The People of the State of Michigan enact:

CHAPTER XIIA

- 712A.1 Definitions; proceedings not considered criminal proceedings; construction of chapter. [M.S.A. 27.3178(598.1)]
 - Sec. 1. (1) As used in this chapter:
- (a) "Civil infraction" means that term as defined in section 113 of the revised judicature act of 1961, 1961 PA 236, MCL 600.113.
- (b) "County juvenile agency" means that term as defined in section 2 of the county juvenile agency act, 1998 PA 518, MCL 45.622.
 - (c) "Court" means the family division of circuit court.
- (d) "MCI" means the Michigan children's institute created and established by 1935 PA 220, MCL 400.201 to 400.214.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided, proceedings under this chapter are not criminal proceedings.
- (3) This chapter shall be liberally construed so that each juvenile coming within the court's jurisdiction receives the care, guidance, and control, preferably in his or her own home, conducive to the juvenile's welfare and the best interest of the state. If a juvenile is removed from the control of his or her parents, the juvenile shall be placed in care as nearly as possible equivalent to the care that should have been given to the juvenile by his or her parents.
- 712A.13b Change in foster care placement. [M.S.A. 27.3178(598.13b)]
- Sec. 13b. (1) If a child under the court's jurisdiction under section 2(b) of this chapter, or under MCI jurisdiction, control, or supervision, is placed in foster care, the agency shall not change the child's placement except under 1 of the following circumstances:
 - (a) The person providing the foster care requests or agrees to the change.

- (b) Even though the person providing the foster care objects to a proposed change in placement, 1 of the following applies:
 - (i) The court orders the child returned home.
- (ii) The change in placement is less than 30 days after the child's initial removal from his or her home.
- (iii) The change in placement is less than 90 days after the child's initial removal from his or her home, and the new placement is with a relative.
 - (iv) The change in placement is in accordance with other provisions of this section.
- (2) Except as provided in subsections (1) and (7), before a change in foster care placement takes effect, the agency shall do all of the following:
 - (a) Notify the state court administrative office of the proposed change in placement.
- (b) Notify the foster parents of the intended change in placement and inform them that, if they disagree with the decision, they may appeal within 3 days to a foster care review board. A foster parent may appeal orally, but must submit the appeal in writing immediately following the oral appeal. The agency shall provide the foster parents with the address and telephone number of a foster care review board with jurisdiction over the child.
- (c) Maintain the current placement for not less than the time for appeal to the foster care review board and if a foster parent appeals, until the foster care review board determination.
- (3) Upon receipt of an appeal from foster parents under subsection (2) or (7), the foster care review board shall investigate the change in foster care placement and shall report its findings and recommendations within 3 days to the court or, if the child is under MCI jurisdiction, control, or supervision, the MCI superintendent, to the foster care parents, to the parents, and to the agency.
- (4) If after investigation the foster care review board determines that the move is in the child's best interests, the agency may move the child.
- (5) If after investigation the foster care review board determines that the move is not in the child's best interest, the agency shall maintain the current placement until a finding and order by the court or, if the child is under MCI jurisdiction, control, or supervision, a decision by the MCI superintendent. However, the agency shall not return a child to a placement from which the child was removed under subsection (7) unless the court orders that placement's restoration under subsection (6) or the MCI superintendent approves that placement's restoration under this subsection. The foster care review board shall notify the court, or if the child is under MCI jurisdiction, control, or supervision, the MCI superintendent, about the board's and agency's disagreement. The court shall set a hearing date and provide notice to the foster parents, each interested party, and the prosecuting attorney if the prosecuting attorney has appeared in the case. The court shall set the hearing no sooner than 7 and no later than 14 days after receipt of the notice from the foster care review board. The rules of evidence do not apply to a hearing required by this subsection. Within 14 days after notification under this subsection, the MCI superintendent shall make a decision regarding the child's placement and shall inform each interested party what the decision is.
- (6) After hearing testimony from the agency and any other interested party and considering any other evidence bearing upon the proposed change in placement, the court shall order the continuation or restoration of the placement unless the court finds that the proposed change in placement is in the child's best interests.

