1 A resolution to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the 2 founding of Junior Chamber International (JCI) Michigan.

3 Whereas, Junior Chamber International (JCI) is a leadership
4 training and public service organization that was founded in 1924;
5 and

6 Whereas, JCI Michigan teaches thousands of young Michiganders
7 leadership skills and provides professional development 8 opportunities; and

9 Whereas, Jaycees in Michigan perform numerous hours of 10 community service that support community projects across the state;
11 and

12 Whereas, They have provided their members with connections

1 that help build international networks; and

2 Whereas, JCI Michigan gives its members the skills and 3 experience to become leaders in their communities and in business;
4 and

5 Whereas, JCI Michigan contributes greatly to Michigan's 6 economy through following the Jaycee creed of "Economic justice can 7 best be won by free men through free enterprise"; and

8 Whereas, JCI Michigan is a force for good through the growth
9 and development of a civic organization for young people instilling
10 American spirit and ideals; and

11 Whereas, As a force of positive change in our state, JCI
12 Michigan fosters a community of selfless and professional leaders;
13 now, therefore, be it
