ESTATES AND PROTECTED INDIVIDUALS CODE (EXCERPT) Act 386 of 1998

700.7111 Nonjudicial settlement agreement.

Sec. 7111.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2), interested persons may enter into a binding nonjudicial settlement agreement with respect to any matter involving a trust.
- (2) A nonjudicial settlement agreement is valid only to the extent it does not violate a material purpose of the trust and includes terms and conditions that could be properly approved by the court under this article or other applicable law. A nonjudicial settlement agreement shall not be used to accomplish the termination or modification of the trust.
 - (3) Matters that may be resolved by a nonjudicial settlement agreement include any of the following:
 - (a) The interpretation or construction of the terms of the trust.
 - (b) The approval of a trustee's report or accounting.
- (c) Direction to a trustee to perform or to refrain from performing a particular act or to grant to or to withhold from a trustee any power.
 - (d) The resignation or appointment of a trustee and the determination of a trustee's compensation.
 - (e) Transfer of a trust's principal place of administration.
 - (f) Liability of a trustee for an action relating to the trust.
- (4) Any interested person or trustee may request the court to approve or disapprove a nonjudicial settlement agreement. On a determination that the representation as provided in part 3 was adequate, that the agreement does not violate a material purpose of the trust, and that the agreement contains terms and conditions the court could have properly approved, the court shall enter an order approving the agreement.
- (5) As used in this section, "interested persons" means persons whose consent would be required in order to achieve a binding settlement were the settlement to be approved by the court.