- (7) If the agency has reasonable cause to believe that the child has suffered sexual abuse or nonaccidental physical injury, or that there is substantial risk of harm to the child's emotional well-being, the agency may change the child's foster care placement without complying with subsection (1) or (2)(b) or (c). The agency shall include in the child's file documentation of its justification for action under this subsection. If a foster parent objects to the removal of a child under this subsection, he or she may appeal to the foster care review board within 3 days after the child's removal. The foster parent may appeal orally, but must submit the appeal in writing immediately following the oral appeal.
- (8) At the time of or immediately following a child's removal under subsection (7), the agency shall inform the foster parents about the removal and that, if they disagree with the decision, they may appeal within 3 days to a foster care review board in the manner provided in subsection (7). The agency shall provide the foster parents with the address and telephone number of a foster care review board with jurisdiction over the child.
- 712A.19a Permanency planning hearing; conditions; time limitation; purpose; notice; statement; return of child to parent; noncompliance with case service plan; other conditions as evidence; termination of parental rights to child; alternative placement plans; information considered as evidence. [M.S.A. 27.3178(598.19a)]
- Sec. 19a. (1) Subject to subsection (2), if a child remains in foster care and parental rights to the child have not been terminated, the court shall conduct a permanency planning hearing within 1 year after an original petition has been filed. Except as otherwise provided in section 19(4) of this chapter, the court shall hold a review hearing not more than 91 days after the original permanency planning hearing and every 91 days after that so long as the child is subject to the jurisdiction, control, or supervision of the court, or of the Michigan children's institute or other agency. A permanency planning hearing may be combined with a review hearing held under section 19(3) of this chapter.
- (2) The court shall conduct a permanency planning hearing within 28 days after a petition is adjudicated and the parent is found to have abused the child or a sibling of the child and the abuse included 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) Abandonment of a young child.
- (b) Criminal sexual conduct involving penetration, attempted penetration, or assault with intent to penetrate.
 - (c) Battering, torture, or other severe physical abuse.
 - (d) Loss or serious impairment of an organ or limb.
 - (e) Life threatening injury.
 - (f) Murder or attempted murder.
 - (g) Voluntary manslaughter.
- (h) Aiding, abetting, attempting, conspiring, or soliciting the commission of murder or voluntary manslaughter.
- (3) If a child remains in foster care and parental rights to the child have not been terminated, the court shall conduct a permanency planning hearing within 1 year after an initial hearing under subsection (1) or (2), and within 1 year after each subsequent hearing.
- (4) A permanency planning hearing shall be conducted to review the status of the child and the progress being made toward the child's return home or to show why the child should not be placed in the permanent custody of the court.
- (5) Not less than 14 days before a permanency planning hearing, written notice of the hearing and a statement of the purposes of the hearing, including a notice that the hearing may result in further proceedings to terminate parental rights, shall be served upon all of the following:

- (a) The agency. The agency shall advise the child of the hearing if the child is 11 years of age or older.
 - (b) The foster parent or custodian of the child.
 - (c) If the parental rights to the child have not been terminated, the child's parents.
 - (d) If the child has a guardian, the guardian for the child.
 - (e) If the child has a guardian ad litem, the guardian ad litem for the child.
 - (f) If tribal affiliation has been determined, the elected leader of the Indian tribe.
- (g) The attorney for the child, the attorneys for each party, and the prosecuting attorney if the prosecuting attorney has appeared in the case.
 - (h) If the child is 11 years of age or older, the child.
 - (i) Other persons as the court may direct.
- (6) If parental rights to the child have not been terminated and the court determines at a permanency planning hearing that the return of the child to his or her parent would not cause a substantial risk of harm to the child's life, physical health, or mental wellbeing, the court shall order the child returned to his or her parent. In determining whether the return of the child would cause a substantial risk of harm to the child, the court shall view the failure of the parent to substantially comply with the terms and conditions of the case service plan prepared under section 18f of this chapter as evidence that return of the child to his or her parent would cause a substantial risk of harm to the child's life, physical health, or mental well-being. In addition to consider any condition or circumstance of the child that may be evidence that a return to the parent would cause a substantial risk of harm to the child's life, physical health, or mental well-being.
- (7) If the court determines at a permanency planning hearing that the child should not be returned to his or her parent, the court shall order the agency to initiate proceedings to terminate parental rights to the child not later than 42 days after the permanency planning hearing, unless the court finds that initiating the termination of parental rights to the child is clearly not in the child's best interests.
- (8) If the agency demonstrates under subsection (7) that initiating the termination of parental rights to the child is clearly not in the child's best interests, then the court shall order either of the following alternative placement plans:
- (a) If the court determines that other permanent placement is not possible, the child's placement in foster care shall continue for a limited period to be stated by the court.
- (b) If the court determines that it is in the child's best interests, the child's placement in foster care shall continue on a long-term basis.
- (9) In making the determinations under this section, the court shall consider any written or oral information concerning the child from the child's parent, guardian, custodian, foster parent, child caring institution, relative with whom the child is placed, or guardian ad litem in addition to any other evidence, including the appropriateness of parenting time, offered at the hearing.
- 712A.19b Termination of parental rights to child; petition; hearing; record; notice; findings; order; "concerned person" defined. [M.S.A. 27.3178(598.19b)]
- Sec. 19b. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4), if a child remains in foster care in the temporary custody of the court following a review hearing under section 19(3) of this chapter or a permanency planning hearing under section 19a of this chapter or if a child remains in the custody of a guardian or limited guardian, upon petition of the prosecuting attorney, whether or not the prosecuting attorney is representing or acting as legal consultant to the agency or any other party, or petition of the child, guardian, custodian, concerned person as defined in subsection (6), agency, or children's ombudsman as authorized in section 7 of the children's ombudsman act, 1994 PA 204, MCL 722.927, the court shall hold a hearing to determine if the parental rights to a child should be terminated and, if all parental rights to the child are terminated, the child placed in permanent custody of the court. The court shall state on the record or in writing its findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to whether or not parental rights should be terminated. The court shall issue an opinion or order regarding a petition for termination of parental rights within 70 days after the commencement of the initial hearing on the petition. However, the court's failure to issue an opinion within 70 days does not dismiss the petition.

