Rep. Tom Kunse, from the 100th District, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father, I want to thank You for loving a sinner like me.

We are unworthy of Your grace; we cannot earn Your forgiveness but we should be forever grateful for the mercies and love that You freely give to everyone of us.

Remind us that we are all made in Your image and that Your greatest commandment is to love your neighbor.

Help us to fight our foolish pride and to work together for the people of Michigan.

Help us to listen with open hearts and clear minds.

Help us to always see the best in our neighbors and in our colleagues and in ourselves.

Dear Lord, help us do the work that You sent us here to do together.

Let us be examples of Your love.

In Your holy name we pray, amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Rep. Posthumus moved that Reps. Bruck and Markkanen be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Hope moved that Reps. Neeley and Aiyash be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Coleman, Hill, Rogers, Wilson, Liberati, McKinney, McFall, Fitzgerald, Snyder, Breen, Glanville and Haadsma offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 113.

A resolution to declare May 24, 2023, as National Aviation Maintenance Technician Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, May 24 is observed to commemorate the work of aviation maintenance professionals; and

Whereas, National AMT Day is an opportunity to celebrate the many contributions AMTs have made to the aviation industry and recognizes the important tasks carried out by AMTs every day; and

Whereas, National AMT Day was selected in honor of Charles Edward Taylor’s birthday, who worked with the Wright Brothers and built the engine used to power their airplane; and

Whereas, Today, our nation’s AMTs are responsible for ensuring the safety and mechanical reliability and support of thousands of aircrafts every day and have a critical role in keeping millions of people safe each year; and

Whereas, AMTs are responsible for servicing aircrafts, aircraft engineers, and aircraft components, as well as avionics systems according to airline and FAA specifications. They also perform inspections during assembly of parts and after repair or installation of components, document maintenance procedures including component damage, origin, and condition. AMTs also practice safety conscious behaviors in all operational processes and procedures; and

Whereas, But the need for highly skilled aviation professionals such as AMTs continues to grow. Boeing projects 60,000 new AMTs will be needed to maintain the global commercial aviation fleet over the next 20 years; and

Whereas, Delta Airlines’ TechU program has partnerships with more than 50 Maintenance Training programs across the U.S. including Miat College of Technology, Lansing Community College, and Western Michigan University. Through these partnerships, they offer tours and career guidance for the schools as well as training opportunities for instructors; and

Whereas, AMTs consist of the aviation's top talent and enjoy competitive compensation. The job of an AMT is a career position and within seven years, a two-licensed AMT will make a salary of more than $100,000 a year; and

Whereas, Recruiting and workforce development strategies in the coming years will be necessary; and

Whereas, Airlines such as Delta will need to have a multi-pronged recruitment and professional development effort to help identify, source, and support the next generation of AMTs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 24, 2023, as National AMT Day in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That we recognize the contributions of these important airline professionals and the need to shine a continued spotlight on these important aviation careers now and into the future.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Coleman moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Resolution No. 113.

A resolution to declare May 24, 2023, as National Aviation Maintenance Technician Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, May 24 is observed to commemorate the work of aviation maintenance professionals; and

Whereas, National AMT Day is an opportunity to celebrate the many contributions AMTs have made to the aviation industry and recognizes the important tasks carried out by AMTs every day; and

Whereas, But the need for highly skilled aviation professionals such as AMTs continues to grow. Boeing projects 60,000 new AMTs will be needed to maintain the global commercial aviation fleet over the next 20 years; and

Whereas, Airlines have partnerships with Maintenance Training programs across the U.S. including many here in Michigan. Through these partnerships, they offer tours and career guidance for the schools as well as training opportunities for instructors; and

Whereas, AMTs consist of the aviation's top talent and enjoy competitive compensation. The job of an AMT is a career position and within seven years, a two-licensed AMT will make a salary of more than $100,000 a year; and

Whereas, Recruiting and workforce development strategies in the coming years will be necessary; and

Resolved, That we recognize the contributions of these important airline professionals and the need to shine a continued spotlight on these important aviation careers now and into the future.

The question being on the adoption of the substitute (H-1) offered by Rep. Coleman,

Rep. Hope moved that consideration of the resolution be postponed for the day.

The motion prevailed.

Reps. Conlin, McKinney, Morse, Martus, Arbit, Rheingans, Coleman, Farhat, Fitzgerald, Grant, Wilson, MacDonell, Liberati, Hill, Brabec, Wegela, Tsernoglou, Rogers, Bezotte, Morgan, Skaggs, Paiz, Snyder, Glanville, Hood, Breen, Churches and Haadsma offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 4.

A concurrent resolution to urge Congress to amend 38 USC § 5304 and 10 USC § 12316 to permit members of the United States reserves and National Guard to receive full or partial active service pay in tandem with disability compensation from the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Whereas, Many United States veterans may receive disability compensation from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) while also receiving income from gainful employment. VA disability compensation is available for those who have an illness or injury affecting their mind or body that was incurred or aggravated in the line of duty. Offering this additional compensation to veterans who work to support themselves supplements their income and strengthens their financial security, the least our nation can offer to those who have sacrificed so much for it; and

Whereas, Currently, federal statute prohibits individuals serving in the National Guard or the military reserves from simultaneously receiving VA disability compensation and active service pay. Under 38 USC § 5304(c) and 10 USC § 12316, veterans are not allowed to receive VA disability pay for periods for which they receive active service pay, with a narrow exception for those called to active duty for an extended time during a war or national emergency. As a result, members of the reserves or National Guard must waive either their VA disability compensation or their active duty pay for full-time training and drills, and the government may take back any excess payments these service members receive; and

Whereas, The rule forbidding simultaneous receipt of VA disability compensation and active service pay for work as a member of the reserves or National Guard is an unjust double standard that disincentivizes service to our nation. Many veterans are willing and able to serve in the reserves or National Guard despite their service-related disabilities, but if they choose further service to their country over other employment, they lose the opportunity to receive VA disability compensation to support themselves and their families. These veterans are faced with a bitter choice between their financial needs and comfort and their duty to their units and their country. The United States should not have policies that actively discourage honorable veterans from continuing to serve, and our laws should reflect the gratitude we hold for them; and

Whereas, Many Michigan veterans could benefit from the repeal of the prohibition on simultaneous receipt of VA disability compensation and active service pay. As of 2021, 83.9 percent of the individuals serving in the reserves or National Guard in Michigan were under the age of 41. In fiscal year 2019, 25,917 individuals between ages 17 and 44 received VA disability compensation in Michigan. Many of these individuals may be ready and able to serve in the reserves or National Guard, but they are actively discouraged from doing so to protect their financial security; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we urge Congress to amend 38 USC § 5304 and 10 USC § 12316 to permit members of the United States reserves and National Guard to receive full or partial active service pay in tandem with disability compensation from the Department of Veterans Affairs; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, the members of the Michigan congressional delegation, and the Secretary of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Military, Veterans and Homeland Security.
