarding election laws, state legislatures are the proper bodies and best-suited to set laws on election matters; and

Whereas, Federal legislation that seeks to regulate registration, voting, and other election matters, like H.R. 1 of 2021, represents a massive overreach into state election administration. H.R. 1 would force many misguided policies upon states, such as impeding the maintenance of voter registration rolls to be accurate and up-to-date, hampering the enforcement of sensible voter identification standards, and banning the regulation of ballot harvesting. These and other items in the legislation have the effect of federalizing state elections, are conducive to chaos in elections administration, and invite voter fraud. Such legislation is simply an unwanted and unwarranted intrusion into the power of states to administer elections. Every state knows best how to conduct its elections; and

Whereas, Any election reform efforts should be left to the states and focus on ensuring that the system is safe, secure, and fair. Citizens deserve to know that the outcome of elections are free from fraud and irregularities, with policies to this effect rightly set by each state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we reaffirm states' rights under the United States Constitution to establish election laws; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The House of Representatives has adopted the concurrent resolution.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the concurrent resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Lauwers moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Brinks asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Brinks' statement is as follows:

I often say that I have the best team in Lansing—and I mean it. For the last two years, that is in no small part because of somebody we have to bid farewell to today in my office—Emma Repp. It is with sadness that I have to rise, but it is also with gratitude, of course, for her service to me, to our staff, and to the people of the 29th District.

Emma has been our constituent services—front desk, as we like to say—director for all of the pandemic, and the better part of the last two years. She has been exceedingly patient, kind, empathetic, hard-working, and conscientious. She has been the consummate team player. She’s excellent at responding to the ever-changing schedule—and everybody in this room knows how important that is, and you know that the person in charge of the schedule is really the most important person in the office. But really, to me I think, she’s been the most important person in our office because of the service she has provided to the people of the 29th District in this very difficult year especially. The work that she has done to help constituents has just been unmatched. She has been, as I said, patient, kind, empathetic. If you have ever had the opportunity to listen to your staff members as they talk to your constituents from the other room, you know what kind of special person it takes to truly listen to people when they’re having a crisis, to truly understand what it is they need from you and how you can help them. Emma has just been without question excellent on all scores.

She will be incredibly missed by not just me, but by the rest of my team who are up in the Gallery today, and by the constituents of the 29th District. Emma, we wish you well in your future endeavors, we thank you, and I ask my colleagues to join me in thanking you for the service to the people of the state of Michigan.

Statements

Senator Moss asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Moss’ statement is as follows:

My mom doesn’t fly—and that’s a whole other speech—but because she doesn’t fly, family vacations growing up were always road trips, and every winter we’d drive a two-day trip down to Florida that included an overnight stay in Tennessee or Georgia. Those trips kind of blend together in my memory, but there was one stop for dinner at a roadside diner that I vividly remember. I must have been about eight or nine and my sister and I were on one side of the booth and our parents were on the other side of the booth, and behind them was an older couple talking to each other while reading the newspaper. I couldn’t make out what they were saying. As we got up to leave, my dad turned to the older couple and I remember the exact phrase he told them in a way that only my dad speaks. “Next time, cut out the antisemitism.”

Turns out, this couple had been reading the newspaper and my parents overheard them blame every problem, every societal ill, every bad headline in the newspaper on Jews. As a kid, I kind of broadly understood the notion that Jews had a history of being persecuted and targeted just because we are Jews. That history is central to the annual telling of the story of Passover, it’s central to Holocaust survivors who recount the horrors that they confronted, and I know my own family history—all of my great-grandparents fled their homes from eastern Europe for America in the early 1900s to escape rampant persecution of Jews—but I had never personally witnessed or experienced active, intentional disdain, disgust, hatred toward Jewish people until that moment with the couple at that diner. It was unnerving, especially for a young child.

What I’ve heard and seen over the last few years, however, even in the last few weeks, makes that story at the diner seem quaint. Hatred of Jews today is more brazen, it’s more violent, and it’s getting worse very fast. High profile shootings of synagogues across the country, vandalism of synagogues here in Michigan—in Hancock and Grand Rapids—white nationalist rallies chanting ‘Jews will not replace us,’ not to mention the ugly antisemitic slogans and signs that we all saw on the Capitol grounds here last spring. According to the Anti-Defamation League, antisemitic incidents were at an historically high level across the country in the United States in 2020 with more than 2,000 reported incidents of assault, harassment, and vandalism. Here in Michigan, cases of antisemitism rose by 21 percent in 2020—that’s a spike of a staggering 240 percent since 2016. In Oakland County where I represent—and it’s home to the greatest proportion of Jews in Michigan—we experienced a record 35 antisemitic incidents over the past four years, accounting for nearly 25 percent of Michigan’s total antisemitic incidents, and that’s just what’s reported.

Just this month, in May 2021, during Jewish-American Heritage Month no less, we’ve heard the vitriol on the far right and the far left. Earlier this month, a Michigan House committee hearing compared the public health response of the pandemic to the Holocaust, perverting what antisemitism is, thereby giving space to people to minimize it when it occurs. There’s also been broad generalizations of a nuanced and complicated conflict in the Middle East that deserves so much more critical analysis than can fit into the 280 characters that some people have been overly eager to tweet. That rhetoric has consequences too. The ADL tracked a 62 percent increase in antisemitic incidents in the U.S. during the two weeks of the most recent conflict compared to the two weeks before, including brutal beatings of American Jews, vandalism of Jewish institutions, and 17,000 tweets using a variation of the phrase ‘Hitler was right’ between May 7 and May 14.

This is worthy of our strongest condemnation, or as my dad would say, Cut out the antisemitism. It’s a tough time to be Jewish in America when incendiary words lead to violent actions. Jews intimately know it can lead to even worse. I’m proud to be Jewish, but that doesn’t mean at times it isn’t an isolating, lonely experience. This moment requires leaders—both Jewish and non-Jewish—to stand up and call out the hatred of Jewish people wherever it exists, even if it’s in our own political circles. I hope my colleagues on both sides of the aisle will heed this call.