- (2) Not less than 14 days before a hearing to determine if the parental rights to a child should be terminated, written notice of the hearing shall be served upon all of the following:
- (a) The agency. The agency shall advise the child of the hearing if the child is 11 years of age or older.
 - (b) The child's foster parent or custodian.
 - (c) The child's parents.
 - (d) If the child has a guardian, the child's guardian.
 - (e) If the child has a guardian ad litem, the child's guardian ad litem.
 - (f) If tribal affiliation has been determined, the Indian tribe's elected leader.
 - (g) The child's attorney and each party's attorney.
 - (h) If the child is 11 years of age or older, the child.
 - (i) The prosecutor.
- (3) The court may terminate a parent's parental rights to a child if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) The child has been deserted under either of the following circumstances:
- (i) The child's parent is unidentifiable, has deserted the child for 28 or more days, and has not sought custody of the child during that period. For the purposes of this section, a parent is unidentifiable if the parent's identity cannot be ascertained after reasonable efforts have been made to locate and identify the parent.
- (ii) The child's parent has deserted the child for 91 or more days and has not sought custody of the child during that period.
- (b) The child or a sibling of the child has suffered physical injury or physical or sexual abuse under 1 or more of the following circumstances:
- (i) The parent's act caused the physical injury or physical or sexual abuse and the court finds that there is a reasonable likelihood that the child will suffer from injury or abuse in the foreseeable future if placed in the parent's home.
- (ii) The parent who had the opportunity to prevent the physical injury or physical or sexual abuse failed to do so and the court finds that there is a reasonable likelihood that the child will suffer injury or abuse in the foreseeable future if placed in the parent's home.
- (iii) A nonparent adult's act caused the physical injury or physical or sexual abuse and the court finds that there is a reasonable likelihood that the child will suffer from injury or abuse by the nonparent adult in the foreseeable future if placed in the parent's home.

- (c) The parent was a respondent in a proceeding brought under this chapter, 182 or more days have elapsed since the issuance of an initial dispositional order, and the court, by clear and convincing evidence, finds either of the following:
- (i) The conditions that led to the adjudication continue to exist and there is no reasonable likelihood that the conditions will be rectified within a reasonable time considering the child's age.
- (ii) Other conditions exist that cause the child to come within the court's jurisdiction, the parent has received recommendations to rectify those conditions, the conditions have not been rectified by the parent after the parent has received notice and a hearing and has been given a reasonable opportunity to rectify the conditions, and there is no reasonable likelihood that the conditions will be rectified within a reasonable time considering the child's age.
- (d) The child's parent has placed the child in a limited guardianship under section 424a of the revised probate code, 1978 PA 642, MCL 700.424a, and has substantially failed, without good cause, to comply with a limited guardianship placement plan described in section 424a of the revised probate code, 1978 PA 642, MCL 700.424a, or section 5205 of the estates and protected individuals code, 1998 PA 386, MCL 700.5205, regarding the child to the extent that the noncompliance has resulted in a disruption of the parent-child relationship.
- (e) The child has a guardian under the revised probate code, 1978 PA 642, MCL 700.1 to 700.993, or the estates and protected individuals code, 1998 PA 386, MCL 700.1101 to 700.8102, and the parent has substantially failed, without good cause, to comply with a court-structured plan described in section 424b or 424c of the revised probate code, 1978 PA 642, MCL 700.424b and 700.424c, or section 5207 or 5209 of the estates and protected individuals code, 1998 PA 386, MCL 700.5207 and 700.5209, regarding the child to the extent that the noncompliance has resulted in a disruption of the parent-child relationship.
- (f) The child has a guardian under the revised probate code, 1978 PA 642, MCL 700.1 to 700.993, or the estates and protected individuals code, 1998 PA 386, MCL 700.1101 to 700.8102, and both of the following have occurred:
- (i) The parent, having the ability to support or assist in supporting the minor, has failed or neglected, without good cause, to provide regular and substantial support for the minor for a period of 2 years or more before the filing of the petition or, if a support order has been entered, has failed to substantially comply with the order for a period of 2 years or more before the filing of the petition.
- (ii) The parent, having the ability to visit, contact, or communicate with the minor, has regularly and substantially failed or neglected, without good cause, to do so for a period of 2 years or more before the filing of the petition.
- (g) The parent, without regard to intent, fails to provide proper care or custody for the child and there is no reasonable expectation that the parent will be able to provide proper care and custody within a reasonable time considering the child's age.
- (h) The parent is imprisoned for such a period that the child will be deprived of a normal home for a period exceeding 2 years, and the parent has not provided for the child's proper care and custody, and there is no reasonable expectation that the parent will be able to provide proper care and custody within a reasonable time considering the child's age.
- (i) Parental rights to 1 or more siblings of the child have been terminated due to serious and chronic neglect or physical or sexual abuse, and prior attempts to rehabilitate the parents have been unsuccessful.

