

THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE (EXCERPT)
Act 175 of 1927

767.23a Grand jury; indictment; specifying county where offense took place.

Sec. 23a.

A grand jury convened under section 7c may indict a person for an offense committed in any county over which the grand jury has jurisdiction. If the grand jury indicts a person under this subsection, the grand jury shall specify in the indictment the county or counties in which the offense took place.