- (j) There is a reasonable likelihood, based on the conduct or capacity of the child's parent, that the child will be harmed if he or she is returned to the home of the parent.
- (k) The parent abused the child or a sibling of the child and the abuse included 1 or more of the following:
 - (i) Abandonment of a young child.
- (ii) Criminal sexual conduct involving penetration, attempted penetration, or assault with intent to penetrate.
 - (iii) Battering, torture, or other severe physical abuse.
 - (iv) Loss or serious impairment of an organ or limb.
 - (v) Life threatening injury.
 - (vi) Murder or attempted murder.
 - (vii) Voluntary manslaughter.
- (viii) Aiding and abetting, attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or soliciting murder or voluntary manslaughter.
- (1) The parent's rights to another child were terminated as a result of proceedings under section 2(b) of this chapter or a similar law of another state.
- (m) The parent's rights to another child were voluntarily terminated following the initiation of proceedings under section 2(b) of this chapter or a similar law of another state.
- (n) The parent is convicted of 1 or more of the following, and the court determines that termination is in the child's best interests because continuing the parent-child relationship with the parent would be harmful to the child:
- (i) A violation of section 316, 317, 520b, 520c, 520d, 520e, or 520g of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.316, 750.317, 750.520b, 750.520c, 750.520d, 750.520e, and 750.520g.
- (ii) A violation of a criminal statute, an element of which is the use of force or the threat of force, and which subjects the parent to sentencing under section 10, 11, or 12 of chapter IX of the code of criminal procedure, 1927 PA 175, MCL 769.10, 769.11, and 769.12.
- (iii) A federal law or law of another state with provisions substantially similar to a crime or procedure listed or described in subparagraph (i) or (ii).
- (4) If a petition to terminate the parental rights to a child is filed, the court may enter an order terminating parental rights under subsection (3) at the initial dispositional hearing. If a petition to terminate parental rights to a child is filed, parenting time for a parent who is a subject of the petition is automatically suspended and, except as otherwise provided in this subsection, remains suspended at least until a decision is issued on the termination petition. If a parent whose parenting time is suspended under this subsection establishes, and the court determines, that parenting time will not harm the child, the court may order parenting time in the amount and under the conditions the court determines appropriate.
- (5) If the court finds that there are grounds for termination of parental rights, the court shall order termination of parental rights and order that additional efforts for reunification of the child with the parent not be made, unless the court finds that termination of parental rights to the child is clearly not in the child's best interests.
- (6) As used in this section, "concerned person" means a foster parent with whom the child is living or has lived who has specific knowledge of behavior by the parent constituting grounds for termination under subsection (3)(b) or (g) and who has contacted the family independence agency, the prosecuting attorney, the child's attorney, and the child's guardian ad litem, if any, and is satisfied that none of these persons intend to file a petition under this section.

712A.19c Review of child's placement in foster care and progress toward adoption or other permanent placement; applicability of section. [M.S.A. 27.3178(598.19c)]

Sec. 19c. (1) Except as provided in section 19(4) and subject to subsection (2), if a child remains in foster care following the termination of parental rights to the child, the court shall conduct a hearing not more than 91 days after the termination of parental rights and at least every 91 days after that hearing. At a hearing under this section, the court shall review all of the following:

- (a) The appropriateness of the permanency planning goal for the child.
- (b) The appropriateness of the child's placement in foster care.
- (c) The reasonable efforts being made to place the child for adoption or in other permanent placement in a timely manner.
- (2) This section applies only to a child's case in which parental rights to the child were either terminated as the result of a proceeding under section 2(b) of this chapter or a similar law of another state or terminated voluntarily following the initiation of a proceeding under section 2(b) of this chapter or a similar law of another state. This section applies as long as the child is subject to the jurisdiction, control, or supervision of the court or of the Michigan children's institute or other agency.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect. Approved March 27, 2000. Filed with Secretary of State March 27, 2000.
